Love Is All Around The Making Of The Mary Tyler Moore Show:

Love is All Around Robert S. Alley, Irby B. Brown, 1989 For the millions of The Mary Tyler Moore Show fans here at last is the definitive inside story based on interviews with all of the principal players of one of the most popular sitcoms in the history of television Love Is All Around Paula Bernstein, 2020-09-01 A fun and inspirational homage to The Mary Tyler Moore Show now 50 years after its debut with life lessons on how Mary Richards serves as an icon and inspiration for generations of women to make it after all When the character of Mary Richards walked into the WJM News Room in the fall of 1970 one of the most beloved shows in television history was born The Mary Tyler Moore Show would win 29 Emmys over its 7 year run and would later be lauded as one of the most influential TV shows of all time Not only that but Mary Richards would become an icon and inspiration for future generations of women for example Oprah Winfrey Andrea Mitchell and Tina Fey have all credited Mary with inspiring their careers Now entertainment writer Paula Bernstein writes this charming celebration of this groundbreaking show offering not only fun trivia and history but also the lessons we've gleaned including Make the Most of a Small Space Mary's adorable nook in a Victorian home became TV's most famous bachelorette pad and with Mary's M on the wall inspired thousands of women to adopt their own first initial as home decor Get Along with Everyone at Work Lou Grant was grumpy Ted Baxter a blowhard and Murray an all-around nice guy Mary worked with all her colleagues with grace and style And at the time Mary's position as Associate Producer at WJM was glass shattering You Can Have the Town Take it How Mary's famous hat throw was an inspiration to independent working women everywhere And many more Heartland TV Victoria E. Johnson, 2008 Winner of the 2009 Society for Cinema and Media Studies Katherine Singer Kovacs Book Award The Midwest of popular imagination is a Heartland characterized by traditional cultural values and mass market dispositions Whether cast positively as authentic pastoral populist hardworking and all American or negatively as backward narrow minded unsophisticated conservative and out of touch the myth of the Heartland endures Heartland TV examines the centrality of this myth to television's promotion and development programming and marketing appeals and public debates over the medium's and its audience's cultural worth Victoria E Johnson investigates how the square image of the heartland has been ritually recuperated on prime time television from The Lawrence Welk Show in the 1950s to documentary specials in the 1960s to The Mary Tyler Moore Show in the 1970s to Ellen in the 1990s She also examines news specials on the Oklahoma City bombing to reveal how that city has been inscribed as the epitome of a timeless pastoral heartland and concludes with an analysis of network branding practices and appeals to an imagined red state audience Johnson argues that non white queer and urban culture is consistently erased from depictions of the Midwest in order to reinforce its reassuring image as white and straight Through analyses of policy industry discourse and case studies of specific shows Heartland TV exposes the cultural function of the Midwest as a site of national transference and disavowal with regard to race sexuality and citizenship ideals Television Program Master Index Charles V.
