Merton became a bestselling author writing about spiritual contemplation in a modern context Although Merton 1915-1968 lived as a Trappist monk he advocated a spiritual life that was not a retreat from the world but an alternative to it particularly to the deadening materialism and spiritual vacuity of the postwar West Over the next twenty years Merton wrote for a wide audience bringing the wisdom of Christianity Buddhism and Sufism into dialogue with the period's contemporary thought In Thinking through Thomas Merton Robert Inchausti introduces readers to Merton and evaluates his continuing relevance for our time Inchausti shows how Merton broke the high modernist trance so that we might become the change we wish to see in the world by refiguring the lost virtues of silence contemplation and community in a world enamored by the will to power virtuoso performance radical skepticism and materialist metaphysics Merton's defense of contemplative culture is considered in light of the postmodern thought of recent years and emerges as a compelling alternative Inchausti explores Merton's understanding of Western Christian monasticism and provides new insights into his critique of modernity Curt Cadorette author of Catholicism in Social and Historical Contexts: An Introduction The Merton Annual David Belcastro, 2012-10 With more than 20 consecutive years of publication this annual collection offers a dynamic multifaceted view of the life and work of Thomas Merton as a monk an author an artist and an interlocutor with other faiths The work combines rare primary source material including a wide variety of articles interviews and in depth coverage of recent Merton related publications assemblies and forums Sophia Christopher Pramuk, 2009-10-01 While numerous studies have celebrated Thomas Merton's witness as an interfaith pioneer poet and peacemaker there have been few systematic treatments of his Christology as such and no sustained exploration to date of his relationship to the Russian Sophia tradition This book looks to Thomas Merton as a classic theologian of the Christian tradition from East to West and offers an interpretation of his mature Christology with special attention to his remarkable prose poem of 1962 Hagia Sophia Bringing Merton's mystical prophetic Vision fully into dialogue with contemporary Christology Russian sophiology and Zen as well as figures such as John Henry Newman and Abraham Joshua Heschel the author carefully but boldly builds the case that Sophia the same theological eros that animated Merton's religious imagination in a period of tremendous fragmentation and violence might infuse new vitality into our own A study of uncommon depth and scope inspired throughout by Merton's extraordinary catholicity Christopher Pramuk PhD is assistant professor of theology at Xavier University in Cincinnati Ohio He is the author of two books and numerous essays and the recipient of the Catholic Theological Society of America's 2009 Catherine Mowry LaCugna Award Thomas Merton: God's Messenger on the Road towards a New World Paul R. Thomas Merton and the Individual Witness David E. Orberson,2022-12-01 Over sixty years ago Thomas Merton monk mystic and writer proclaimed that we are living in a post Christian world That is the influence of the institutional church is in decline and the popular version of Christianity presented to society has in many ways become a caricature of itself Since that time the religious landscape has continued to change Today the number of people who identify as None someone with no particular religious affiliation outnumbers the combined total of all Mainline Protestants In addition many popular Christian responses to our secular world are divisive and focused on fighting the culture war instead of finding ways to live the gospel All of these religious changes are occurring in a broader post truth culture in which facts matter less and less and our society is increasingly divided This book delves into these issues and introduces the life and writings of Thomas Merton showing how he can guide Christians working to build God's kingdom in the world today     Church, Liberation and World Religions Mario I. Aguilar,2012-11-08 This work proposes a theological investigation of the community of the Church as outlined by liberation theology and a possible conversation with liberation from suffering in Tibetan Buddhism What unites both is the human process of sublimation for others whereby liberation theologians as well as enlightened lamas give the best of themselves for the liberation of others At this stage of discussions between inclusivists and exclusivists this work proposes that dialogue with world religions and therefore with Buddhism is not about finding possible dogmatic similarities but a
