Army Military History, 2015-10-10 Merrill's Marauders is an account of the operations of the 5307th Composite Unit Provisional in north Burma from February to May 1944. The Marauders' effort was part of a coordinated offensive to reconquer north Burma. Details of the offensive are summarized briefly to set the operations of the 5307th within the larger framework. On 10 August 1944 the 5307th was reorganized as the 475th Infantry Regiment. The combat narrative is based mainly on interviews conducted by the historian of the 5307th after the operation and on information furnished to the Historical Branch G-2 War Department by the Commanding General and several members of the unit. Few records were available because the Marauders restricted their files in order to maintain mobility while they were operating behind the Japanese lines. During the second mission a Japanese artillery shell scored a direct hit on the mule carrying the limited quantity of records and maps kept by the unit headquarters. During the third mission the heavy rains made preservation of papers impossible for more than a day or two. The unit's intelligence officer was killed at Myitkyina and his records were washed away before they could be located.      Merrill's Marauders, February - May 1944 Center of Military History, 1945      Merrill's Marauders, February - May 1944, 1990

Merrill's Marauders (February-May 1944). United States. War Department. General Staff, 1945      Merrill's Marauders February - May 1944 [Illustrated Edition] Anon, 2014-08-15 Includes 27 Maps, 2 Sketches and 23 Photos. THE 5307th COMPOSITE UNIT Provisional of the Army of the United States was organized and trained for long range penetration behind enemy lines in Japanese-held Burma. Commanded by Brig Gen now Maj Gen Frank D Merrill, its 2,997 officers and men became popularly known as Merrill's Marauders. From February to May 1944 the operations of the Marauders were closely coordinated with those of the Chinese 22d and 38th Divisions in a drive to recover northern Burma and clear the way for the construction of the Ledo Road which was to link the Indian railhead at Ledo with the old Burma Road to China. The Marauders were foot soldiers who marched and fought through jungles and over mountains from the Hukawng Valley in northwestern Burma to Myitkyina on the Irrawaddy River. In 5 major and 30 minor engagements they met and defeated the veteran soldiers of the Japanese 18th Division. Operating in the rear of the main forces of the Japanese, they prepared the way for the southward advance of the Chinese by disorganizing supply lines and communications. The climax of the Marauders' operations was the capture of the Myitkyina airfield, the only all-weather strip in northern Burma. This was the final victory of the 5307th Composite Unit which was disbanded in August 1944.      What Happened in Nebraska, Idaho, Wyoming, Washington, Burma (With Merrill's Marauders), Oregon, California Robert L. Mason, 2008-11-01 I am one of those jolly old gray-haired retired senior citizens with a world of interesting experiences to tell. I do believe that you will enjoy reading this book as it is a life story of good happenings and of some bad happenings that everybody can relate to. We all make the trek throughout life accumulating memorable experiences some of which we can enjoy sharing with others. I decided to share some of my experiences with other people by writing this short story in paperback form. In this way I get to talk to a lot of people maybe not in person but by the written word I talk about my life from the womb but not quite yet to the tomb In the United States as recorded by the August 2008 US Census Bureau report the population was estimated to be over three hundred million and growing every second Wow That is a lot of people Of that many there are millions of people who drive a car everyday and in doing so they might have to try proving that they did obey the traffic laws If so those people can learn from my near three year experience petitioning the Judicial System over a minor traffic ticket You might be interested in another book that I wrote It Is Not About Guilt It Is About Judicial Performance This is a hardback and is entirely about my encounters with a California Traffic Trial Court three Appellate Courts the Judicial Performance Commission the State Attorney General and the Governor of California over thirty three months The Systems abuse to an unrepresented defendant is a revelation     Merrill's Marauders - February - May 1944 Center of Military History,1990     MERRILL'S
