What is the Religious Method?

1. Religious method

Key steps in order when a religion or faith usually include the following:

- teachings or holy books,
- teachings from religious leaders past and present,
- prayer and study,
- communication with God/spirit,
- ritualised teachings,
- rights

What is the religious method in your faith?

Do these scientists have religion?

- Imagine that you're investigating evidence.
- You know that someone recently visited your world and was convinced.
- You go to try and establish their exact beliefs, things of that sort.
- In the course of your study, something gets your notice. They're convinced they've discovered

The people of Jing

The people of Jing got an idea.
They decided to use the stone blocks to build a wall. They got help from other cities. They built a strong wall. They were happy. They were safe.

The principle of GAG

1. When the agent leaves the field and all the agents in the network play the game, it is likely to see some benefit. There is a risk that the benefits may not be seen in every field.
2. Consequently, they all play the game for the greater or higher "compensation" (though, "compensation" is not meant with all of course, but different).
3. At the end of the day, someone comes in the field and the higher the benefits are to the field.

The people of Zanzibar

- The Swahili don't speak Shona. Swahili is spoken by Shona and by Zulu. They can't understand each other.
- Why can't the Swahili who live in Zanzibar understand the Shona who live in Zimbabwe? It is because of a language barrier.

The people of London

When we say London, a number will pop into your mind. It's the number of people who live there. But there's a different number which they find interesting. This number is not the city's population, but the number of people who speak English in the city.

So, imagine, don't think to change the question immediately. Instead, don't be surprised when you see the number which is not the city's population.

- 1. The population of London is 8.5 million.
- 2. The number of people who speak English in London is 1.5 million.

The people of Alghero

- The Algheroese have roots of about 500 years (about 1500 years ago) in the island of Corsica and Sardinia (Algherese) - there is a lot of similarity in the dialect.
- Alghero was one of the first cities and ports of the sea in the area (probably since the Roman Empire) and it has always been important for its role as a commercial port and for the sea.
- It was a really a beautiful city, with many beautiful buildings in the city, and many buildings in the area.

The people of Myanmar

Myanmar lives in the corner of the Southeast Asian continent. It is a big country with many ethnic and religious minorities in that country.

They believe that when they die, they will use telekinesis which can make things disappear and they can travel. They have to get the permission to travel and to remember what happens if they die.

They always wear a red shawl around their neck and wear a headscarf.

They don't wear shoes and wear a cloth on their head.

Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 In today's pluralistic world many cultures feel a shift in the relationship of people with religious traditions. A corresponding movement is a resurgence of interest in human spirituality. This Handbook presents the views of education scholars who engage these concepts every day in a collection of essays reflecting the international state of the discipline. Out of these rises a vision for the emergence of a just and peaceful world. Religious Education and Christian Theologies Inter-European Commission on Church and School, Sturla Sagberg, Gaynor Pollard, Peter Schreiner, Peter Schreiner, How Teachers in Europe Teach Religion Hans-Georg Ziebertz, Ulrich Riegel, 2009 In 2007 around 3500 teachers in 16 European countries participated in a cross cultural study of existing teaching procedures in religion and theology. This text shows the results which present different approaches, strategies and ways of thinking when it comes to teaching religion in a multicultural context. How to Teach Religion George Betts, 2016-05-16 By far the best book we have as yet on how to teach the child religion until he is of age to follow the way of Christ as a thing of course. The Outlook How not to teach religion in the Sunday school and the home as well as to teach it is here set forth in many impressive contrasts. The great objective of wise teaching is the child to awaken his spiritual nature and touch the springs of his emotional response to the heavenly Father. How to cultivate a religious attitude, religious ideals, loyalties, habits and the sense of responsibility for others, how to organize the mass of material for all this in the Bible, in nature, history and great biographies, how to make truth vivid with teaching that sticks in memory, how to protect children from intellectual difficulties are all well answered by a master in Israel. Professor Betts has given us by far the best book we have as yet on how to teach the child religion until he is of age to follow the way of Christ as a thing of course. The Outlook Principles and methods are stated with conciseness and clearness and with a kind of illustration that causes them to throb with life. The book will prove an inspiration and practical help to every teacher who will read it and put its teaching into practice. The Christian Advocate Treats the content of religion as identical with that of ethics and indicates how this material may be used effectively in classroom work. The Dial Of great worth. One thing is impressed upon the teacher at once: the supremacy of religion. Next comes the stern demand that the teacher should himself and for himself set religion first. Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness. Then follow the rules and methods so easily learned then and so easily taught. The Expository Times Frequently claims are made for books which when reviewed are found wanting. Not so with this book which deals in a concrete and practical way with the underlying principle of religious instruction. The volume is intended as a textbook for teacher training classes, students of religious education and we are confident that many ministers will find it most suggestive and helpful.
