The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Victorian Women's Writing Lesa Scholl,Emily Morris,2022-12-15 Since the late twentieth century there has been a strategic campaign to recover the impact of Victorian women writers in the field of English literature However with the increased understanding of the importance of interdisciplinarity in the twenty first century there is a need to extend this campaign beyond literary studies in order to recognise the role of women writers across the nineteenth century a time that was intrinsically interdisciplinary in approach to scholarly writing and public intellectual engagement Essays on Life Writing Marlene Kadar,1992-01-01 Marlene Kadar has brought together an interdisciplinary and comparative collection of critical and theoretical essays by diverse Canadian scholars The Woman Question: Social issues Elizabeth K. Helsinger,Robin Ann Sheets,William R. Veeder,1983 Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms Settlement Ann Birch,2010-09-01 The untold story of scandal and political intrigue in early Toronto Anna Jameson arrives in the tiny settlement of Toronto in November 1836 She has come at the request of her estranged husband but she intends to gather material for a new book which will eventually be published in England years later At first Anna finds herself in an alien world She has little in common with Toronto women whose interests centre on gossip and their families but as she begins to move into adventures like sleigh riding and helping to fight a major fire she enters a new life And she also meets man about town Sam Jarvis But Jarvis has a loving wife a pile of debts and a violent past The story is told from both their points of view She travels alone into the wilderness becomes the first white woman to descend the Sault rapids in a canoe and discovers the joy of freedom On Manitoulin Island she and Sam Jarvis meet again During a long canoe trip down Lake Huron they wrestle with the conflicts in their relationship and arrive at a settlement Maps of Difference Wendy Roy,2005-05-12 Roy considers the connections Jameson makes between feminism and anti racism in Winter Studies and Summer Rambles in Canada 1838 Hubbard s insights in A Woman s Way Through Unknown Labrador 1908 into her relationship with First Nations men who had both more and less power than she and Laurence s awareness of colonial and patriarchal oppression in her African memoir The Prophet s Camel Bell 1963 Roy also examines archival and First Nations accounts of these women s travels and the sketches

photos and maps that accompany their writing to examine contradictions in and question the implied objectivity of travel narratives She concludes by looking at the myth of getting there first and the ways in which new technologies of representation including cameras allow travellers and writers to claim new travel firsts
