Messages Papers Of The President 10vol:

A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents, 1789-1897 United States. President, James Daniel Richardson, 1897 Mastering United States Government Information Christopher C. Brown, 2020-04-17 This up to date guide provides informational professionals and their clients with much needed assistance in navigating the immense field of government information When information professionals are asked questions involving government information they often experience that deer in the headlights feeling Mastering United States Government Information helps them overcome any trepidation about finding and using government documents Written by Christopher C Brown coordinator of government documents at the University of Denver this approachable book provides an introduction to all major areas of U S government information It references resources in all formats including print and online Examples are provided so users will feel comfortable solving government information questions on their own while exercises at the end of chapters enable users to practice answering questions for themselves Additionally several appendixes serve as quick reference sources for such topics as congressional sessions the most popular government publications federal statistical databases and citation of government publications It serves as a practical and current guide for practitioners as well as a text or supplementary reading for students of library information studies and for in service trainings Bulletin of the State Board of Education, Free Public Library Department Vermont. Free Public Library Dept, 1915 Annual Report of the Public Printer for the Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 1897, 1897 The Recognition Policy of the United States Julius Goebel (Jr.), 1915 Bulletin of the Vermont Free Public Library Commission Vermont. Free Public Library Commission, 1915 Bulletin of the Vermont Free Public Library Commission, 1914 The Recognition Policy of the United States Julius Goebel, 1915 The Boxer Rebellion Paul Henry Clements, 1915 Columbia University Studies in the Social Sciences, 1915 Studies in History, Economics, and Public Law, 1915 In the Shadow of the Great Rebellion Gary L. Donhardt, 2007 With the death of Abraham Lincoln on April 15 1865 Andrew Johnson was plunged into a national political morass Johnson a Southern Democrat and advocate of states rights had been chosen as Lincoln s second term running mate Now as Lincoln s successor he faced a most difficult trial a divisiveness that threatened to undo the fabric of a nation desperately trying to mend itself after a great civil strife For this self educated tailor from the hills of Tennessee it would prove to be a formidable task Albeit no stranger to national politics Johnson was ill prepared for this sudden change of fortune Absent from Washington since 1862 he had limited political allies and little ability to foster new ones Adding to his difficulties he was a Democrat serving in a Republican administration and a Southerner in the midst of a victorious North It would have been a daunting task for the ablest of politicians nearly impossible for one lacking political acumen Taking the helm as the 17th President of the United States Johnson continued Lincoln s effort to reconstruct the Union following the Civil War While Congress was in recess he began his restoration process by pardoning many ex Confederates who were willing to take the oath of allegiance and by allowing the Southern states to re establish their governments But there were radical elements in Congress who bitterly opposed Johnson s approach to Reconstruction They objected to his rapidity in bringing the former Confederate states back into the Union and his reluctance to support suffrage for the freed slaves Likely even Lincoln would have butted up against the same obstacles but Johnson lacked his predecessor s finesse and soon found himself on a collision course with Congress Andrew Johnson learned his craft as a politician as he rose from alderman in an Eastern Tennessee village to president of the United States The Constitution was his fundamental authority and ultimate resource on all questions of state He was an ardent stump speaker and was quite adept at power politics in the halls of Congress Yet as the Chief Executive he showed such little political skill in assessing opposition and conquering obstacles during Reconstruction that the party that put him in the White House ultimately turned from him and he was forced to defend his actions before the bar of the Senate in the country s first presidential impeachment trial Throughout the journey the Tennessee Tailor born in abject poverty fashioned himself as a man of the people He always held a strong empathy for the common man and equally strong antipathy for members of the aristocracy Having come from the lower class mudsill as he referred to himself he carried a deep compassion for the labourer in the workshop as well as the farmer the field This book presents the story of this president Bulletin of
