Merry Muses A Selection Of Favorite Son:

The High-Kilted Muse Murray Shoolbraid, 2010-04-02 In 1832 the Scottish ballad collector Peter Buchan of Peterhead Aberdeenshire presented an anthology of risqu and convivial songs and ballads to a Highland laird When Professor Francis James Child of Harvard was preparing his magisterial edition of The English and Scottish Popular Ballads he made inquiries about it but it was not made available in time to be considered for his work On his death it was presented to the Child Memorial Library at Harvard Because of its unseemly materials the manuscript languished there since unprinted though referred to now and again and a few items from time to time made an appearance The manuscript has now been transcribed with full annotation and with an introduction on the compiler his times and the Scottish bawdy tradition It contains the texts without tunes of seventy six bawdy songs and ballads along with a long lost scatological poem attributed to the Edinburgh writer James Balloon Tytler Appendices give details of Buchan s two published collections of ballads Additionally there is a list of tale types and motifs a glossary of Scots and archaic words a bibliography and an index The High Kilted Muse brings to light a long suppressed volume and fills in a great gap in published bawdy songs and ballads The G.
