Schuler,2008-07 About An Italian Cookbook of Family Treasures As the title states this is more than a cookbook but a book of Family Treasures The Authors opens up about his Italian family and the history of them making their way from Calabria and Sicily Italy to America and settling in upstate New York In a different and unique way Schuler has tied his family roots to recipes dating back 100 years These include such family favorites as the original family sauce recipe and home made pasta to family favorites prepared daily in their home Not only are his grandparent s part of the story but aunts uncles and close family friends are tied to recipes and interesting stories that make each recipe a true treasure The theme is Italian cooking but other popular entrees have found their way to the dinner table desert tray and holiday gift baskets and yes the family bar Drinks found to be family favorites and each having a special occasion and special person associated with the drink is described in the story and recipe sections No Experience Necessary Norman Van Aken,2013-12-07 No Experience Necessary is Chef Norman Van Aken s joyride of a memoir In it he spans twenty plus years and nearly as many jobs including the fateful job advertisement in the local paper for a short order cook with no experience necessary Long considered a culinary renegade and a pioneering chef Van Aken is an American original who chopped and charred sweated and seared his way to cooking stardom with no formal training but with extra helpings of energy creativity and faith After landing on the deceptively breezy shores of Key West Van Aken faced hurricanes economic downturns and mercurial moneymen during the decades when a restaurant could open and close faster than you can type haute cuisine From a graveyard shift grunt at an all night barbeque joint to a James Beard award finalist for best restaurant in America Van Aken put his trusting heart poetic soul natural talent and ever expanding experience into every venture and helped transform the American culinary landscape along the way In the irreverent tradition of Anthony Bourdain s Kitchen Confidential and populated by a rogues gallery of colorful characters including movie stars legendary musicians and culinary giants Julia Child Emeril Lagasse and Charlie Trotter No Experience Necessary offers a uniquely personal highly entertaining under the tablecloth view of the high stakes world of American cuisine told with wit insight and great affection by a natural storyteller
