Constructing Russian Culture in the Age of Revolution, 1881-1940 Catriona Kelly, David G. Shepherd, 1998 Constructing Russian Culture offers a pioneering new account of the relationship between literature and other cultural forms in Late Imperial Russia and Revolutionary Russia The general consensus in Western study of Russia and the Soviet Union has been that understanding of historical background is essential to the study of literature But this consensus has so far failed to produce sophisticated overviews of the culture as a whole literary histories seldom venture outside a rigid canon of authors and literary groupings and the account of historical background sometimes amount to little more than a listing of certain predictable political and social factors that can be perceived to have influenced or impeded literary developments This book is an ambitious attempt to recontextualize Russian literature and rethink the relations between literature and other cultural forms The book examines a number of in Bourdieu s term cultural fields in late Imperial Russia science and objectivity national and personal identity consumerism and commercial culture There is also a keywords introduction explaining the evolution of concepts of the self the nation and literariness in Russian culture and an Epilogue outlining the further history of the central themes after 1917 Contributors include leading specialists in Russian literature cultural history and cultural theory from Britain the USA and Russia Intended as a companion to Russian Cultural Studies An Introduction also OUP this stimulating original and controversial book will be a vital resource for all those interested in Russian culture during the age of Revolution

Globalizing Cultural Studies Cameron McCarthy,2007 The contributors to Globalizing Cultural Studies Ethnographic Interventions in Theory Method and Policy take as their central topic the problematic status of the global within cultural studies in the areas of theory method and policy and particularly in relation to the intersections of language power and identity in twenty first century post 9 11 culture s Writing against the Anglo centric ethnographic gaze that has saturated various cultural studies projects to date contributors offer new interdisciplinary autobiographical ethnographic textual postcolonial poststructural and political economic approaches to the practice of cultural studies This edited volume foregrounds twenty five groundbreaking essays plus a provocative foreword and an insightful afterword in which the authors show how globalization is articulated in the micro and macro dimensions of contemporary life pointing to the need for cultural studies to be more systematically engaged with the multiplicity and difference that globalization has proffered

Cultural Analysis, Cultural Studies, and the Law Austin D. Sarat,Jonathan Simon,2003-07-03 This interdisciplinary collection demonstrates the purchase of cultural studies frameworks for thinking about legal questions beyond the reach of the Law Economics framework A Companion to Cultural Studies Toby Miller,2008-04-15 Experts from five continents provide a thorough exploration of cultural studies looking at different ideas places and problems addressed by the field Brings together the latest work in cultural studies and provides a synopsis of critical trends Showcases thirty contributors from five continents Addresses the key topics in the field the relationship of cultural studies to other disciplines and cultural studies around the world Offers a gritty introduction for the neophyte who is keen to find out what cultural studies is and covers in depth debates to satisfy the appetite of the advanced scholar Includes a comprehensive bibliography and a listing of cultural studies websites Now available in paperback for the course market Life and Times of Cultural Studies Richard E.
