focuses on the implications of these theories for cultural criticism and a redefinition of politics. It provides a vivid overview of contemporary culture with special emphasis on technology, the monstrous imaginary, and the recurrent obsession with the flesh in the age of techno bodies. This highly original contribution to current debates is written for those who find changes and transformations challenging and necessary. It will be of great interest to students and scholars of philosophy, feminist theory, gender studies, sociology, social theory, and cultural studies.

The essays in this collection explore the question of the human both as a contested concept and as it relates to and functions within the wider global conjuncture. The authors explore the theoretical underpinnings of the term human, inviting the reader to reflect upon the contemporary human condition, to identify opportunities and threats in the changes ahead, and to determine what aspects of our species we should abandon or strive to maintain. The volume approaches these ideas from a myriad of perspectives, but the authors are united in their abstention from rejecting humanism outright or indeed fully endorsing posthumanism's teleological narrative of accelerated progress and perfectability. Instead, the authors argue that the term human itself is better understood as a concept perpetually undergoing revision and is necessarily subject to scrutiny. The contributors here are thus concerned with investigating the following questions: What does it mean to be human or to have a self? What is the current place or status of the human in the contemporary world? As technology is increasingly used to modify our bodies and minds, to what extent should we alter, and how can we improve our very understanding of human nature? The authors contend that literature is the art form best placed to answer these questions. In its dynamism and discursiveness, literature has the capacity to both reflect dominant discourses and ideologies as well as to generate and even anticipate social change, to critique and refine conventional ideas and existing cultural modes, and to envision new possibilities for the future. The human and its literary representation, in other words, are inherently intertwined.

Feminist New Materialisms Beatriz Revelles Benavente, Monika Rogowska-Stangret, Waltraud Ernst, 2020-03-05

For the editors of this collection, new materialisms have always been the entanglement of epistemology, ontology, ethics, and politics. Looking back to the notion of situated knowledges Haraway 1988 that, among others, planted the seed for feminist new materialism, van der Tuin 2015: 26, one sees how those at least four planes are entangled. Rogowska-Stangret 2018, in order to bring forth response-able Haraway 2008 research, New materialism is thus an ethico-onto-epistemological framework. Barad 2007, Revelles Benavente 2018, that by activating its ethico-politics helps to diagnose, infer, and transform gendered environmental anthropocentric social injustices from a multidimensional angle. Social injustices are a driving motivation to pursue research and are the reason why the editors and authors of this Special Issue cannot understand new materialism without feminism in the lines of eds Hinton, Teusch 2015. Contemporary feminist researchers are providing new materialisms with a transversal approach. Yuval Davis 1997, that comes from many different disciplines without canonizing back again knowledge creation and production, and in hope that they will not enter back into classifications van der Tuin 2015 It is situated Haraway 1988 research response able Haraway 2008 to material discursive practices that iterate in a dynamic conceptualization of matter Gilles Deleuze Charles J.

Stivale,2014-10-13 Gilles Deleuze is now regarded as one of the most radical philosophers of the twentieth century His work is hugely influential across a range of subjects from philosophy to literature to art architecture and cultural studies Gilles Deleuze Key Concepts provides a guide to Deleuzian thought for any reader coming to his writings for the first time This new edition is fully revised and updated and includes three new chapters on the event psychoanalysis and philosophy Critical Posthumanism: Cloned, Toxic and Cyborg Bodies in Fiction Pelin Kümbet,2020-12-25 Focusing on three representation of posthuman bodies as cloned bodies in Kazuo Ishiguro s Never Let Me Go 2005 toxic bodies in Indra Sinha s Animal s People 2007 and cyborg bodies in Justina Robson s Natural History 2004 from the theoretical perspectives of posthuman definition of what it means to be human this study discusses the changing concept of the body In this context the integral and dynamic connection between a human body and the world is of special significance which opens up new possibilities to reconfigure the human body that is no longer conceded separate from the nonhuman world but embodied in it Each of the novels significantly displays the in betweenness of humans by making them interact with chemical substances machines and other nonhuman entities and shows how clear cut distinctions between the human and the nonhuman bodies have collapsed

Posthuman Glossary Rosi Braidotti,Maria Hlavajova,2018-02-22 If art science and the humanities have shared one thing it was their common engagement with constructions and representations of the human Under the pressure of new contemporary concerns however we are experiencing a posthuman condition the combination of new developments such as the neoliberal economics of global capitalism migration technological advances environmental destruction on a mass scale the perpetual war on terror and extensive security systems with a troublesome reiteration of old unresolved problems that mean the concept of the human as we had previously known it has undergone dramatic transformations The Posthuman Glossary is a volume providing an outline of the critical terms of posthumanity in present day artistic and intellectual work It builds on the broad thematic topics of Anthropocene Capitalocene eco sophies digital activism algorithmic cultures and security and the inhuman It outlines potential artistic intellectual and activist itineraries of working through the complex reality of the posthuman condition and creates an understanding of the altered meanings of art vis vis critical present day developments It bridges missing links across disciplines terminologies constituencies and critical communities This original work will unlock the terms of the posthuman for students and researchers alike Social Justice Leadership for a Global World Cynthia Gerstl-Pepin,Judith A. Aiken,2012-10-01 The global economic meltdown has highlighted the interconnectedness of nations This book seeks to provide an overview of topics issues and best practices related to defining social justice leadership given our increasingly global world Refugees and immigrants from around the globe now inhabit schools and institutions of higher education across the nation and US students teachers and leaders are traversing international borders both physically and virtually through international collaboration technology and exchange programs Although there have been increased efforts and scholarship in support of diversity and multicultural awareness these efforts have largely focused on the US We acknowledge that many leadership theories are domestic in that they typically incorporate US perspectives or a single culture description of effective leadership This book provides a deeper understanding of diverse and multicultural perspectives as they relate to a world that is becoming increasingly interconnected economically socially and culturally Particular attention is paid to providing specific strategies for social justice leaders working in PK 12 and or higher education and leadership preparation programs to promote effective leadership that reflects multicultural understanding of the diversity both within and outside the US Within the context of leadership practice internationalization offers new insights and ideas about leadership aims processes and competencies as a means for addressing equity concerns throughout PK 20 education

Feminist Activism and Digital Networks Aristeia Fotopoulou, 2017-02-07 This book sheds new light on the way that in the last decade digital technologies have become inextricably linked to culture economy and politics and how they have transformed feminist and queer activism This exciting text critically analyses the contradictions tensions and often paradoxical aspects that characterize such politics both in relation to identity and to activist practice Aristeia Fotopoulou examines how activists make claims about rights online and how they negotiate access connectivity openness and visibility in digital networks Through a triple focus on embodied media practices labour and imaginaries and across the themes of bodily autonomy pornography reproduction and queer social life she advocates a move away from understandings of digital media technologies as intrinsically exploitative or empowering By reinstating the media as constant material agents in the process of politicization Fotopoulou creates a powerful text that appeals to students and scholars of digital media gender and sexuality and readers interested in the role of media technologies in activism

The Oxford Handbook of Science Fiction Rob Latham,2014-09-01 The excitement of possible futures found in science fiction has long fired the human imagination but the genre's acceptance by academe is relatively recent No longer marginalized and fighting for respectability science fictional works are now studied alongside more traditional art forms Tracing the capacious genre's birth evolution and impact across nations time periods subgenres and media The Oxford Handbook of Science Fiction offers an in depth comprehensive assessment of this robust area of scholarly inquiry and considers the future directions that will dictate the terms of the scholarly discourse The Handbook begins with a focus on questions of genre covering topics such as critical history keywords narrative the fantastic and fandom A subsequent section on media engages with film television comics architecture music video games and more The genre's role in the convergence of art and everyday life animates a third section which addresses topics such as UFOs
