canonical works but also a series of apocryphal Shakespeare plays Stylistic threads linking these lesser works suggest they shared a common author or co author who wrote in a coarse breezy style and created very funny clown scenes He was also prone to pilfering lines from other dramatists consistent with Robert Greene s 1592 attack on William Shakespeare as an upstart crow The anomalous existence of two bodies of work exhibiting distinct poetic voices printed under one man s name suggests a fascinating possibility Could William Shakespeare have written the apocryphal plays while serving as a front man for the poet in purple robes a hidden court poet who was much admired by a literary coterie in the 1590s And could the poet in purple robes have been the great poet and statesman Thomas Sackville 1536 1608 a previously overlooked authorship candidate who is an excellent fit to the Shakespearean glass slipper Both of these scenarios are well supported by literary and historical records many of which have not been previously considered in the context of the Shakespeare authorship debate

The Fugitive Shakespeare and Sonnet 144 Charles Murray Willis,2024-08-16 THE FUGITIVE SHAKESPEARE AND SONNET 144 The discovery of a 16th century manuscript version of Shakespeare s Sonnet 144 is the most important historical and literary find ever made relating to Shakespearean studies The date of composition of this manuscript indicates ca 1577 78 when William Shakspeare the original spelling of his family name was aged between 13 14 which would suggest that he couldn t have written this Sonnet because he was too young The story behind this discovery and how the document was found is as astonishing as how the document has managed to survive for over 400 years The connection in this story between Shakespeare and the famous playwright Ben Jonson is also explored as it was Jonson who provided the most important evidence that Shakespeare was the author of the First Folio which was published in 1623 At last after more than four hundred years there is a glimmer of light at the end of the tunnel a significant Shakespearean clue has been discovered which may help to solve the Shakespeare authorship question Sir Derek Jacobi award winning Shakespearean actor As She Walked Evangeline Cain,2020-04-17 After writing three books I thought I was done writing but I guess not Part of me felt I had nothing left in me to say until my grandmother said Baby girl it is my dying wish to see you keep going She told me I had a special gift and she wanted me to shine She told me that she would watch me and protect me from the heavens above
