Sa Mga Kuko Ng Liwanag In Tagalog:

Martial Law Melodrama José B. Capino, 2020-01-07 Lino Brocka 1939 1991 was one of Asia and the Global South's most celebrated filmmakers. A versatile talent, he was at once a bankable director of genre movies, an internationally acclaimed auteur of social films, a pioneer of queer cinema, and an outspoken critic of Ferdinand Marcos's autocratic regime. Jos B. Capino examines the figuration of politics in the Filipino director's movies, illuminating their historical contexts, allegorical tropes, and social critiques. Combining eye-opening archival research with fresh interpretations of over fifteen of Brocka's major and minor works, Martial Law Melodrama does more than reveal the breadth of his political vision. It also offers a timely lesson about popular cinema's vital role in the struggle for democracy. The Canon in Southeast Asian Literatures David Smyth, 2000 The literary canon is one of the most lively areas of debate in contemporary literary studies. This set of essays is both timely and original in its focus on the canon in South East Asian literatures, covering Burma, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Philippines, Thailand, and Vietnam. They vary in focus from the broad panoramic survey of trends in a national literature to very specific discussions of the role of individuals in shaping a canon or the place of a particular text within a tradition, and from contemporary to traditional literature. They include discussions of the development of prose fiction, censorship, and artistic freedom, the role of westerners in codifying indigenous literatures, the writing of literary history, the development of literary criticism, and indigenous aesthetics. The Chinese Question Caroline S. Hau, 2014-02-28 The rising strength of mainland China has spurred a revival of Chineseness in the Philippines. Perceived during the Cold War era as economically dominant, politically disloyal, and culturally different, the Chinese presented themselves as an integral part of the Filipino imagined community. Today, as Filipinos seek associations with China, many of them see the local Chinese community as key players in East Asian regional economic development. With the revaluing of Chineseness has come a repositioning of Chinese racial and cultural identity. Philippine mestizos, people of mixed ancestry, form an important sub-group of the Filipino elite, but their Chineseness was occluded as they disappeared into the emergent Filipino nation. In the twentieth century, mestizos defined themselves and based claims to privilege on white ancestry, but mestizos are now actively reclaiming their Chinese heritage. At the same time, so-called pure Chinese are parlaying their connections into cultural, social, symbolic, or economic capital, and leaders of mainland Chinese state companies have entered into politico-business alliances with the Filipino national elite. As the meanings of Chinese and Filipino evolve, intractable contradictions are appearing in the concepts of citizenship and national belonging. Through an examination of cinematic and literary works, The Chinese Question shows how race, class, ideology, nationality, territory, sovereignty, and mobility are shaping the discourses of national integration, regional identification, and global cosmopolitanism. Monsoon Marketplace Elmo Gonzaga, 2023-12-05 Provides vivid accounts of commercial and leisure spaces that captivated the public imagination in the past but have since been destroyed, forgotten, or refurbished. Monsoon Marketplace uncovers the entangled vernacular cultures of capitalist modernity mass consumption and media spectatorship in two understudied postcolonial Asian cities across three crucial historical moments Juxtaposing Manila and Singapore it analyzes print and audiovisual representations of popular commercial and leisure spaces during the colonial occupation in the 1930s national development in the 1960s and neoliberal globalization in the 2000s Engaging with the work of creators including Nick Joaquin Kevin Kwan and P Ramlee it discusses figures of female shoppers in 1930s Manila languid expatriates in 1930s Singapore street hawkers in 1960s Singapore youthful activists in 1960s Manila call center agents in 2000s Manila and super rich investors in 2000s Singapore Looking at the historical transformation of Calle Escolta Avenida Rizal Raffles Place and Orchard Road it focuses on Crystal Arcade the Manila Carnival the Great World and New World Amusement Parks and Change Alley all of which had once captivated the public imagination but have since vanished from the cityscape Instead of treating capitalism media and modernity as overarching systems or processes the book examines how their configurations and experiences are contingent variable pluralistic and archipelagic Diverging from critical theories and cultural studies that see consumerism and spectatorship as sources of alienation docility and fantasy it explores how they create new possibilities for agency collectivity and resistance
