The Shanghai Capitalists and the Nationalist Government, 1927-1937 Parks M. Coble, Jr., 2020-03-17 A common generalization about the Nationalist Government in China during the 1927 1937 decade has been that Chiang Kai shek s regime was closely allied with the capitalists in Shanghai This book brings to light a different picture that Nanking sought to control the capitalists politically to prevent them from having a voice in the political structure and to milk the wealth of the urban economy for government coffers This study documents major political conflicts between the capitalists and the government and demonstrates that the regime gradually suppressed the main organizations of the capitalists and gained control of many of their financial and industrial enterprises This is the first systematic examination of the political role of the Shanghai capitalists during the Nanking decade A number of related issues the operation of the government bond market the role of the Shanghai underworld and its ties to Chiang Kai shek the personalities and policies of key government officials such as TV Soong and H H Kung the Japanese attempt to control the economic policies of the Nanking government and the growth of bureaucratic capitalism are brought into focus The Shanghai Capitalists and the Nationalist Government, 1927-1937 Parks M. Coble, 2023-03-30 When World War II ended Chiang Kai shek seemed at the height of his power the leader of Nationalist China one of the victorious Allied Powers in 1945 and with the financial backing of the US Yet less than four years later he lost the China s civil war against the communists Offering an insightful chronological treatment of the years 1944 1949 Parks Coble addresses why Chiang was unable to win the war and control hyperinflation Using newly available archival sources he reveals the critical weakness of Chiang s style of governing the fundamental structural flaws in the Nationalist government bitter personal rivalries and Chiang s personal lack of interest in finance This major work of revisionist scholarship will
