Russian Orientalism in a global context Maria Taroutina, Allison Leigh, 2023-06-27 This volume features new research on Russia s historic relationship with Asia and the ways it was mediated and represented in the fine decorative and performing arts and architecture from the mid eighteenth century to the first two decades of Soviet rule It interrogates how Russia s perception of its position on the periphery of the west and its simultaneous self consciousness as a colonial power shaped its artistic cultural and national identity as a heterogenous multi ethnic empire It also explores the extent to which cultural practitioners participated in the discursive matrices that advanced Russia s colonial machinery on the one hand and critiqued and challenged it on the other especially in territories that were themselves on the fault lines between the east and the west Russia's Regional Identities Edith Clowes, Gisela Erbslöh, Ani Kokobobo, 2018-01-17 Contemporary Russia is often viewed as a centralised regime based in Moscow with dependent provinces made subservient by Putin's policies limiting regional autonomy This book however demonstrates that beyond this largely political view by looking at Russia's regions more in cultural and social terms a quite different picture emerges of a Russia rich in variety with different regional identities cultures traditions and memories The book explores how identities are formed and rethought in contemporary Russia and outlines the nature of particular regional identities from Siberia and the Urals to southern Russia from the Russian heartland to the non Russian republics
