Scottish Aggregates For Building Conservation Historic Scotland Technical Advice Note S:

Practical Building Conservation Alison Henry, John Stewart, 2012 Mortars Renders and Plasters provides a broad perspective of contemporary conservation theory and practice not otherwise found in one publication describing the history physical properties and deterioration of these important materials Methods of assessing condition and evaluating options for treatment and repair are discussed together with a range of practical conservation techniques and maintenance strategies

Historic Mortars Jan Válek, John J. Hughes, Caspar J. W. P. Groot, 2012-06-23 This volume focuses on research and practical issues connected with mortars on historic structures The book is divided into four sections Characterisation of Historic Mortars Repair Mortars and Design Issues Experimental Research into Properties of Repair Mortars and Assessment and Testing The papers present the latest work of researchers in their field The individual contributions were selected from the contributions to the 2nd Historic Mortars Conference which took place in Prague September 22 24 2010 All papers were reviewed and improved as necessary before publication This peer review process by the editors resulted in the 34 individual contributions included in here One extra paper reviewing and summarising State of the Art knowledge covered by this publication was added as a starting and navigational point for the reader The editors believe that having these papers in print is important and they hope that it will stimulate further research into historic mortars and related subjects Scottish

Aggregates for Building Conservation Alick Leslie, Patricia Gibbons, 1999 Conservation of Historic Graveyards Ingvál Maxwell, Ratish Nanda, Dennis Urquhart, 2001 Illustrating the relationship between animals and people and the struggle to survive that many animals face day in day out this book reveals how many types of animals are in danger of extinction as they are hunted for their skin teeth and bones and how other species have become threatened because humans have destroyed their habitats All sections of the animal world are represented from butterflies beetles and bugs to snakes and larger mammals bears big cats and elephants The text explains what is currently being done to protect these endangered animals and how research is helping experts to understand what can be done to preserve them and their habitats in the future

Parchment/vellum Conservation Survey and Bibliography Nicola L. Ralston, 2000 Written in a jargon free style this title assumes no prior knowledge of databases It adopts a learn by doing approach and contains practical graded assignments taking the student from elementary level to advanced The book Integrates both theory and practice but theory is supplied in manageable chunks while symbols are used throughout to indicate learning objectives useful tips and important points It is written specifically for Microsoft Office 2000 but assignments can also be completed using Office XP or Office 97 A glossary of database terms is also included which can be used as a quick reference and solutions to the assignments will be available on the Gill Macmillan website An easy to use step by step text to bring the learner right from the basics of databases to an advanced level Old House Care and Repair Janet Collings, 2016-01-20 Owners of old houses are often baffled by the confusing advice they receive from their builders architects or surveyors who may be more familiar with repairing modern buildings than dealing with the issues associated with traditional houses Old houses generally require a different approach one for instance which takes account of their need to breathe Modern solutions do not always recognise that need This book will help owners builders and all construction professionals make the decisions that are right for old buildings It illustrates the long term benefits of using more traditional solutions on older houses rather than modern materials like cement based mortars sealants or impervious paints It offers practical guidance on How to get the right professional advice Legal requirements for listed buildings Problems with damp and rot Use of lime mortars plasters and renders Why old buildings need to breathe Planning applications and Trees outbuildings and gardens British National Bibliography for Report Literature ,2000
