Rethinking the French City Monique Yaari, 2008 This book considers the post 68 French

city as a prism through which to understand the contemporary world and France's specificity within it. The reader is invited to join in a series of exploratory strolls through texts, buildings and neighborhoods and thereby share in a process of discovery. Zeroing in on international architectural debates, a range of key Parisian exhibitions and major urban design decisions in Paris, Montpellier and Lille, Yaari unravels an often acerbic French critique of both modern and postmodern positions on culture, technology and the city. This critique, stemming from the competing claims of national identity, the ethics of architecture and display and an anthropologically informed revision of prevailing views on the city, has sparked in France a passionate search for a third path, which the author proposes to term après moderne. Breaking new ground in the field of French Studies through cultural analysis of the contemporary city, this study brings new insight to scholars and professionals in architecture and urbanism and will interest all others for whom France and cities in general hold special appeal. Monique Yaari is a specialist of twentieth-century French literary and cultural studies. For the past decade her research has focused on the contemporary city. The author of Ironie paradoxale et ironie poétique sur les traces de Gide dans Paludes (Summa Publications, 1988) as well as numerous articles on contemporary French art and architecture, Professor Yaari teaches in the Culture and Civilization option of the Department of French and Francophone Studies at The Pennsylvania State University.

The Cromer Collection of Nineteenth-century French Photography, 2022-05-31. A deep dive into the pioneering collection of nineteenth-century French photographs, equipment and ephemera, which is a cornerstone of the George Eastman Museum. In the early twentieth century, Parisian photographer, amateur historian and collector Gabriel Cromer (1873-1934) amassed a collection that traced photography's prehistory, invention and development to about 1890. His dream was to found a national museum of the photographic arts in France. Although Cromer's ambition was never realized, his collection was central to establishing the world's first museum dedicated to photography, the George Eastman Museum. The Cromer Collection of Nineteenth Century French Photography considers the origin and circulation of the collection as well as the influence it has had on photography as a field of study. The book's six essays, written by French and American scholars, explore the Cromer Collection's complex passage across markets, borders and functions. For more than half a century, curators and scholars worldwide have drawn extensively on the Gabriel Cromer Collection for exhibitions and publications; this book provides the first focused scholarly study of the foundational resource.

The Brothers Le Nain, Esther Susan Bell, Claude Douglas Dickerson, Nicolas Milavanovic, Alain Tallon, 2016-01-01. A beautiful volume that brings to light the forgotten Le Nain brothers, a trio of 17th-century French master painters who specialized in portraiture, religious subjects and scenes of everyday peasant life. In France in the 17th century, the brothers Antoine (c. 1598-1648), Louis (c. 1600-1605, 1648) and Mathieu (1607-1677) Le Nain painted images of everyday life for which they became posthumously famous. They are celebrated for their depictions of middle-class leisure activities and particularly for their representations of peasant families who gaze out at the viewer. The uncompromising naturalism of these compositions, along with their oddly suspended action, imparts a sense of dignity to their subjects Featuring more than sixty paintings highlighting the artists full range of production including altarpieces private devotional paintings portraits and the poignant images of peasants for which the brothers are best known this generously illustrated volume presents new research concerning the authorship dating and meaning of the works by well known scholars in the field Also groundbreaking are the results of a technical study of the paintings which constitutes a major contribution to the scholarship on the Le Nain brothers

"Sculptors and Design Reform in France, 1848 to 1895 " Claire Jones, 2017-07-05 Challenging distinctions between fine and decorative art this book begins with a critique of the Rodin scholarship to establish how the selective study of his oeuvre has limited our understanding of French nineteenth century sculpture The book s central argument is that we need to include the decorative in the study of sculpture in order to present a more accurate and comprehensive account of the practice and profession of sculpture in this period Drawing on new archival sources sculptors and objects this is the first sustained study of how and why French sculptors collaborated with state and private luxury goods manufacturers between 1848 and 1895 Organised chronologically the book identifies three historically situated frameworks through which sculptors attempted to validate themselves and their work in relation to industry industrial art decorative art and objet d art Detailed readings are offered of sculptors who operated within and outside the Salon including S n Ch t Carrier Belleuse and Rodin and of diverse objects and materials from S es vases to pewter plates by Desbois and furniture by Barbedienne and Carabin By contesting the false separation of art from industry Claire Jones s study restores the importance of the sculptor manufacturer relationship and of the decorative to the history of sculpture
