Playing With Mum:

Playing with Mum Carla Dijs, 1999-02-28 A pop up book showing how difficult it is for a piglet to get mother pig's attention when she is busy and piglet wants to play games Slang and Its Analogues Past and Present William Ernest Henley, 1896 The Methuen Drama Book of 21st Century British Plays Joe Penhall, Kwame Kwei-Armah, Anthony Neilson, Bola Agbaje, Simon Stephens, 2010-02-26 This collection showcases the five best new plays from the first decade of the twenty first century and perfectly reflects why British theatre is regarded as the epicenter of vitality relevance and innovation in drama and the performing arts Blue Orange Elmina's Kitchen Neilson's Realism Gone Too Far and Pornography

Kai - Playing his Part Joy Vee, 2022-10-24 Kai decides to learn a new skill for his school talent show but he finds practising is harder than he thinks When he is given the chance to learn something lifechanging he is eager to play his part But will the distraction of the show be too much And what happens when Kai gets really bad news Join Kai on his latest adventure and maybe it could be lifechanging for you too This Christian fiction for 6-9 year olds helps children grow in their walk with God and has questions in the back to encourage discussion The Shared Space of Play Francesca Berti, 2023-07-10 The similarities between traditional games in different regions of the world from past to present arouse both awe and curiosity The playful yet educational discovery of these practices offers the opportunity to observe the experience of play as a space for similarities between cultures When research on play conducted with children is enriched by the recollections of play from parents and grandparents especially in the context of a multicultural classroom a choral narrative emerges laying down the basis for intercultural education Children discover the shared space of play where they can meet and relish together with teachers the richness of cultural diversity and also learn more about prejudice and Othering processes Our Grand Finale Laraine Denny Burrell, 2017-10-17 Laraine Burrell gets the call to come back to England from the United States just in time to visit briefly with her father before he passes away Following his death she is overcome with grief feeling that she has squandered the time she had with her father Instead of staying close she chose to travel the world and seek her own goals as a young woman always thinking there would be time later on to tell her dad all the things she wanted to tell him how much she loved him and how he was her hero Now she realizes it's too late Wanting to do something significant for her father to make up for her neglect Burrell reflects on the fascinating life her father a Royal Yachtsman led and decides that the one thing she can do for him is to tell his exceptional life story and make sure he is not forgotten Our Grand Finale is the culmination of that effort an exploration of both the author's and her father's unusual life experiences and a reminder that later doesn't always come The Methuen Drama Book of Plays by Black British Writers Mustapha Matura, Jackie Kay, Winsome Pinnock, Roy Williams, Kwame Kwei-Armah, Bola Agbaje, 2013-10-16 The Methuen Drama Book of Plays by Black British Writers provides an essential anthology of six of the key plays that have shaped the trajectory of British black theatre from the late 1970s to the present day In doing so it charts the journey from specialist black theatre companies to the mainstream including West End success while providing a cultural and racial barometer for Britain during the last forty years It opens with Mustapha Matura s 1979 play Welcome Home Jacko which in its depiction of a group of young unemployed West Indians was one of the first to explore issues of youth culture identity and racial and cultural identification Jackie Kay s Chiaroscuro examines debates about the politics of black mixed race and lesbian identities in 1980s Britain and from the 1990s Winsome Pinnock s Talking in Tongues engages with the politics of feminism to explore issues of black women s identity in Britain and Jamaica From the first decade of the twenty first century the three plays include Roy Williams seminal pub drama Sing Yer Hearts Out for the Lads exploring racism and identity against the backdrop of the World Cup Kwame Kwei Armah s National Theatre play of 2004 Fix Up about black cultural history and progress in modern Britain and finally Bola Agbaje s terrific 2007 debut Gone Too Far which examines questions of identity and tensions between Africans and Caribbeans living in Britain Edited by Lynnette Goddard this important anthology provides an essential introduction to the last forty years of British black theatre

A Girl With A Book and Other Plays Nick Wood, 2017-03-02

A topical collection of new plays by popular UK playwright Nick Wood I am not a lone voice I am many Malala Yousafzai A Girl with a Book and Other Plays brings together four plays for young people by acclaimed playwright Nick Wood Topical and wide ranging they concern refugees friendship loss and courage You know those sentences that start I m not sexist racist homophobic and the speaker sticks in the word but and goes on to prove that s exactly what they are The title play A Girl with a Book is an honest response to the story of Malala Yousafzai who was shot by the Taliban Produced many times in Germany and the UK the play raises serious questions about the West s complex relationship with and attitudes to the Muslim world a journey into empathy and imagination Stephen Lowe Plays Nick Wood s poignant political drama A Girl with a Book is based on the true story of Nobel Peace Prize Winner Malala Yousafza In 2012 gunmen stopped a bus in Pakistan and shot three young girls Their crime Wanting to go to school Knowing nothing about the situation able to offer little more than outrage the writer is forced out from behind his desk and in the search for answers to help him tell the story of a brave young woman s fight for girls education but when his research uncovers attitudes at odds with his liberal convictions he has to face what he learns about himself Achieving international acclaim after its opening in Hamburg A Girl with a Book examines Malala s story through a series of questions Wood asks how a girl who wanted to go to school could become such a target Bird boy Eddie and Tim create their own den up on the Knoll a secret place for heroes The only problem is winter is setting in and Eddie won t come down As the snow falls Tim must decide whether to take food to Eddie or betray him by telling the grown ups where he is Mia Mia is a refugee who has lost her home and most of her family She has odd bits and pieces in her bag which have stories attached to them Mia is searching for her sister Sofia can they help Dream of White Horses Paul wants two things to find out whether his father s death was an accident or not He climbs the same cliff to discover what happened to his father and a great deal about himself invites us to better understand Malala her father and her kinsmen On Religion a journey into empathy and imagination coolly and cleanly done A crucially important tale well told with great humanity Stephen Lowe playwright there s plenty of scope here for schools colleges and youth theatre groups The title play has a cast of one The remaining three plays use larger casts and explore asylum seeking friendship loss and courage Susan Elkin The Stage Understanding Children's Learning Claire Alfrey,2013-08-21 Structured to support teaching assistants this pioneering textbook provides an academic underpinning to each of the key topics studied The book develops the theoretical knowledge needed to enhance work in the classroom encourages students to reflect on their own practice is in an ideal textbook format full of tasks questions summaries and reading lists and covers both primary and secondary years Practical easy to read and written specifically for teaching assistants this book is also applicable for any trainee teachers or students of education From Reading to Speaking Nigel Sansom,2012-09-14 This book contains a total of 10 Short Stories to help you the student to improve your English or you the teacher to help your students improve their skills Each story is accompanied by a number of exercises The author can send you a free MPS copy to accompany all the Worksheets for Listening Write to sansomnigel gmail com Revolution Jakob Ejersbo,2014-09-09 Revolution is a collection of eleven short stories that act as a vital bridge between the novels Exile and Liberty But it is also so much more than that Ejersbo had a remarkable and unaffected talent for getting inside the heads of his characters Moses a worker in a Tanzanite mine who lives in hope of striking it rich Sofie a Greenlander who joins a French conman on his trip around the world Rachel who tries to make a life for herself in a city where everyone sees her as a whore in waiting You feel that Ejersbo could have written from the heart of every person living in Tanzania and that you could go on reading them forever Watching You Paddy Richardson,2022-08-01 The best of NZ Noir It was his eyes They made me think of glass Transparent blue glass Freelance journalist Claire Wright is offered a commission with the kind of fee which would mean financial security for both herself and her daughter Annie But the job is to write the story of serial sex offender Travis Crill presently serving his term in prison Entering Crill s world forces Claire into a winding labyrinth of ruthless pursuit and brutal secrets Can Claire endure the revelation of the harm he has done to his victims And while Crill appears to be the model prisoner Claire senses the skilled manipulator beneath the surface Why has he chosen her How does he know so much about her life Computational Economics David A. Kendrick,P. Ruben Mercado,Hans M. Amman,2011-10-23 The ability to conceptualize an economic problem verbally to formulate it as a mathematical model and then represent the mathematics in software so that the model can be solved on a computer is a crucial skill for economists Computational Economics contains well known models and some brand new ones designed to help students move from verbal to mathematical to computational representations in economic modeling The authors focus however is not just on solving the models but also on developing the ability to modify them to reflect one s interest and point of view The result is a book that enables students to be creative in developing models that are relevant to the economic problems of their times Unlike other computational economics textbooks this book is organized around economic topics among them macroeconomics microeconomics and finance The authors employ various software systems including MATLAB Mathematica GAMS the nonlinear programming solver in Excel and the database systems in Access to enable students to use the most advantageous system The book progresses from relatively simple models to more complex ones and includes appendices on the ins and outs of running each program The book is intended for use by advanced undergraduates and professional economists and even as a first exposure to computational economics by graduate students Organized by economic topics Progresses from simple to more complex models Includes instructions on numerous software systems Encourages customization and creativity Great Lead Raewyn

Caisley,2013-01-01 Netball is the ultimate team game and Great Lead demonstrates this with everyone's roles off court being just as important to the team's ultimate success as their roles on the court Liz Ellis former captain of the Australian netball team and two time Commonwealth Games gold medallist Hayley wants to play netball but there are not enough girls to form a team Mum's got the solution boys When three boys put their hands up to play for St Pat's the other team is afraid the boys will prove too strong even if they haven't got any experience The local paper stirs things up and Brett thinks he's leading a small revolution but Seamus doesn't want to know And what's the thing between Alex and Duncan When the team receives their worst blow yet they wonder if it was all a waste of time Or was it perhaps the most incredible thing they've ever done Other sports fiction titles from RAEWYN CAISLEY include IN UNION TENNIS STAR NOT CRICKET FREE STYLE HOT SHOT and TOP MARKS Plays of the 19th and 20th Centuries ,1909 Gone Too Far! Bola Agbaje,2021-07-01 Nigeria
