T&T Clark Social Identity Commentary on the New Testament J. Brian Tucker, Aaron Kuecker, 2020-02-20 The T T Clark Social Identity Commentary on the New Testament is a one of a kind comprehensive Bible resource that highlights the way the NT seeks to form the social identity of the members of the earliest Christ movement By drawing on the interpretive resources of social scientific theories especially those related to the formation of identity interpreters generate new questions that open fruitful identity related avenues into the text It provides helpful introductions to each NT book that focus on various social dimensions of the text as well as a commentary structure that illuminates the text as a work of social influence The commentary offers methodologically informed discussions of difficult and disputed passages and highlights cultural contexts in theoretically informed ways drawing on resources from social anthropology historical sociology or social identity theory The innovative but careful scholarship of these writers most of whom have published monographs on some aspect of social identity within the New Testament brings to the fore often overlooked social and communal aspects inherent in the NT discourse The net result is a more concrete articulation of some of the every day lived experiences of members of the Christ movement within the Roman Empire while also offering further insight into the relationship between existing and new identities that produced diverse expressions of the Christ movement during the first century The SICNT shows that identity formation is at the heart of the NT and it offers insights for leaders of faith communities addressing these issues in contemporary contexts

Love Your Enemies (A History of the Tradition and Interpretation of Its Uses) John Piper, 2012-06-30 Love Your Enemies This is one of the few statements Jesus made that is readily accepted by believers and skeptics alike Its authenticity is not seriously questioned and yet it is a revolutionary command Giving attention to various critical theories John Piper presents evidence that the early church earnestly advocated for non retaliatory love extending it to those who practiced evil in the world Such love was key to the church s own ethical tradition or paraenesis Piper illuminates the Synoptics and passages in Romans as well as 1 Thessalonians and 1 Peter with non canonical evidence investigating the theological significance of Jesus s love command Originally published as 38 in the Society for New Testament Studies Monograph Series this is John Piper s doctoral dissertation from the University of Munich It is a serious work of Christian scholarship by a long time respected author and pastor This repackaged edition features a new extensive introduction and will be of interest to scholars students and lay people who have training in New Testament studies

Expositions of the Psalms 1-32 (Vol. 1) Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1990 As the psalms are a microcosm of the Old Testament so the Expositions of the Psalms can be seen as a microcosm of Augustinian thought In the Book of Psalms are to be found the history of the people of Israel the theology and spirituality of the Old Covenant and a treasury of human experience expressed in prayer and poetry So too does the work of expounding the psalms recapitulate and focus the experiences of Augustine s personal life his theological reflections and his pastoral concerns as Bishop of Hippo Publisher s website
