Merchants As Promoters Of Rural Development:

Merchants as Promoters of Rural Development Paul A. London, 1975 Monograph on the contribution of rural area dealers to rural development in India advocates using rural trade networks to achieve development goals by showing how the private sector shopkeeper has promoted agricultural development by selling vast quantities of fertilizers and irrigation equipment etc Bibliography pp 145 to 154 references and statistical tables Entrepreneurship Development in India, 1989 From Classical Economics to Development Economics G. Meier, 1994-05-15 Most development economists are versed only in the post World War II period of their subject But economic growth was a major concern in the 18th century and colonial economics and policy commanded much attention in the 19th and first half of the 20th centuries A return to these earlier concerns can now provide present day development economists with a greater appreciation of the intellectual history of their subject Even more such a return might strengthen the conceptual and empirical foundations of the subject These are this book s objectives A - Airports British Library, 2012-05-21 No detailed description available for A Airports Entrepreneurship in Small Towns B.
