Screening The Text Intertextuality In New Wave French Cinema:

Screening the Text Thomas Jefferson Kline, 1992 To make his case Kline establishes the international range of the literary and cultural texts screened by Truffaut Malle Chabrol Rohmer Bresson Godard and Resnais Their fascination with American film is well known but their references extend well beyond to classical mythology to contemporary and classical French literature and to a variety of Russian Norwegian German and English writers and philosophers Armed with terms such as auteur and camera stylo the new cineastes engaged directly in film writing even while rejecting the orderliness required by straightforward adaptation of written works     The French New Wave Michel Marie, 2008-04-15 The French New Wave An Artistic School is a lively introduction to this critical moment in film history by one of the world's leading scholars on the New Wave Provides a concise account of the French New Wave by one of the world's leading film scholars Outlines the essential traits of the New Wave and defines it as a school that changed international film history forever Includes a chronology of major political and cultural events of the New Wave black and white images and an extensive bibliography     The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz, MaryEllen Higgins, 2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumière in 1895 with the invention of the cinematographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cinematographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumière's La Sortie de l'usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumière factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges Méliès Alice Guy and Charles Pathé Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world's best directors Jean Renoir Jean-Luc Godard François Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve Gérard Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike

Global Neorealism Saverio Giovacchini, Robert Sklar, 2011-10-11 Contributions by Nathaniel Brennan Luca Caminati Silvia Carolosi Caroline Eades Saverio Giovacchini Paula Halperin Neepa Majumdar Mariano Mestman Hamid Naficy Sada Niang Masha Salazkina Sarah Sarzynski Robert Sklar and Vito Zaggarro Intellectual cultural and film historians have long considered neorealism the founding block of post World War II Italian cinema Neorealism the traditional story goes was an Italian film style born in the second postwar period and aimed at recovering the reality of Italy after the sugarcoated moving images of fascism Lasting from 1945 to the early 1950s neorealism produced world renowned masterpieces such as Roberto Rossellini's Roma città aperta Rome Open City 1945 and Vittorio De Sica's Ladri di biciclette Bicycle Thieves 1947 These films won some of the most prestigious film awards of the immediate postwar period and influenced world cinema This collection brings together distinguished film scholars and cultural historians to complicate this nation based approach to the history of neorealism The traditional story notwithstanding the meaning and the origins of the term are problematic What does neorealism really mean and how Italian is it Italian filmmakers were wary of using the term and Rossellini preferred realism Many filmmakers confessed to having greatly borrowed from other cinemas including French Soviet and American Divided into three sections Global Neorealism examines the history of this film style from the 1930s to the 1970s using a global and international perspective The first section examines the origins of neorealism in the international debate about realist esthetics in the 1930s The second section discusses how this debate about realism was Italianized and coalesced into Italian neorealism and explores how critics and film distributors participated in coining the term Finally the third section looks at neorealism's success outside of Italy and examines how film cultures in Latin America Africa Asia and the United States adjusted the style to their national and regional situations Remembering the Occupation in French film L.

Hewitt, 2008-02-18 When collective memory is a source of national debate the public representation of history quickly becomes a locus of controversy and ideological struggle This work shows how French film has allowed for a public airing of current concerns through the lens of memory's recreations of the Occupation Figuring the Past Belén Vidal, 2012

Figuring the past geeft een nieuwe kijk op kostuumdrama's die aan het begin van deze eeuw gemaakt zijn en onderzoekt de manieren waarop de hedendaagse cinema het historische verleden herschept De auteur verkent de relatie tussen visuele motieven en culturele representaties in een aantal belangrijke films van onder anderen James Ivory Martin Scorsese en Jane Campion Door te kijken naar de manieristische voorkeur voor citatie detail en stileren pleit de auteur voor een esthetiek van fragmenten en figuren die centraal staan in de historische kostuumdrama's als een internationaal genre In gedetailleerde casestudies worden drie belangrijke kenmerken van het genre het huis het tableau en de brief in relatie gebracht met de veranderende begrippen van visuele stijl melodrama en geslacht A History of the French New Wave Cinema Richard Neupert, 2007-04-20

The French New Wave cinema is arguably the most fascinating of all film movements famous for its exuberance daring and avant garde techniques A History of the French New Wave Cinema offers a fresh look at the social economic and aesthetic mechanisms that shaped French film in the 1950s as well as detailed studies of the most important New Wave movies of the late 1950s and early 1960s Richard Neupert first tracks the precursors to New Wave cinema showing how they provided blueprints for those who would follow He then demonstrates that it was a core group of critics turned directors from the magazine Cahiers du Cinéma especially François Truffaut Claude Chabrol and Jean-Luc Godard who really revealed that filmmaking was changing forever Later their cohorts Eric Rohmer Jacques Rivette Jacques Doniol

Valcroze and Pierre Kast continued in their own unique ways to expand the range and depth of the New Wave In an exciting new chapter Neupert explores the subgroup of French film practice known as the Left Bank Group which included directors such as Alain Resnais and Agnès Varda With the addition of this new material and an updated conclusion Neupert presents a comprehensive review of the stunning variety of movies to come out of this important era in filmmaking

A Companion to Jean Renoir Alastair Phillips, Ginette Vincendeau, 2013-04-11 A Companion to Jean Renoir An extraordinary collection of essays that more than fulfills the aims of its editors Alastair Phillips and Ginette Vincendeau The essays offer exciting original work from younger scholars as well as long established authorities all of which offer invaluable insights into the films writings and life of Jean Renoir Receiving particular attention are questions about the singularity or multiplicity of what the editors call the many Renoirs French American Indian even transnational especially from the early 1930s through the early 1960s Whether mining relatively unexplored archive materials deploying newly current methodological approaches interrogating one of a wide range of topics and issues or engaging in close textual analysis the contributors construct a tantalizing series of innovative road maps for future researchers to pursue Richard Abel University of Michigan Alastair Phillips and Ginette Vincendeau have brought together essays that bring new perspectives to both the best known and the lesser known of Renoir's films Both French cinema specialists and viewers new to Renoir's work will find much of interest in this outstanding collection Judith Mayne Ohio State University Dubbed simply the best director by François Truffaut Jean Renoir is a towering figure in world film history This exhaustive survey of his work and life features a comprehensive analysis of his films from the multiple critical perspectives of the world's leading Renoir scholars Renoir's career spanned four decades and four countries and included an extraordinary body of films some of which La Grande illusion 1937 and La Règle du jeu 1939 are universally recognized masterpieces Fathered by the celebrated painter Pierre Auguste Renoir the filmmaker lived through much of the twentieth century beginning his career in the silent era and ending it in full Technicolor His films are notable for their paradoxical combination of strong internal coherence and thematic breadth and diversity and they provide a rich source for today's scholars of film history and French culture This handbook the largest volume on Renoir ever produced in the English language ranges in scope from extreme close up analysis of individual films to long shot explorations of his aesthetics and the social and cultural contexts in which he worked The most ambitious critical study of Renoir to date this book will appeal to film enthusiasts as much as scholars and specialists

A Companion to Jean-Luc Godard Tom Conley, T. Jefferson Kline, 2014-04-17 This compendium of original essays offers invaluable insights into the life and works of one of the most important and influential directors in the history of cinema exploring his major films philosophy politics and connections to other critics and directors Presents a compendium of original essays offering invaluable insights into the life and works of one of the most important and influential filmmakers in the history of cinema Features contributions from an international cast of major film theorists and critics Provides readers with both an in depth reading of Godard's major films and a sense of his evolution from the New Wave to his later political periods Brings fresh insights into the great director's biography including reflections on his personal philosophy politics and connections to other critics and filmmakers Explores many of the 80 features Godard made in nearly 60 years and includes coverage of his recent work in video Faulknerista Catherine G. Kodat,2022-11-16 Faulknerista collects more than twenty years of critically influential scholarship by Catherine Gunther Kodat on the writings of one of the most important American authors of the twentieth century William Faulkner Initially composed as freestanding essays and now updated and revised the book's nine chapters place Faulkner's work in the context of current debates concerning the politics of white authors who write about race queer sexualities and the use of the N word in literature and popular culture The Faulknerista of the title is a critic who tackles these debates without fear or favor balancing admiration with skepticism in a manner that establishes a new model for single author scholarship that is both historically grounded for women have been writing about Faulkner and talking back to him since the beginning of his career and urgently contemporary Beginning with an introduction that argues for the critical importance of women's engagement with Faulkner's fiction through comparative discussions pairing it with works by Toni Morrison Jean Luc Godard Quentin Tarantino and David Simon Faulknerista offers a valuable resource for students scholars and general readers written in an accessible style and aimed at stimulating discussions of Faulkner's work and the rich interpretive challenges it continues to present The French New Wave Peter Graham,Ginette Vincendeau,2022-09-08 The French New Wave is an essential anthology of writings by and about the critics and filmmakers of this revolutionary cinematic movement which has had a radical impact on film practice and the way we think and write about film The volume includes foundational writings such as Francois Truffaut's A Certain Tendency in French Cinema and Andre Bazin's La Politique des auteurs as well writings by Jean Luc Godard Claude Chabrol and Alexandre Astruc This new edition now represents writings by and about women critics and film makers including important articles by the critics Evelyne Sullerot Michele Firk and Fran oise Aude addressing issues of gender and representation as well as considering New Wave films in the context of contemporary political events notably France's colonialist war on the Algerian independence movement To accompany the case study of Godard's bout de souffle the new edition includes a case study of the critical reception of two films by Agn s Varda La Pointe Courte and Cl o de 5 7 The articles have been specially translated for the volume by Peter Graham and some are published for the first time in English These classic writings are accompanied by contextualising introductions by Ginette Vincendeau updated for this new edition to form a unique resource on this key cinematic movement and its practitioners Intermedial Dialogues Marion Schmid,2019-05-23 Casting fresh light on one of the most important movements in film history Intermedial Dialogues The French New Wave and the Other Arts is the first comprehensive study of the New Wave's relationship with the older arts Traversing the fields of literature theatre painting architecture and photography and drawing on Andre Bazin alongside recent theories of intermediality it investigates the impure intermedial aesthetics of New Wave cinema Filmmakers

under discussion include critics turned directors Francois Truffaut Eric Rohmer Jean Luc Godard Jacques Rivette and Claude Chabrol members of the Left Bank Group Alain Resnais Agnes Varda and Chris Marker but also lesser known directors notably the secret child of the New Wave Guy Gilles This wide ranging book offers an original reading of the complex often ambivalent ways in which the New Wave engages the other arts in both its discursive construction and filmic practice Key Features A wide ranging study which explores the complex often ambiguous ways in which the New Wave engages with the other arts in both its discursive construction and cinematic practice Affords a new prism for understanding New Wave filmmaking and its legacy through comprehensive analysis of the ways in which the New Wave aesthetic was shaped through intermedial dialogue and medium rivalry Reassesses one of the most acclaimed movements in film history drawing on cutting edge theory in the prominent field of intermediality studies Offers an inclusive heterogeneous view of the New Wave through inclusion of lesser known directors such as Guy Gilles Jean Daniel Pollet and Jacques Demy alongside renowned Nouvelle Vague filmmakers

Cinema Studies: The Key Concepts Susan Hayward, 2006-04-18 Ranging from Bollywood superstar Amitabh Bachchan to Quentin Tarantino and from auteur theory to the Hollywood Blockbuster Cinema Studies The Key Concepts has firmly established itself as the essential guide for anyone interested in film Covering an impressive range of key genres movements theories and production terms this third edition includes a fully updated bibliography and has been revised and expanded to include new topical entries such as female masquerade silent cinema exploitation cinema art direction national cinema political cinema Authoritative yet accessible Cinema Studies The Key Concepts is undoubtedly a must have guide to what is both a fascinating area of study and arguably the greatest art form of modern times

European Intertexts Patsy Stoneman, Ana María Sánchez-Arce, Angela Leighton, 2005 European Intertexts is the first fruit of an ongoing collaborative study aiming to challenge the isolationism of much critical work on English literature by exploring the interdependence of English and continental European literatures in writing by women While later volumes will deal with specific texts this introductory volume provides a descriptive framework and a theoretical basis for studies in the field Covering issues such as the role of English as a world language the definition of Europe and the current state of Translation Studies the book also surveys theories of intertextuality and demonstrates intertextual links between written and visual and film texts This book is itself pioneering in making a systematic approach to women's writings in English in the context of other European cultures Although Europe is a political reality this cultural interpenetration remains largely unexamined and these essays represent an important first step towards revealing that unexplored richness

Claude Chabrol's Aesthetics of Opacity Catherine Dousteysier-Khoze, 2018-05-31 Examines how Cold War films depicted pertinent issues of American social class and gender

Roland Barthes' Cinema Philip Watts, 2016-04-01 The most famous name in French literary circles from the late 1950s till his death in 1981 Roland Barthes maintained a contradictory rapport with the cinema As a cultural critic he warned of its surreptitious ability to lead the enthralled spectator toward an acceptance of a pre given world As a leftist he understood that spectacle could be turned against itself and provoke deep questioning of that pre given world And as an extraordinarily sensitive human being he relished the beauty of images and the community they could bring together Cinema and Intermediality Ágnes Pethő,2011-05-25 Within the last two decades intermediality has emerged as one of the most challenging concepts in media theory with no shortage of various taxonomies and definitions What prompted the writing of the essays gathered in this volume however was not a desire for more classifications applied to the world of moving pictures but a strong urge to investigate what the inter implied by the idea of intermediality stands for and what it actually entails in the cinema The book offers in each of the individual chapters a cross section view of specific instances in which cinema seems to consciously position itself in between media and arts employing techniques that tap into the multimedial complexity of cinema and bring into play the tensions generated by media differences The introductory theoretical writings deal with the historiography of approaching intermedial phenomena in cinema presenting at the same time some of the possible gateways that can open up the cinematic image towards the perceptual frames of other media and arts The book also contains essays that examine more closely specific paradigms in the poetics of cinematic intermediality like the allure of painting in Hitchcock s films the exquisite ways of framing and un framing haptical imagery in Antonioni s works the narrative allegories of media differences the word and image plays and ekphrastic techniques in Jean Luc Godard s total cinema the fl neuristic intermedial gallery of moving images created by Jos Luis Guer n or the types of intermedial metalepses in Agn s Varda s cin criture From a theoretical vantage point these essays break with the tradition of thinking of intermediality in analogy with intertextuality and attempt a phenomenological re definition of intermedial relations Moreover some of the analyses target films that expose the coexistence of the hypermediated experience of intermediality and the illusion of reality connecting the questions of intermediality both to the indexical nature of cinematic representation and to the specific ideological and cultural context of the films thus offering insights into a few questions regarding the politics of intermediality as well The Cambridge History of French Literature William Burgwinkle,Nicholas Hammond,Emma Wilson,2011-02-24 From Occitan poetry to Francophone writing produced in the Caribbean and North Africa from intellectual history to current films and from medieval manuscripts to bandes dessin es this History covers French literature from its beginnings to the present day With equal attention to all genres historical periods and registers this is the most comprehensive guide to literature written in French ever produced in English and the first in decades to offer such an array of topics and perspectives Contributors attend to issues of orality history peripheries visual culture alterity sexuality religion politics autobiography and testimony The result is a collection that despite the wide variety of topics and perspectives presents a unified view of the richness of French speaking cultures This History gives support to the idea that French writing will continue to prosper in the twenty first century as it adapts adds to and refocuses the rich legacy of its past The Cinema of Eric Rohmer Jacob Leigh,2012-05-03 Presents in chronological order the themes and ideas of his twenty three feature films and the complexity of their cinematic style      A Companion to William Faulkner Richard C. Moreland, 2017-06-14 This comprehensive Companion to William Faulkner reflects the current dynamic state of Faulkner studies Explores the contexts criticism genres and interpretations of Nobel Prize winning writer William Faulkner arguably the greatest American novelist Comprises newly commissioned essays written by an international contributor team of leading scholars Guides readers through the plethora of critical approaches to Faulkner over the past few decades Draws upon current Faulkner scholarship as well as critically reflecting on previous interpretations
