Mesmerism The End Of The Enlightenment:

Mesmerism and the End of the Enlightenment in France Robert Darnton, 1968 Early in 1788 Franz Anton Mesmer arrived in Paris and began to promulgate an exotic theory of healing that almost immediately seized the imagination of the general populace Robert Darnton's lively study provides a useful contribution to the study of popular culture and the manner in which ideas are diffused down through various social levels

Mesmerism Robert Darnton, 1968 High Anxieties Janet Farrell Brodie, Marc Redfield, 2002-11-21 High Anxieties is a collection of essays exploring the historical and ideological notions of addiction from the Opium Wars to the current war on drugs to the internet

The Dream of an Absolute Language Lynn Rosellen Wilkinson, 1996-01-01 Traces the reception of Swedenborg's doctrine of correspondences in French literature and culture from the late 1700s to 1870

Science and Empire in the Atlantic World James Delbourgo, Nicholas Dew, 2008-09-25 Science and Empire in the Atlantic World is the first book in the growing field of Atlantic Studies to examine the production of scientific knowledge in the Atlantic world from a comparative and international perspective Rather than focusing on a specific scientific field or single national context this collection captures the multiplicity of practices people languages and agendas that characterized the traffic in knowledge around the Atlantic world linking this knowledge to the social processes fundamental to colonialism such as travel trade ethnography and slavery

Ordering America William H. Young, 2010-07-21 Ordering America painting a felicitous portrait of Western civilization shows that its defining ideals rooted in man's common human nature a perception newly substantiated by modern evolutionary psychology were best fulfilled by realization of the American founding order Twentieth century progressivism and postmodern multiculturalism detoured America down the way of social constructionism human nature and equality are produced by culture and the state through groups The book sets a course to revive the Western ideals and return to an opportune center right American order applying latest scientific insights and restoring individual responsibility and reciprocity under more limited still energetic government befitting our century

Utopia David Ayers, Benedikt Hjärtarson, Tomi Huttunen, Harri Veivo, 2015-12-14 Utopian hope and dystopian despair are characteristic features of modernism and the avant garde Readings of the avant garde have frequently sought to identify utopian moments coded in its works and activities as optimistic signs of a possible future social life or as the attempt to preserve hope against the closure of an emergent dystopian present The fourth volume of the EAM series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies casts light on the history theory and actuality of the utopian and dystopian strands which run through European modernism and the avant garde from the late 19th to the 21st century The book's varied and carefully selected contributions written by experts from around 20 countries seek to answer such questions as how have modernism and the avant garde responded to historical circumstance in mapping the form of possible futures for humanity how have avant garde and modernist works presented ideals of living as alternatives to the present how have avant gardists acted with or against the state to remodel human life or to resist the instrumental reduction of life by administration and industrialisation      Hysteria Beyond Freud Sander L. Gilman, Helen King, Roy Porter, G. S. Rousseau, Elaine Showalter, 2024-03-29 She s hysterical For centuries the term hysteria has been used by physicians and laymen to diagnose and dismiss the extreme emotionality and mysterious physical disorders presumed to bedevil others especially women How did this medical concept assume its power What cultural purposes does it serve Why do different centuries and different circumstances produce different kinds of hysteria These are among the questions pursued in this absorbing erudite reevaluation of the history of hysteria The widely respected authors draw upon the insights of social and cultural history rather than Freudian psychoanalysis to examine the ways in which hysteria has been conceived by doctors and patients writers and artists in Europe and North America from antiquity to the early years of the twentieth century In so doing they show that a history of hysteria is a history of how we understand the mind This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1993      Power and Self-Consciousness in the Poetry of Shelley Andrew J Welburn, 1986-07-16      Monsters of the Gévaudan Jay M. Smith, 2011-03-15 In 1764 a peasant girl was killed and partially eaten while tending sheep Eventually over a hundred victims fell prey to a mysterious creature whose deadly efficiency mesmerized Europe Monsters of the G vaudan revisits this spellbinding tale and offers the definitive explanation for its mythic status in French folklore      Imagined Histories Anthony Molho, Gordon S. Wood, 1998 This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book s first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice That voice is the subject of this book      Shakespiritualism J. Kahan, 2013-02-27 This study concerns itself with a now forgotten religious group Spiritualists and how their ensuing discussions of Shakespeare's meaning his writing practices his possible collaborations and the supposed purity and or corruption of his texts anticipated accompanied or silhouetted similar debates in Shakespeare Studies      Writing and Victorianism J.B. Bullen, 2014-06-06

Writing and Victorianism asks the fundamental question what is Victorianism and offers a number of answers taken from methods and approaches which have been developed over the last ten years This collection of essays written by both new and established scholars from Britain and the U S A develops many of the themes of nineteenth century studies which have lately come to the fore touching upon issues such as drugs class power and gender Some essays reflect the interaction of word and image in the nineteenth century and the notion of the city as spectacle others look at Victorian science finding a connection between writing and the growth of psychology and psychiatry on the one hand and with the power of scientific materialism on the other As well as key figures such as Dickens Tennyson and Wilde a host of new names are introduced including working class writers attempting to define themselves and writers in the Periodical press who once anonymous exercised a great influence over Victorian politics taste and social ideals From these observations there emerges a need for self definition in Victorian writing History ancestry and the past all play their part in figuring the present in the nineteenth century and many of these studies foreground the problem of literary social and psychological identity      The Sciences in Enlightened Europe William Clark, Jan Golinski, Simon Schaffer, 1999-07

Radically reorienting our understanding of the Enlightenment this book explores the complex relations between enlightened values and the making of scientific knowledge Here monsters and automata barometers and botanical gardens polite academics and boisterous clubs plans for violent wars and for universal peace are all relocated in the landscape of enlightened Europe The contributors show how changing forms of discipline machinery and instrumentation affected the emergence of new kinds of knowledge consider how institutions of public rate taste and conversation helped provide a common frame for the study of human and nonhuman natures and explore the regional operations of scientific culture at the geographical fringes of Europe Covering a wide range of scientific disciplines both in the principal European countries and in areas peripheral to Europe the book also includes ample illustrations and an extensive bibliography Implicated in the rise of both fascism and liberal secularism the moral and political values that shaped the Enlightenment remain controversial today Through careful scrutiny of how these values influenced and were influenced by the concrete practices of its sciences this book gives us an entirely new sense of the Enlightenment from back cover

Mesmerism The End Of The Enlightenment: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Mesmerism The End Of The Enlightenment : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
