Mes Romans Et Moi:

The Arts in Canada William J. Keith, Ben-Z. Shek, 1980-12-15 In this volume a baker's dozen of creative Canadians make personal responses to the state of the arts in Canada Northrop Frye and Guy Rocher write on general cultural trends Hugh MacLennan and Gérard Bessette on fiction Ralph Gustafson and Michèle Lalonde on poetry Robertson Davies and Gratien Gelinas on drama George Woodcock and Jacques Allard on non-fiction prose Godfrey Ridout on music and Aba Bayefsky and Humphrey N. Milnes on art The essays were written to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the University of Toronto Quarterly The contributors were invited to discuss the changes, problems, challenges and achievements in the arts in the last fifty years Since all the authors had personal experience of at least a large section of the period surveyed the editors welcomed personal reminiscence as well as description and assessment The result is a varied group of essays in each of which the character of the individual artist is clearly evident together they provide a complex, many-faceted, lively and living discussion of the cultural development of Canada This anniversary collection of essays is a valuable and provocative source for courses in Canadian studies and for anyone interested in the development of the arts and humanities in Canada L'Essai québécois depuis 1845 Laurent Mailhot, 2011-08-25T00:00:00-04:00 Voici une nouvelle édition de l'ouvrage Essais québécois 1837-1983 anthologie littéraire publiée en 1984 par monsieur Mailhot Cette anthologie qui comprend une introduction de 80 pages sur l'histoire de l'essai au Québec rassemble dans sa deuxième partie des extraits des essais les plus marquants de notre littérature Chacun des extraits est précédé d'une présentation de l'essayiste de Jacques Ferron François Ricard en passant par Fernand Ouellette Jacques Godbout et Nicole Brossard Voices of Deliverance Donald Smith, 1986 Equivocal City Patrick Coleman, 2018-10-30 The study of Montreal as a specific location in French and English writings has long been subordinated to the demands of linguistically divided and politically contentious narratives about national development In this cross-linguistic study Patrick Coleman models an inclusive and post-national literary history of the city itself Tracing a sequence of moments in the emergence of the Montreal novel from World War II to the turbulent 1960s Equivocal City offers close readings of fourteen key works of fiction focusing on the inner dynamic of their construction as well as the unexpected convergences and contrasts in the narrative structures they adopt and the aesthetic perspective they seek to achieve Critically sophisticated but accessibly written this book gives a sympathetic account of how writers in both languages struggled to give integrated artistic expression to their experience of a city that was still linguistically compartmentalized and culturally insecure By analyzing the interplay between story and narrative form the book explores what French and English novelists could and could not imagine about the Montreal they sought to portray From the responsible realism of Hugh MacLennan and Gabrielle Roy to the fractious phantasmagorias of Jacques Ferron and Leonard Cohen Equivocal City traces the evolution of the Montreal novel with the aim of retrieving a shareable literary past University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto, 1993 Dictionnaire des écrits de l'Ontario français Gaétan Gervais, Jean-Pierre
