

SCREAMING LIFE

A CHRONICLE OF THE SEATTLE MUSIC SCENE

"Along with a lot of bruises and broken equipment, Peterson got something that was unique and true, what live rock music is all about: a commotion of hair, sweat, guitars, drums, and wires, which he juggled using classical compositional elements . . . all rendered in glorious black and white.

Somehow he managed, in the midst of the chaos, to snap photographs that are works of art."

—MICHAEL AZERRAD, Screaming Life

Few photographers can lay claim to shaping the look of an entire musical movement, but Charles Peterson and his photographs have played a pivotal role in the Seattle music scene, becoming the perfect visual analogue to the music and the bands—from Nirvana and Soundgarden to Pearl Jam and Mudhoney—that have transformed a generation. Fearlessly wading into the mosh pit, Peterson has made a career of capturing the humanity of the moment, plucking spontaneous beauty from the tumult of a rock show, revealing the honesty of its most unguarded moments. Marvels of controlled chaos, his daringly blurred black-and-white shots recreate the experience of a typical Seattle show, giving you a palpable sensation of being in the heat of the pit—without the threat of spilled beer.

The photos are perfectly complemented by an essay by Michael Azerrad and an exclusive compilation CD, not available anywhere else, of historic cuts from Sub Pop, the independent record label that started it all.

CHARLES PETERSON'S photographs have appeared on platinum-selling album covers and in virtually every major magazine around the world.

MICHAEL AZERRAD is a music journalist and author of the bestselling Come As You Are: The Story of Nirvana.
