The Lost Child Complex in Australian Film Terrie Waddell,2019-03-27 The mythologising of lost and abandoned children significantly influences Australian storytelling In The Lost Child Complex in Australian Film Terrie Waddell looks at the concept of the lost child from a psychological and cultural perspective Taking an interdisciplinary Jungian approach she re evaluates this cyclic storytelling motif in history literature and the creative arts as the nucleus of a cultural complex a group obsession that as Jung argued of all complexes has us Waddell explores the lost child in its many manifestations as an element of the individual and collective psyche historically related to the trauma of colonisation and war and as key theme in Australian cinema from the industry s formative years to the present day The films discussed in textual depth transcend literal lost in the bush mythologies or actual cases of displaced children to focus on vulnerable children rendered lost through government and institutional practices and adult parental characters developmentally arrested by comforting or traumatic childhood memories The victory winning fixation governing the USA diametrically opposed to the lost child motif is also discussed as a comparative example of the mesmerising nature of the cultural complex Examining iconic characters and events such as the Gallipoli Campaign and Trump s presidency and films such as The Babadook Lion and Predestination this book scrutinises the way in which a culture talks to itself about itself This analysis looks beyond the melancholy traditionally ascribed to the lost child by arguing that the repetitive and prolific imagery that this theme stimulates can be positive and inspiring The Lost Child Complex in Australian Film is a unique and compelling work which will be highly relevant for academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian ideas cultural studies screen and media studies It will also appeal to Jungian psychotherapists and analytical psychologists as well as readers with a broader interest in Australian history and politics
