Religion C. Stephen Evans, 1985 Is there a God How can we know What can we know about God These questions are the focal points of the philosophy of religion C Stephen Evans wrestles with these issues looking at the classical arguments for God's existence and examining the contemporary challenges to theism from sociology psychology and philosophy He investigates the meaning and significance of personal religious experience revelation and miracles and looks at how religious pluralism relates to individual commitment Evans Ph D Yale is curator of the Howard and Edna Hong Kierkegaard Library and associate professor of philosophy at St Olaf College Along with editing the Contours of Christian Philosophy series he has written several books including Subjectivity and Religious Belief Nature, Design, and Science Del Ratzsch, 2001-03-01 Although the scientific illegitimacy of supernatural design is typically asserted with enormous confidence and vigor there has been surprisingly little actual work on such key foundational issues as even what design is and on specific criteria for assessing its legitimacy or lack as a scientific concept However intelligent supernatural design is again surfacing in discussions both of anthropic principles and of certain types of biological complexity This book develops a definition of design explicates the more specific concept of supernatural design defends a general criterion for scientific legitimacy and argues that in some cases the concept of intelligent supernatural design can meet the relevant requirements for scientific legitimacy

Kierkegaard's Ethic of Love C. Stephen Evans, 2004-09-09 A compelling account of Kierkegaard's ethical views seeing him against the backdrop of nineteenth century European society but showing the relevance of his thought for the twenty first century Kierkegaard's view of morality as grounded in God's command to love our neighbours as ourselves has clear advantages over contemporary secular rivals A Universe From Someone Peter S. Williams, 2022-10-27 After a substantial author's preface recounting Peter S Williams's life journey with the question of God's existence A Universe From Someone pulls together essays and opening speeches from debates including the 2011 God is not a delusion debate at the Cambridge Union that jointly cover a wide variety of theistic arguments Together with a foreword by noted philosopher J P Moreland an annotated bibliography highlighting Four Dozen Key Resources on Apologetics and Natural Theology in an Age of Science and other recommended resources A Universe From Someone offers an informed overview of the contemporary case for God An Informed Cosmos Peter S. Williams, 2023-07-14 After a substantial author's preface recounting the author's life journey with the question of science and design in nature An Informed Cosmos pulls together essays that jointly cover the core arguments for a scientific theory of intelligent design Along with a foreword by philosopher of science and leading design theorist Stephen C Meyer and a wide range of recommended resources An Informed Cosmos offers an informed overview of the contemporary case for intelligent design Thinking About Christian Apologetics James K. Beilby, 2011-09-13 Most introductions to apologetics begin with the how to of defending the faith diving right into the major apologetic arguments and the body of evidence For those who want a more foundational look at this contested theological discipline this book examines Christian apologetics in its nature history approaches objections and practice Worldviews and Christian Education W. Shipton, 2013-08-14 Christs instruction to his disciples was to witness to others about his plan of salvation This may be relatively easy when it involves our contemporaries and peers But when we are working with people from a different cultural background or belief system it can be difficult or seemingly impossible In Worldviews and Christian Education editors W A Shipton E Coetzee and R Takeuchi have brought together works by experts in cross cultural religious education The authors and editors have a wealth of personal experience in presenting the gospel to individuals with various worldviews that differ greatly from those held by Christians who take the Bible as authoritative They focus on the beliefs and issues associated with witnessing to seekers for truth coming from backgrounds as diverse as animism Buddhism Confucianism Hinduism Islam Marxism Taoism and postmodernism The emphasis is on educational settings but the sensitivities highlighted and lessons learned are applicable to situations outside this area Leaders pastors teachers and laypersons will find valuable conceptual models practical ideas and bibliographic references presented here Worldviews and Christian Education challenges all readers to be faithful to the biblical worldview and to approach everyone with sensitivity so that like the apostle Paul they may reach some Behold the Man Peter S. Williams, 2024-06-18 After a substantial new essay examining the nature of a properly skeptical historical inquiry into Jesus of Nazareth in the context of contemporary worldviews from pre modernism to meta modernism Behold the Man presents revised essays on an eclectic range of issues from how the Epistle of James treats Jesus as Divine within decades of the crucifixion and an evaluation of recent arguments about the dating of the Fourth Gospel to debunking claims about Jesus and ancient aliens and furthering debate about the resurrection With a foreword by eminent New Testament scholar Craig L Blomberg and extensive recommended resources Behold the Man Essays on the Historical Jesus represents a wide ranging interdisciplinary engagement with historical Jesus studies
