multidirectional identities not only abroad but also back home Applying this international perspective to the history of American evangelicalism radically changes how we understand the development and influence of evangelicalism and of globalizing religion more broadly In addition to a critical introduction and essays by editors John Corrigan Melani McAlister and Axel R Sch fer are essays by Lydia Boyd Emily Conroy Krutz Christina Cecelia Davidson Helen Jin Kim David C Kirkpatrick Candace Lukasik Sarah Miller Davenport Dana L Robert Tom Smith Lauren F Turek and Gene Zubovich

Britain's Imperial Retreat from China, 1900-1931 Phoebe Chow, 2016-07-15 Britain's relationship with China in the nineteenth and early twentieth century is often viewed in terms of gunboat diplomacy unequal treaties and the unrelenting pursuit of Britain's own commercial interests This book however based on extensive original research demonstrates that in Britain after the First World War a combination of liberal Labour party pacifist missionary and some business opinion began to argue for imperial retreat from China and that this movement gathered sufficient momentum for a sympathetic attitude to Chinese demands becoming official Foreign Office policy in 1926 The book considers the various strands of this movement relates developments in Britain to the changing situation in China especially the rise of nationalism and the Guomindang and argues that contrary to what many people think the reassertion of China's national rights was begun successfully in this period rather than after the Communist takeover in 1949
