Method And Theory In The Study Of Islamic Origins Islamic History And Civilization 49:

Method and Theory in the Study of Islamic Origins Herbert Berg, 2003-01-01 This collection of articles examines the various and often mutually exclusive methodological approaches and theoretical assumptions used by scholars of Islamic origins The Quest of the Historical Muhammad and Other Studies on Formative Islam Stephen J.

Shoemaker, 2024-07-09 The lead essay in this book is the first effort to approach the historical figure of Muhammad in a manner comparable to the investigations that biblical scholars have made in the effort to recover the historical figure of Jesus Using comparable methods and approaches this study demonstrates that despite a widely held belief that Islam was born in the full light of history we in fact know considerably less about both Muhammad and the beginnings of Islam than we do about the historical Jesus and the beginnings of Christianity Also included are republications of four previously published essays dealing with such topics as the Qur'an's status as a late ancient biblical apocryphon the relation between the Jerusalem Temple and the Holy House revered by the Qur'an and the imminent eschatology of the Qur'an and the early Islamic tradition Imam Shafi'i Kecia Ali, 2011-11-01 Muhammad ibn Idris al Shafi'i 767-820 was one of Islam's foundational legal thinkers Shafi'i considered law vital to social and cosmic order the key obligation of each Muslim was to obey God and it was through knowing and following the law that human beings fulfilled this duty Drawing on the most recent scholarship on Shafi'i's work as well as her own investigations into his life and writings Kecia Ali explores Shafi'i's innovative ideas about the nature of revelation and the necessary if subordinate role of human reason in extrapolating legal rules from revealed texts This study sketches his life in his intellectual and social context including his engagement with other early figures including Malik and Muhammad al Shaybani It explores the development and refinement of his legal method and substantive teachings as well as their transmission by his students It also shows how he became the posthumous patron saint of a legal school who remains today a figure of popular interest and veneration as well as a powerful symbol of orthodoxy

God and Logic in Islam John Walbridge, 2010-11-15 This book investigates the central role of reason in Islamic intellectual life Despite widespread characterization of Islam as a system of belief based only on revelation John Walbridge argues that rational methods not fundamentalism have characterized Islamic law philosophy and education since the medieval period His research demonstrates that this medieval Islamic rational tradition was opposed by both modernists and fundamentalists resulting in a general collapse of traditional Islamic intellectual life and its replacement by more modern but far shallower forms of thought However the resources of this Islamic scholarly tradition remain an integral part of the Islamic intellectual tradition and will prove vital to its revival The future of Islam Walbridge argues will be marked by a return to rationalism Solomon and the Ant David Penchansky, 2021-07-30 Solomon and the Ant using the Bible as a dialogue partner examines stories from the Qur'an their drama characters and meaning Although some Qur'anic stories have close biblical parallels here Penchansky examines stories without biblical precursors Qur'anic narratives in dialogue with biblical texts enhance understanding Penchansky chooses biblical stories that address similar questions about the nature of God and God's interaction with people Solomon matches wits with an ant a bird and the queen of Sheba Magical creatures the jinn are driven out of heaven by fiery meteors Moses on a quest meets a mysterious stranger The Bible offers parallels and connections Genesis Exodus Isaiah Matthew and other biblical books contrast with the qur'anic text comment on the qur'anic story and supplement it Separated by space and time the Bible and the Qur'an faced similar issues Both the Bible and the Qur'an adapted material from their surrounding culture while at the same time distinguishing themselves from that culture Rather than addressing this cultural confrontation with rigid certainty the Bible and the Qur'an are ambiguous and multivocal The Bible and the Qur'an are layered containing stories within stories fragments and structural abnormalities These features contribute to meaning Penchansky's analysis of these stories makes the Qur'an accessible and compelling to nonspecialists and students

Excavating Asian History Norman Yoffee, Bradley L. Crowell, 2022-05-10 Although history and archaeology each seek to elucidate the past both sets of data are incomplete and ambiguous and thus open to multiple readings that invite contradictory interpretations of human activity This is particularly true when scholars of each field ignore or fail to understand research in the other discipline Excavating Asian History contains case studies and theoretical articles that show how archaeologists have been investigating historical social and economic organizations and that explore the relationship between history and archaeology in the study of pre modern Asia These contributions consider biases in both historical and archaeological data that have occasioned rival claims to knowledge in the two disciplines Ranging widely across the region from the Levant to China and from the third millennium BC to the second millennium AD they demonstrate that archaeological and historical studies can complement each other and should be used in tandem The contributors are leading historians and archaeologists of Asia who present data issues and debates revolving around the most recent research on the ancient Near East early Islam India China and Southeast Asian states Their chapters illustrate the benefits of interdisciplinary investigations and show in particular how archaeology is changing our understanding of history Commentary chapters by Miriam Stark and Philip Kohl add new perspectives to the findings By showing the evolving relationship between those who study archaeological material and those who investigate textual data Excavating Asian History offers practical demonstrations of how research has been and must continue to be structured

Modern Hadith Studies Belal Abu-Alabbas, 2020-07-31 This book examines the various methods and trends in Hadith Studies across the globe Bringing together contributions from 10 scholars of Hadith it addresses the subject from a variety of methodological vantage points and historical premises

Minor Marriage in Early Islamic Law Carolyn Baugh, 2017-06-06 In Minor Marriage in Early Islamic Law Carolyn Baugh offers an in depth exploration of 8th 13th century legal sources on the marriageability of prepubescents focusing on such issues as maintenance sexual readiness consent and a father's right to compel Modern efforts to resist establishment of a minimum marriage age in countries such as Saudi Arabia rest on claims of early juristic consensus that fathers may compel their prepubescent daughters to marry This work investigates such claims by highlighting the extremely nuanced discussions and debates recorded in early legal texts From the works of famed early luminaries to the consensus writers of later centuries each chapter brings new insights into a complex and enduring debate Damascus after the Muslim Conquest Nancy Khalek, 2011-09-16 Before it fell to Muslim armies in AD 635 6 Damascus had a long and prestigious history as a center of Christianity How did this city which became the capitol of the Islamic Empire and its people negotiate the transition from a late antique or early Byzantine world to an Islamic culture In Damascus after the Muslim Conquest Nancy Khalek demonstrates that the changes that took place in Syria during this formative period of Islamic life were not simply a matter of the replacement of one civilization by another as a result of military conquest but rather of shifting relationships and practices in a multifaceted social and cultural setting Even as late antique forms of religion and culture persisted the formation of Islamic identity was affected by the people who constructed lived in and narrated the history of their city Khalek draws on the evidence of architecture and the testimony of pilgrims biographers geographers and historians to shed light on this process of identity formation Offering a fresh approach to the early Islamic period she moves the study of Islamic origins beyond a focus on issues of authenticity and textual criticism and initiates an interdisciplinary discourse on narrative storytelling and the interpretations of material culture Islamic Law Gavin N. Picken, 2011 Volume III focuses on the consolidation and consequent perceived stagnation of Islamic law in the medieval period alluded to in the traditional accounts of Islamic legal theory The final volume in the collection examines Islamic law in the modern period and the challenges of living in a modern technologically advanced world Supplemented with a full index Islamic Law includes a comprehensive introduction newly written by the editor which places the collected material in its historical and intellectual context It is certain to be valued as a vital research resource Publisher description The Nusayrī-ʿAlawīs Yaron Friedman, 2010 Friedman offers new and updated research on the Nusayr Alaw sect today a leading group in Syria covering a variety of aspects and focusing on the Middle Ages A century after Dussaud's Histoire et religion des Nusayrīs 1900 he reviews the history and religion of the sect in the light of old documents used by orientalist in the nineteenth century documents that became available in the twentieth century and later sources of the Nusayr Alaw sect published most recently in Lebanon Also studied in depth for the first time is the question of the identity of the sect through the Alaw Sunn Sh triangle Analysing Muslim Traditions Nicolet Boekhoff-van der Voort, Sean W. Anthony, 2010 Since its inception the study of ad th conducted by scholars trained in the Western academic tradition has been marked by sharp methodological debates A focal issue is the origin and development of traditions on the advent of Islam Scholars verdicts on these traditions have ranged from late fabrications without any historical value for the time concerning which the narrations purport to give information to early accurately transmitted texts that allow one to reconstruct Islamic origins Starting from previous contributions to the debate the studies collected in this volume show that by careful analysis of their texts and chains of transmission the history of Muslim traditions can be reconstructed with a high degree of probability and their historicity assessed afresh

Muhammad and His Followers in Context Ilkka Lindstedt,2023-10-30 This title is published in Open Access with the support of the University of Helsinki Library The book surveys and analyzes changes in religious groups and identities in late antique Arabia ca 300 700 CE It engages with contemporary and material evidence for example inscriptions archaeological remains Arabic poetry the Qur'an and the so called Constitution of Medina Also it suggests ways to deal with the later Arabic historiographical and other literary texts The issue of social identities and their processes are central to the study For instance how did Arabian ethnic and religious identities intersect on the eve of Islam The book suggests that the changes in social groups were more piecemeal than previously thought

Violence in Early Islam Marco Demichelis,2021-03-25 The concept of jihad holds a prominent place in Islamic thought and history Beyond its spiritual meanings the term has historically been associated with the sweeping Arab Believers conquests of the 7th century BCE But given advances in our understanding of the historicity and chronology of the Qur'an and early Islamic texts is it correct to identify jihad and Islam with violent conquest In this book Marco Demichelis explores the history of the concept of jihad in the early proto Islamic centuries 7th 8th Deploying an interdisciplinary approach which combines the hermeneutical study of the famous Verses of the Sword within the Qur'an itself with historical writing by Islamic chroniclers as well as non Islamic sources numismatics epigraphical and architectural evidence the book questions the relationship between the religious concept of jihad and the conquests The book argues that Christian Byzantine Foederati forces who previously fought against the Persians may have had a formative effect on the later emergence of more bellicose rhetoric In so doing it calls into question assumptions about warlike attitudes inherent within Islamic doctrine and reveals a more nuanced and complicated history of religious violence in the pre proto and early Islamic period

Papyrology And The History Of Early Islamic Egypt Petra A. Sijpesteijn,Lennart Sundelin,2004 This collection includes editions of previously unpublished Greek Coptic and Arabic documents historical and linguistic studies making use of documentary evidence and literary papyri and an introduction to papyrology and its relevance for the study of early Islamic Egypt

The Ḥadīth Mustafa Akram Ali Shah,2010 The Prophetic traditions of Islam which are commonly referred to as the hadiths literally reports preserve the sum and substance of the utterances deeds directives and descriptive anecdotes connected with the life of the Prophet Muhammad and his Companions Together with the Qur'an the hadiths provide the religion of Islam with its principal scriptural sources The collection features an accessible and informative introduction which presents an outline of the significance of the hadiths within the religious tradition while also reviewing classical scholarship devoted to the literature of the traditions moreover the introduction decisively sets into context the academic debates and arguments which are fleshed out in the articles selected It also charts developments in the academic study of hadiths summing up the current state of the field and features a detailed bibliography listing primary classical sources germane to the field of Prophetic traditions together with recent research monographs and articles devoted to the subject This Major Work provides an authoritative collection of the seminal research articles produced by western academic scholarship on the subject of the hadith over the past century including recent papers on the subject In bringing together the finest examples of scholarship devoted to the hadith and the classical literature that surrounds it these volumes provide an indispensable reference resource for academics research institutions governmental organizations and those with a general interest in Arabic and Islamic Studies Religious Studies Arabic Cultural Studies and Middle East History Publisher description Ideas, Images, and Methods of Portrayal Sebastian Günther, 2005-05-01 This volume deals with the genesis of selected classical Arabic texts as the products of different milieus and the implications which these texts had for Islamic societies in medieval times It explores the concepts and images which Muslim scholars from the 8th to the 14th century presented in their writings and in particular ponders the ways in which these authors used specific methods of portrayal either overtly or more subtly to advance their ideas The fresh theoretical and methodological approaches applied in this book facilitate the understanding of how medieval Muslim writers expressed their views and more importantly why they expressed them in the way they did This helps disclose for example how the images of historically or religiously significant figures in Arabic Islamic culture have been developed and shaped in the process of their literarization The Qur'ān Arthur J. Droge, 2013 This new annotated translation of the Qur n affords readers not only a better sense of what the Qur n says but how it says it in a rendition that strives to remain faithful to the way it was originally expressed Accompanying the translation is an extensive set of annotations The annotations offer a wealth of linguistic and historical detail to enhance the understanding and appreciation of the text They also contain abundant references to parallel passages within the Qur n as well as comparatively among the scriptures of Judaism and Christianity With an introduction map timeline guide to further reading and comprehensive index
