

A serene seascape with a crescent moon in a blue sky and calm water. The sky is a gradient of light blue to white, and the water is a deep blue. A few small, dark rocks are visible in the foreground.

'There are some things people cannot do,
but God can do anything.'"

Scripture Today:

Today's Scripture Guidance Anthony Teran Miller, 2019-09-20 Today's Scripture Guidance contains daily Scripture from the Word of God to guide Believers and those who want to have detailed Holy Spirit guidance. Each daily Scripture is received from God through the servant of Jesus prayer to Him. The servant of Jesus surrenders to Jesus in prayer each day asking Him to utilize the Holy Spirit to meet God and receive the Scripture that God wants His people to read that day. The servant of Jesus also asks that Jesus call the Holy Spirit to send Spirit-taught words through the servant that gives Spirit guidance of the very Word of God. This prayer and surrender process is done by the servant of Jesus each day so that every single day of Scripture is from God and every single day of guidance to the Word of God is from the Holy Spirit. The Word and the guidance of God's Word is not from the servant of Jesus but is delivered through the servant of Jesus. This is the work that Jesus has called this servant to do. Amen. Today's Scripture Guidance is from the very Word of God. It is spoken boldly with Spirit-taught words. The guidance is there each day to help the readers of God's Word understand the mystery of His Word through words delivered by the Holy Spirit. Today's Scripture Guidance delivers daily reading and guidance to strengthen your understanding of the Word of God and to guide you through living your life in a way that pleases God. This Guidance will help you to truly understand the Word of God. Each day the Word was selected by God and the guidance was delivered with Spirit-taught Words from the Holy Spirit. Hallelujah.

The Bible's Authority in Today's Church Frederick Houk Borsch, 1999-08-01 How important is the Bible in today's church? This book provides the clear answer that the Bible is fundamental to the church's vitality and continuance. Ignoring the Bible or limiting its importance in the church is the precursor to spiritual death and communal dissolution. Here then is a lively study debate and conversation particularly within the Episcopal Church in the United States concerning the authority and function of the Bible in today's church. A helpful leader's guide has been added to assist those who would use the book in adult study groups.

Biblical Preaching for Today's World Lloyd Perry, 1990-03-08 Biblical preaching has not outgrown its usefulness. The methods may vary but the message remains the same. God's challenge and call to the preacher still come through loud and clear. Preach the Word. Lloyd M. Perry's Biblical Preaching for Today's World has been helping pastors and speakers preach the Word since 1973. Although the principles Perry originally established are timeless, the needs and concerns of audiences are always changing. To help pastors preach more effectively to today's congregations, Perry has updated his original manuscript. He offers pastors help in understanding and adjusting to the effects television has had on an audience's listening skills. Historical references throughout each chapter will also help preachers learn from yesterday's teachers and styles. Biblical Preaching for Today's World continues to offer sound, time-tested principles for preaching regardless of the preacher's style. Filled with helpful suggestions, annotated outlines, and solid documentation, it is invaluable reading for all who aspire to preach the Word.

A landmark textbook for Christian counselors that unpacks the core theological convictions behind sound counseling and outlines practical wisdom for counseling today. Since the beginning of the biblical counseling movement in 1970, biblical counselors have argued that counseling is a ministry of the Word, just like preaching or missions. As a ministry, counseling must be defined according to sound biblical theology rather than secular principles of psychology. For over four decades, biblical theology has been at the core of the biblical counseling movement. Leaders in biblical counseling have emphasized a commitment to teaching doctrine in their counseling courses out of the conviction that good theology leads to good counseling, and bad theology leads to bad counseling. A Theology of Biblical Counseling is an ideal resource for use in training biblical counselors at colleges, seminaries, and training institutes. In each chapter, doctrine comes to life in real ministry to real people, dramatically demonstrating how theology intersects with the lives of actual counselees. James Barr and the Bible Paul R. Wells, 2016-01-27

Dr. Paul Wells takes the reader deep into the thought of James Barr, the prominent and controversial Oxford professor known for his works on biblical semantics, interpretation, and authority. Barr's criticisms of both modern biblical theology and fundamentalism, and his rejection of traditional views of inspiration and authority, provide the background for his proposal to view the Bible as a progressing human tradition. In this radical alternative, Barr seeks a way of encouraging the Scriptures to speak freely. Wells contends, however, that Barr's critique is not radical enough to solve a major remaining problem of the relation of Scripture's divine and human factors. Wells's own assessment of that problem and proposed solution are found in his conclusion. Today's Letter from God Iris Lay with Christopher McCormick, 2019-05-13
