Metaphorical Theology Models Of God In Religious Language:

Metaphorical Theology Sallie McFague, 1982-01-01 a liberating book about a liberating theological approach Christianity and Crisis Metaphorical Theology is a brilliant piece of writing which will make an important contribution both to new thinking on the nature of religious language and also to the dialogue between Christianity and Feminist Theology Rosemary Radford Ruether Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary The great virtue of Professor McFague's book is that it tackles some crucial problems in an extremely perceptive and creative way All in all it is a most timely book both for the theological and for the church at large Maurice Wiles Regius Professor of Divinity Christ Church Oxford University Metaphorical Theology Sallie McFague, Distinguished Theologian in Residence Sallie McFague, 1982 Sequel to Speaking in Parables 1975 Includes bibliographical references and index Metaphorical Theology Sallie McFague, 1987 Metaphorical Theology Sallie McFague (theologian), 1983 The Body of God Sallie McFague, 1993 A very distinctive and important new option for Christian theology McFague proposes in a clear and challenging way a theological program based on what she calls the organic model for conceiving God Speaking in Parables Sallie McFague, 1975 This book is not only absorbingly readable but important For its themes engage effectively with main dilemmas not only of formal theology but of current piety and witness Amos N Wilder Andover Newton Quarterly This book is immensely valuable for its persuasive illustrations of the parabolic and metaphoric imagination McFague attends both to the interpretive and the evaluative levels of hermeneutics Her readings of specific parables poems stories and autobiographies are insightful and relevant to her thesis that what religious language says is conceptually imperceptible and inexpressible Mary Gerhart Journal of the American Academy of Religion It is at the very least a fine guide to one important direction that theological hermeneutics might take and more than that it testifies confidently to the presence of still unplumbed resources of the biblical word and its secular counterpart that are there for the imagination's appropriation Robert Detweiler Religious Studies Review Everyone interested in theology will be stimulated by Sallie McFague's mediating theological position and the form of thinking and discourse she espouses Those interested in the intercourse between theology and literature will be stimulated by the way she links the two and the perceptive way she handles her literary examples Biblical scholars will undoubtedly note her primacy of the parables as the central corpus of the biblical records Preachers of the church will be strengthened by the concern McFague has for the Christian community and the importance of the word through the words of the preachers With this variety of concerns Speaking in Parables will have a deservedly wide reading and perhaps even more important wide discussion Ronald E Sleeth Perkins School of Theology Journal Models of God Sallie McFague, 1987-01-01 In this award winning text theologian Sallie McFague challenges Christians usual speech about God as a kind of monarch She probes instead three other possible metaphors for God as mother lover and friend Rhetorical Interaction in 1 Corinthians 8 and 10 Yeo, 2021-09-06 Rhetorical Interaction in 1 Corinthians 8 and 10 is a formal analysis of Paul's rhetorical interaction with the Corinthians over the issues of participation in the cultic meal 1 Cor 10 1 22 and the eating of idol food 1 Cor 8 1 13 10 23 11 1 The thesis is that Paul's theology and rhetoric are predicated on knowledge and love Major portions of the book employ rhetorical sociological archaeological and historical critical approaches to examine the triangular interaction between Paul the Corinthians and the biblical texts paying particular attention to the complex configuration of the Corinthian congregation including the influence of proto Gnosticism as well as the ways Paul responded to the shifting situation and different issues The two chapters on rhetorical hermeneutical theory and criticism are especially creative as the author suggests a Chinese hermeneutic for cross cultural dialogues the issue of ancestor worship being a specific example Models of God and Alternative Ultimate Realities Jeanine Diller,Asa Kasher,2013-06-13 The envisioned volume is a collection of recent essays about the philosophical exploration critique and comparison of a the major philosophical models of God gods and other ultimate realities implicit in the world's philosophical schools and religions and of b the ideas of such models and doing such modeling per se The aim is to identify exactly what a model of ultimate reality is create a comprehensive and accessible collection of extant models and determine how best philosophically to model ultimate reality if possible and desirable Discerning

God's Justice in Church, Society and Academy E. M. Conradie,Christo Lombard,2009-06-01 Jaap Durand former professor of Systematic Theology and vice rector of the University of the Western Cape celebrated his 75th birthday on 5 June 2009 This volume includes a foreword by Desmond Mpilo Tutu essays by Jaap Furstenberg Allan Boesak Russel Botman Nico Koopman Bernard Lategan and Dirkie Smit In addition there are 22 shorter reflections from Jaap Durand's friends colleagues and former students The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien,2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes

Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom A New Handbook of Christian Theologians Donald W. Musser,1996 In recent years the flow of Christian theology has been channeled in diverse streams represented by such trends and movements as black theology liberation theology feminist theology and womanist theology To survey this abundance and diversity of current Christian theology this book examines the theologies of representative theologians Particularly to help students navigate the sea of information the editors have identified various routes for reading and have traced several threads or issues common to many of the essays

thus demarcating such recurrent concerns as the ways in which the theologians consider the sources and goals for theology their variant assumptions and conclusions about the nature of God their divergent approaches to understanding the person and purpose of the Christ and their distinct expectations for the destiny of history and faith

Sallie McFague Sallie McFague, 2013-10-01 Sallie McFague offers a lucid and powerful guide to theological thinking about God and the world individual and community humanity and nature reality and metaphor the sacramental and the prophetic and the critical issue of climate change for today's world She calls Christians to new feeling new acting and new thinking

Gods after God Richard Grigg, 2006-06-01 Gods after God provides an accessible introduction to a wide range of contemporary radical theologies Radical theology can be defined as talk about the divine that rejects the notion of God as a supernatural personal consciousness who created the world and who intervenes in it to accomplish his purposes In addition radical theologies tend to reject the absolute authority of traditional sources of guidance such as the Bible and the tradition of a church Richard Grigg demonstrates that there is a discernible stream of radical theologies beginning in the seventeenth century and continuing to the present He explores a host of rich and lively contemporary radical religious positions including the radical feminist theology of Mary Daly the deconstructive theology of Mark C Taylor the religious naturalism of Ursula Goodenough and Donald Crosby the pragmatist approaches of Sallie McFague and Gordon Kaufman the Taoist interpretation of Jesus of Stephen Mitchell and the feminist polytheism of Naomi Goldenberg This in depth examination asks in unflinching terms what challenges radical theologies face and whether they have a realistic chance of surviving in American society

Living with Other Beings Anders Melin, 2013 Concern for rare species has been an important part of environmental activism since the first environmental movement began in the 19th century Now the protection of rare species is a part of the political goal to preserve biodiversity This book discusses ethical issues connected with the protection of rare species from a virtue ethical perspective It explores the following two questions What constitutes a good human life together with other species How can this be realized The book takes account of both Aristotelian and Christian virtue ethics Series Studies in Religion and the Environment Studien zur Religion und Umwelt Vol 9

Cognitive Linguistic Explorations in Biblical Studies Bonnie Howe, Joel B. Green, 2014-10-24 Writing reading and interpretation are acts of human minds requiring complex cognition at every point A relatively new field of studies cognitive linguistics focuses on how language and cognition are interconnected Linguistic structures both shape cognitive patterns and are shaped by them The Cognitive Linguistics in Biblical Interpretation section of the Society of Biblical Literature gathers scholars interested in applying cognitive linguistics to biblical studies focusing on how language makes meaning how texts evoke authority and how contemporary readers interact with ancient texts This collection of essays represents first fruits from the first six years 2006-2012 of that effort drawing on cognitive metaphor study mental spaces and conceptual blending narrative theory and cognitive grammar Contributors include Eve Sweetser Ellen van Wolde Hugo Lundhaug and Jesper T Nielsen

Mothering as a Metaphor for Ministry

Emma Percy,2016-04-15 Drawing together original research which weaves together ideas from theology philosophy feminism and writing on mothering and child development Emma Percy affirms and encourages aspects of good practice in ministry that are in danger of being overlooked because they are neither well articulated nor valued Offering a fresh look at parish ministry this book uses a maternal metaphor to provide an integrated image of being and doing The metaphor of mothering is used to explore the relational aspect of parish ministry which needs to value particularity and concrete contingent responsiveness Percy suggests virtues that need to be cultivated to guard against the temptations to intrusive or domineering styles of care on the one hand or passive abnegation of responsibility on the other Parish ministry cannot be understood in terms of tangible productivity different ways of understanding success and evaluating priorities need to be developed The book suggests ways of being good enough clergy who can find the right balance between caring for people and communities whilst encouraging and acknowledging the maturity of others Hebrews in Contexts Gabriella Gelardini,Harold

Attridge,2016-05-09 Scholars of Hebrews have repeatedly echoed the almost proverbial saying that the book appears to its reader as a Melchizedekian being without genealogy For such scholars the aphorism identified prominent traits of Hebrews its enigma its otherness its marginality Although Franz Overbeck might unintentionally have stimulated such correlations they do not represent what his dictum originally meant Writing during the high noon of historicism in 1880 Overbeck lamented a lack of historical context one that he had deduced on the basis of flawed presuppositions of the ideological frameworks prevalent of his time His assertion made an impact and consequently Hebrews was not only othered within New Testament scholarship its context was neglected and by some even judged as irrelevant altogether Understandably the neglect created a deficit keenly felt by more recent scholarship which has developed a particular interest in Hebrews contexts Hebrews in Contexts edited by Gabriella Gelardini and Harold W Attridge is an expression of this interest It gathers authors who explore extensively on Hebrews relations to other early traditions and texts Jewish Hellenistic and Roman in order to map Hebrews historical cultural and religious identity in greater and perhaps surprising detail Reading Joshua as Christian Scripture Douglas S. Earl,2010-06-30 The book of Joshua has been received and used as Christian Scripture throughout Christian history The challenge today however is how Christians should appropriately continue to read Joshua as Scripture not least in the light of well known historical and ethical difficulties with the narrative In Reading Joshua as Christian Scripture Douglas Earl draws on conceptual resources offered by recent anthropological approaches to myth and combines this with a close literary reading of the text in order to argue that Joshua is misconstrued when it is treated as a historical account of conquest Instead in its ancient Israelite context Joshua functioned to reshape accepted norms of community identity as reflected in the book of Deuteronomy by forming a new cultural memory Furthermore Earl reconsiders the traditional notion of the spiritual sense of Scripture in terms of a rich account of symbol and also makes use of the narrative hermeneutics of Paul Ricoeur The result is a fresh and unexpected reading of Joshua as Christian Scripture that develops the original function of the narrative in a way that resonates with classic premodern readings and is also challenging to contemporary Christian understandings of identity and faithfulness The Annual Review of Women in World Religions Arvind Sharma, Katherine K. Young, 1999-10-21 The Annual Review of Women in World Religions represents a polymethodic interdisciplinary and multitradeitional approach to the study of women and religion emphasizes the comparative dimension and establishes a dialogue between the humanities and the social sciences In this volume contributors examine the concept of immanence in a wide variety of theological and cultural contexts Volume V includes the following contributions Immanence Catalyst for Women's Theologies by Mary Farrell Bednarowski Immanence and Transcendence in Women's Theologies by Cynthia Eller Immanence and Relatedness Psychological and Ontological Reflections by Linda E Olds Immanence and Transcendence in Women's Religious Experience and Expression A Non Theistic Perspective by Rita M Gross Women Church Re Imagining Immanence and Transcendence by Rosemary Radford Ruether Immanence as Music Incarnate Prelude to a Feminist Theology of Music by Heidi Epstein The Secret of Jewish Femininity Immanence Ritual Purity and Domestic Romance by Natalie Catherine Polzer and Image and Immanence The Domestication of Sor Juana In's de la Cruz by Pamela Kirk
