Unlike most writer's guides, this one has as much to do with how writers live as with mastering the tools of their trade. Rita Mae Brown begins with a very personal account of her own career from her days as a young poet who had written a novel no publisher wanted to take a chance on, right up to her recent adventures as a Hollywood screenwriter. In a sassy style that makes her outspoken advice as entertaining as it is useful, she provides straight talk about paying the rent while maintaining the energy to write and dealing with agents, publishers, critics and the publicity circus about pursuing journalism, academia or screen writing and about rejecting the Hemingway myth of the hard living, hard drinking genius. In addition, Brown, a former teacher of writing, offers a serious examination of the writer's tool language, plotting, characters, symbolism, plus exercises to sharpen the ear for dialogue and a fascinating annotated reading list of important works from the seventh century to the late twentieth. Build an Unstoppable Business from Scratch: The No-Nonsense Guide to Growth Ahmed Musa, 2025-03-11 Building a business from the ground up can feel overwhelming, but Build an Unstoppable Business from Scratch offers the no-nonsense practical steps you need to take to grow a thriving business even with limited resources.
