Meredith Frampton:

Meredith Frampton Richard Morphet, 1982      Meredith Frampton Richard Morphet, Meredith Frampton, Tate Gallery, Ferens Art Gallery, 1982      Guide to the Archive of Art and Design Elizabeth Lomas, 2019-09-17 The Archive of Art and Design at the Victoria Albert Museum contains Britain's foremost collection of primary source material relating to art and design particularly of the twentieth century Established in 1978 the Archive holds over 200 archives created by individual artists craftspeople and designers and businesses and societies involved in the manufacture and promotion of art and design products The Guide describes each archive in detail offering information about its creator its contents and related sources held both inside and outside the V A Museum It is an invaluable reference text for everyone with an interest in studying British art and design      The Women Who Inspired London Art Lucy Merello Peterson, 2018-10-30 This is the story of women caught up in the tumultuous art scene of the early twentieth century some famous and others lost to time By 1910 the patina of the belle époque was wearing thin in London Artists were on the hunt for modern women who could hold them in thrall A chance encounter on the street could turn an artless child into an artist's model and a model into a muse Most were accidental beauties plucked from obscurity to pose in the great art schools and studios Many returned home to lives that were desperately challenging almost all were anonymous Meet them now Sit with them in the Café Royal amid the wives and mistresses of London's most provocative artists Peek behind the brushstrokes and chisel cuts at women whose identities are some of art history's most enduring secrets Drawing on a rich mélange of historical and anecdotal records and a primary source this is storytelling that sweeps up the reader in the cultural tides that raced across London in the Edwardian Great War and interwar periods A highlight of the book is a reveal of the Avico siblings a family of models whose faces can be found in paint and bronze and stone today Their lives and contributions have been cloaked in a century of silence Now illuminated by family photos and oral histories from the daughter of one of the models the Avico story is finally told      The Real and the Romantic Frances Spalding, 2022-07-07 The 21st century has seen a surge of interest in English art of the interwar years Women artists such as Winifred Knights Frances Hodgkins and Evelyn Dunbar have come to the fore while familiar names Paul Nash Eric Ravilious and Stanley Spencer have reached new audiences High profile exhibitions have attracted record-breaking visitor numbers and challenged received opinion In The Real and the Romantic Frances Spalding one of Britain's leading art historians and critics takes a fresh and timely look at this rich period in English art The devastation of the First World War left the art world decentred and directionless This book is about its recovery Spalding explores how exciting new ideas co-existed with a desire for continuity and a renewed interest in the past We see the challenge to English artists represented by Cézanne and Picasso and the role played by museums and galleries in this period Women artists writers and curators contributed to the emergence of a new avant-garde The English landscape was revisited in modern terms The 1930s marked a high point in the history of modernism in Britain but the mood darkened with the prospect of a return to war The former advance towards abstraction and internationalism was replaced by a renewed concern with history place memory and a sense of belonging Native traditions were revived in modern terms but in ways that also let in the past Surrealism further disturbed the ascetic purity of high modernism and fed into the British love of the strange Throughout these years the pursuit of the real was set against and sometimes merged with an inclination towards the romantic as English artists sought to respond to their subjects and their times

The Wounded Brain Healed William Feindel,Richard Leblanc,2016-04-04 In 1934 Wilder Penfield s vision of an establishment dedicated to the relief of sickness and pain and the study of neurology led to the creation of the Montreal Neurological Institute Setting the standard for neurological research and care for patients disabled by neurological illnesses Penfield s institute became a beacon of light in a largely unexplored field of medicine The Wounded Brain Healed describes the pioneering research that took place during the MNI s first fifty years During the institute s golden age Penfield and his colleagues designed the EEG test for the study of epileptic patients discovered some of the causes of epilepsy and developed new treatments that have since been adopted worldwide Additionally they delineated the sensory and motor representation in the cerebral cortex and localized the major areas of the brain related to speech The institute also boasts the discoveries of two types of memory one serving immediate recall the other long term as well as the discovery of the localization of short term memory to the inner structures of the temporal lobe Physicians and scientists who trained at the MNI went on to establish renowned neurology and neurosurgery departments throughout Canada the United States Europe Asia and Latin America Recounting the story of one of Canada s greatest contributions to international medical science through archival research personal interviews photographs illustrations and paintings The Wounded Brain Healed provides fascinating insight into the institution that had a global and lasting impact

The International Studio Charles Holme,Guy Eglington,Peyton Boswell,William Bernard McCormick,Henry James Whigham,1921 British Sculptors of the Twentieth Century Alan Windsor,2020-09-10 This title was first published 2003 In the twentieth century Britain was rich in artistic achievement especially in sculpture Just some of those working in this field were Jacob Epstein Henri Gaudier Brzeska Henry Moore Barbara Hepworth Anthony Caro Richard Long Mona Hatoum and Anish Kapoor The work of these and other known and less well known artists has an astonishing variety and expressive power a range and strength that has placed Britain at the hub of the artistic world Alan Windsor has compiled a concise biographical dictionary of sculpture in Britain in book form Richly informative and easy to use this guide is an art lover s and expert's essential reference Written by scholars the entries are cross referenced and each concise biographical outline provides the relevant facts about the artist's life a brief characterization of the artist's work and where appropriate major bibliographical references

King of the Badgers Philip Hensher, 2025-06-25 A Washington Post Notable Fiction Book for 2011 One of The Telegraph's Best Fiction Books 2011 Far from London's crime and pollution Hanmouth's wealthier residents live in picturesque heavily mortgaged cottages in the center of a town packed with artisanal cheese shops and antiques stores They're reminded of the town's less desirable outskirts with their grim flimsy housing stock and chain stores only when their neighbors have the presumption to claim also to live in Hanmouth When an eight year old girl from the outer area goes missing England's eyes suddenly turn toward the sleepy town with a curiosity as piercing and unblinking as the closed circuit security cameras that line Hanmouth's idyllic streets But somehow these cameras have missed the abduction of the girl whose name is China Is her blank eyed hairdresser mother hiding her as part of a moneymaking hoax Has she been abducted by one of the lurking perverts the townspeople imagine the cameras are protecting them from Perhaps more cameras are needed As it turns out more than one resident of Hanmouth has a secret hidden behind closed doors There's Sam and Harry the cheesemonger and aristocrat who lead the county's gay orgies The quiet husband of postcolonial theorist Miranda everyone agrees she's marvelous keeps a male lover while their daughter disembowels dolls she's named Child Pornography and Slightly Jewish Moral crusader John Calvin's Neighborhood Watch has an unusual reason for holding its meetings in secret And of course somewhere out there is the house where little China is hidden With the dark hilarity and unflinching honesty of a modern day Middlemarch King of the Badgers demolishes the already fragile privacy of Hanmouth's inhabitants These characters exquisitely drawn and rawly human proclaim Philip Hensher's status as an extraordinary chronicler of the domestic and one of the world's most dazzling and ambitious novelists

Drapery Gen Doy, 2001-12-21 Gen Doy investigates the hitherto neglected meanings of drapery and the draped body in visual culture The baroque and the classical are her subjects as are Freud's Gravidia Clerambault's writings and photographs of draped figures the fetishistic play between veiling and revealing and the meanings of drapery in recent art from Christo's wrapped Reichstag to the impact of the modern women's movement on fine art practice Yet she also finds and focuses on the draped body now in places like Algeria and Kosovo where drapery's connotations are no longer those of purity and civilized elegance but of barbarism poverty and savage death

The Connoisseur, 1919

Jealousy Peter Toohey, 2014-01-01 A witty and insightful investigation into the green eyed monster's role in our lives Compete acquire succeed enjoy the pressures of living in today's materialistic world seem predicated upon jealousy the feelings of rivalry and resentment for possession of whatever the other has But while our newspapers abound with stories of the sometimes droll sometimes deadly consequences of sexual jealousy Peter Toohey argues in this charmingly provocative book that jealousy is much more than the destructive emotion it is commonly assumed to be It helps as much as it harms Examining the meaning history and value of jealousy Toohey places the emotion at the core of modern culture creativity and civilization not merely the sexual relationship His eclectic approach weaves together psychology art and literature neuroscience anthropology and a host of other disciplines to offer fresh and intriguing contemporary perspectives on violence the family the workplace animal behavior and psychopathology Ranging from the streets of London to Pacific islands and from the classical world to today this is an elegant smart and beautifully illustrated defense of a not always deadly sin The Illustrated London News, 1921 Jack of all trades - and his family Peter Inchbald, 2013-10-02 Born into privilege Peter Inchbald was an intellectual who spent the latter part of World War II as an Army Captain and the sole white man for miles around in the foothills of the Karakorums and the Himalaya He became a minor artist of the postwar era before becoming an equally minor industrialist who helped bring modern design to the silverware and cutlery trade Later in life he published a series of detective stories There are really three books in here The first is a personal memoir the second a family history an Appendix provides several family trees The third is a serious record full of fascinating historical detail Inchbald wrote his memoir for many kinds of reader from those who knew him intimately to distant cousins who had never heard of him and people some not yet born to whom he is a dim figure from the past

Investigating Modern Art Liz Dawtrey, Elizabeth Dawtrey, Toby Jackson, Mary Masterton, Pam Meecham, Paul Wood, 1996-01-01 Modern art sometimes seems difficult or even impossible to understand In this appealing book modern art becomes accessible through clear and informative discussions about modern artists art movements and art works Charting the development of modern art from the nineteenth century through the present day each chapter focuses on particular artists and works of art placing them in their artistic contexts and discussing them from a variety of viewpoints Issues of gender and ethnicity criticisms of the accepted canon of modern art and important social and political influences on the institutions of art are woven into the discussion of key artists such as Picasso Matisse Pollock and Warhol and movements such as Cubism Surrealism Abstract Impressionism and Minimal Art The Memorial to the Missing of the Somme Gavin Stamp, 2010-08-06 Edwin Lutyens Memorial to the Missing of the Somme at Thiepval in Northern France visited annually by tens of thousands of tourists is arguably the finest structure erected by any British architect in the twentieth century It is the principal tangible expression of the defining event in Britain's experience and memory of the Great War the first day of the Battle of the Somme on 1 July 1916 and it bears the names of 73 000 soldiers whose bodies were never found at the end of that bloody and futile campaign This brilliant study by an acclaimed architectural historian tells the origin of the memorial in the context of commemorating the war dead it considers the giant classical brick arch in architectural terms and also explores its wider historical significance and its resonances today So much of the meaning of the twentieth century is concentrated here the Thiepval Memorial to the Missing casts a shadow into the future a shadow which extends beyond the dead of the Holocaust to the Gulag to the disappeared of South America and of Tianenmen Reissued in a beautiful and striking new edition for the centenary of the Somme Ernest Gowers A. Scott, 2009-09-23 Draws on previously inaccessible family archives to penetrate the anonymity and public reticence of one of Britain's great twentieth century civil servants Gowers was highly influential in public policy throughout his long civil service career which began in 1903 and culminated in running London's civil defence throughout the Second World War     Drawing Portraits Barrington Barber, 2018-10-25 A portrait can reveal the likeness personality and even the mood of a person In previous centuries portraits were used to reveal someone's social standing to manipulate the viewer's opinion of the subject or to exaggerate and accentuate features In Drawing Portraits artist and teacher Barrington Barber shows you how to overcome common difficulties and introduces you to the techniques that will develop your perception of a subject Includes information on materials techniques and styles Covers the basics of proportions facial expressions and poses Teaches the art of group and animal portraits and caricatures Contains step by step drawings and exercises to practise
