Imagining Vernacular Histories Mobolanle Egunoluwa Sotunsa,Abikal Borah,2020-08-17 Imagining Vernacular Histories is centered on the idea of engaging with indigenous African cosmologies that signal at pluriversality In conversation with Toyin Falola s reading of the African pluriverse and his exploration of the idea of ritual archives the contributors to this volume rethink the historical archive in search of vernacular histories Simultaneously they recognize the contributions from various other disciplines in pluralizing the term vernacular The book brings together a wide range of topics such as reflections on African historiography the relationship between memory history and literature gender relations and the construction of historical archives While appropriating Falola s conception of vernacular histories the contributors collectively argue that pluriversality and ritual archives can potentially rescue African historical and creative scholarship from the sustained practices of epistemicide Simultaneously Imagining Vernacular Histories focuses on the emerging interdisciplinary conversations on constructing the pluriverse as well as on the geopolitics of knowledge production Through a critical appreciation of Falola s engagement with the ideas of postcoloniality decolonizing epistemologies and pluriversality this book locates his scholarship in relation to postcolonial theory emerging from the Global South

Vansina,1990-10-22 Vansina s scope is breathtaking he reconstructs the history of the forest lands that cover all or part of southern Cameroon Gabon Equatorial Guinea the Congo Zaire the Central African Republic and Cabinda in Angola discussing the original settlement of the forest by the western Bantu the periods of expansion and innovation in agriculture the development of metallurgy the rise and fall of political forms and of power the coming of Atlantic trade and colonialism and the conquest of the rainforests by colonial powers and the destruction of a way of life In 400 elegantly brilliant pages Vansina lays out five millennia of history for nearly 200 distinguishable regions of the forest of equatorial Africa around a new subtly paradoxical interpretation of tradition Joseph Miller University of Virginia Vansina gives extended coverage to the broad features of culture and the major lines of historical development across the region between 3000 B C and A D 1000 It is truly an outstanding effort readable subtle and integrative in its interpretations and comprehensive in scope It is a seminal study but it is also a substantive history that will long retain its usefulness Christopher Ehret American Historical Review

Missions of Interdependence ,2021-11-01 At the beginning of the twenty first century it is necessary to combine into a productive programme the striving for individual emancipation and the social practice of humanism in order to help the world survive both the ancient pitfalls of particularist terrorism and the levelling tendencies of cultural indifference engendered by the renewed imperialist arrogance of hegemonial global capital In this book thirty five scholars address and negotiate in a spirit of learning and understanding an exemplary variety of intercultural splits and fissures that have opened up in the English speaking world Their methodology can be seen to constitute a seminal field of intellectual signposts They point out ways and means of responsibly assessing colonial predicaments and postcolonial developments in six regions shaped in the past by the British Empire and still associated today through their allegiance to the idea of a Commonwealth of Nations They show how a new ethic of literary self assertion interpretative mediation and critical responsiveness can remove the deeply ingrained prejudices silences and taboos established by discrimination against race class and gender History beyond apartheid Thula Simpson,2023-04-18 This edited volume encompasses a range of themes and approaches relevant to the field of South African history today as viewed from the perspective of practicing historians at the cutting edge of research in the discipline The collection features the historians offering critical reflection on the theoretical and methodological aspects of their work This involves them both looking back at the inherited historiographical tradition in the respective areas of their research while also pointing forwards to possible future directions for scholarly engagement

Across Cultural Borders Eckhardt Fuchs, Benedikt Stuchtey, 2002 This innovative work offers the first comprehensive transcultural history of historiography The contributors transcend a Eurocentric approach not only in terms of the individual historiographies they assess but also in the methodologies they use for comparative analysis Moving beyond the traditional national focus of historiography the book offers a genuinely comparative consideration of the commonalities and differences in writing history Distinguishing among distinct cultural identities the contributors consider the ways and means of intellectual transfers and assess the strength of local historiographical traditions as they are challenged from outside The essays explore the question of the utility and the limits of conceptions of modernism that apply Western theories of development to non Western cultures Warning against the dominant tendency in recent historiographies of non Western societies to define these predominantly in relation to Western thought the authors show the extent to which indigenous traditions have been overlooked The key question is how the triad of industrialization modernization and the historicization process which was decisive in the development of modern academic historiography also is valid beyond Europe Illustrating just how deeply suffused history writing is with European models the book offers a broad theoretical platform for exploring the value and necessity of a world historiography beyond Eurocentrism Great Zimbabwe Joseph O. Vogel, 2019-08-22

First Published in 1994 This research guide was written as a comprehensive though by no means exhaustive survey of the literature pertinent to studying the indigenous complex societies of south central Africa Although the paramount focus of the compilation was the archaeology of Great Zimbabwe the author has drawn from a broad geographical area and a wider period of time than that usually associated with Zimbabwean culture in order to demonstrate the cultural background for the growth of monumental trading towns in south central Africa Nigeria's Resource Wars Egodi Uchendu, 2021-03-02

Nigeria's Resource Wars reflects on the diversity of conflicts over access to and allocation of resources in Nigeria From the devastating effects of crude oil exploration in the Niger Delta to desertification caused by climate change and illegal gold mining in Zamfara to mention a few Nigeria faces new dimensions of resource related struggles The ravaging effects of these resource conflicts between crop farmers and Fulani herders in Nigeria's Middlebelt and states across Southern Nigeria call for urgent scholarly interventions with the Fulani cattle breeders onslaught altering the histories of many Nigerian families through deaths loss of homes and investments and permanent physical incapacity Currently there is an almost total breakdown of interethnic relations with political commentators acknowledging that Nigeria has never been so divided as it presently is in its history The struggles have now degenerated into kidnaps armed robbery and incessant targeted and random killings across the country compounding the already complex problem of insecurity in Nigeria The chapters in this volume engage with these issues presenting the different arguments on resource conflicts in Nigeria They draw insights from similar conflicts in Nigeria s colonial post independence past and events from around the world to proffer possible solutions to resource related confrontations in Africa By offering a collection of different intellectual perspectives on resource conflicts in Nigeria this volume will be an important reference material for understanding the diversity of thought patterns that underpin the struggle and policy approaches towards resolving conflict situations in Africa This volume will be of considerable interest to scholars of Africa researchers in the humanities social sciences and conflict studies and policymakers interested in understanding the resource crisis in Africa

Afrikology and Transdisciplinarity Wadada

Nabudere,2012-05-22 This monograph is intended to examine the epistemology of restorative rights in view of the continuing violation of rights in all aspects of life on the African continent and other parts of the world It is based on the research which the Marcus Garvey Pan Afrikan Institute undertook between 2006-2008 under a cross disciplinary research project entitled Restorative Justice and its Relationship to International Humanitarian Law which resulted in a Comprehensive Report that was later discussed at an international conference in Nairobi in August 2008 This conference was opened by the Prime Minister of Kenya Right Hon Raila Odinga and attended by Ministers of Justice and Constitutional Affairs judges and other ministers from the five countries in which the research was carried out Uganda Kenya Tanzania Rwanda and Southern Sudan The objective here is to relate the concept of restorative justice in its broad and cross disciplinary meaning to the epistemology of Afrikology and transdisciplinarity which aim at breaking down disciplinary boundaries between the different academic disciplines which inhibit our capabilities of looking at realities in a comprehensive holistic manner leading to the adoption of fragmented solutions to problems which inevitably fail to address those problems As stated in the monograph on the epistemology of Afrikology knowledge is created holistically by the heart and the basis of the perceptions and experiences of the five senses The knowledge created through the word which ultimately constitutes the language and the community is related to our cosmic forces and reason which gives cosmic significance to our existence We cannot therefore detach ourselves from these cosmic forces and reality must be examined from this combinatory holistic understanding
