Scotland Yesterday:

Scotland Today and Yesterday John MacKay, 2024-12-15 This book is the story of a changing Scotland as it was heard and seen by the people of Scotland We all may have our ideas about where we are headed as nation and a society but none of us knows That makes what lies ahead so fascinating Just like what s gone before JOHN MacKAY John MacKay is one of Scotland s best known broadcasters His career as a reporter anchor and presenter has spanned from the Thatcher Years to the Independence Referendum and beyond MacKay has been witness to the major stories in the country s recent past There have been the tragedies of Lockerbie Dunblane and Clutha sporting triumphs and tears the opening of the new Scottish Parliament the drama of parliamentary elections and referendums interviews with Prime Ministers and First Ministers and the death of Donald Dewar From being in a room with a grizzly bear to trying to calm an irate and topless Alex Salmond MacKay s career has been nothing if not varied Using archive scripts interview transcripts recollections and personal diaries he tells the story of one of the most tumultuous periods in Scotland s peacetime history Education in Scotland,

Yesterday and Today May Mackintosh, 1962 Bad News (Routledge Revivals) Peter Beharrell, Howard Davis, John Eldridge, John Hewitt, Jean Hart, Gregg Philo, Paul Walton, Brian Winston, 2009-10-15 It is a commonly held belief that television news in Britain on whatever channel is more objective more trustworthy more neutral than press reporting The illusion is exploded in this controversial study by the Glasgow University Media Group originally published in 1976 The authors undertook an exhaustive monitoring of all television broadcasts over 6 months from January to June 1975 with particular focus upon industrial news broadcasts the TUC strikes and industrial action business and economic affairs Their analysis showed how television news favours certain individuals by giving them more time and status But their findings did not merely deny the neutrality of the news they gave a new insight into the picture of industrial society that TV news constructs Scotland Rosemary Goring, 2009-12-29 A spirited collection of witnessing from all the periods of Scottish history in the words of Cromwell to Conan Doyle poets to nurses to warriors The New York Review of Books This is a vivid wide ranging account of Scotland s history composed of numerous stories and observations by those who experienced it firsthand through the centuries Contributors range from Tacitus Mary Queen of Scots and Oliver Cromwell to Adam Smith David Livingstone and Billy Connolly These include not only historic moments from Bannockburn to the opening of the new Parliament in 1999 but also testimonies like that of the eight year old factory worker who was dangled by his ear out of a third floor window for making a mistake the survivors of the 1746 Battle of Culloden who wished perhaps that they had died on the field John Logie Baird inventor of television and great writers including Arthur Conan Doyle Robert Louis Stevenson and the editor of Encyclopedia Britannica From the battlefield to the sports field this is living accessible history told by criminals servants housewives poets journalists nurses prisoners comedians and many more Notes of a Newsman John MacKay, 2015-09-01 As a young reporter John MacKay took the first calls on the Lockerbie Bombing As a news anchor he conducted the final TV interviews of the Yes and No campaigns in Scotland's Referendum His journey in journalism has taken him to the key events through the most dramatic decades of Scotland's peacetime history Using contemporary scripts transcripts of significant interviews diaries and recollections he charts Scotland's transformation as a society and as a nation

What was happening elsewhere in the world when Robert the Bruce was outlawed and Mary Queen of Scots lost her head When Genghis Khan was on the warpath and Ivan the Terrible was the Russian czar what was happening in Scotland Find the answers to these questions in 2 000 years of Scottish history presented alongside what was happening in the rest of the world By placing events in Scotland in relation to those elsewhere we can see what is different or distinctive about Scotland's experience Simultaneously we can also see where movements in Scottish history were part of wider cultural or political change in Europe and beyond John Knox's fiery sermons of the 1560s were connected into a wider Protestant Reformation but they also represented a singularly Scottish version of a European phenomenon Connecting Scotland's History also gives us a history of many Scotlands We see the hybrid nature of a country where multiple peoples have come together in a distinctively Scottish mixture From the Gaels Picts and Norse people to more recent influxes from England Ireland continental Europe and beyond Scotland's history tells us of internal connections as well as connections between Scotland and the wider world Scotland's Referendum and the Media Neil Blain, 2016-02-12 After the Referendum on whether Scotland should become an independent country in September 2014 and following a momentous mobilisation of voters by both the Yes and No campaigns Scotland's political environment has been fundamentally energised But how was the Referendum campaign reported and structured in the media in Scotland the wider United Kingdom and in other parts of the world and was it a matter of construction rather than representation In this book scholars commentators and journalists from Britain Europe and beyond examine how the media across the world presented the debate itself and the shifting nature of Scottish and British identity which that debate revealed Several of the contributors also explore how the emphases and constructions which were put on the debate in their particular countries illuminated these countries own responses to nationalism and separatism The consequences of the Referendum s No result are traced in the media through until the May general election of 2015 Catalogue of the General Assembly Library of New Zealand New Zealand.
