Living with Religious Diversity in Early-Modern Europe Dagmar Freist, 2016-12-05 Current scholarship continues to emphasise both the importance and the sheer diversity of religious beliefs within early modern societies Furthermore it continues to show that despite the wishes of secular and religious leaders confessional uniformity was in many cases impossible to enforce As the essays in this collection make clear many people in Reformation Europe were forced to confront the reality of divided religious loyalties and this raised issues such as the means of accommodating religious minorities who refused to conform and the methods of living in communion with those of different faiths Drawing together a number of case studies from diverse parts of Europe Living with Religious Diversity in Early Modern Europe explores the processes involved when groups of differing confessions had to live in close proximity sometimes grudgingly but often with a benign pragmatism that stood in opposition to the will of their rulers By focussing on these themes the volume bridges the gap between our understanding of the confessional developments as they were conceived as normative visions and religious culture at the level of implementation The contributions thus measure the religious policies articulated by secular and ecclesiastical elites against the lived experience of people going about their daily business In doing this the collection shows how people perceived and experienced the religious upheavals of the confessional age and how they were able to assimilate these changes within the framework of their lives Reframing Treaties in the Late Medieval and Early Modern West, 2025-08-02 The history of peacemaking has traditionally been reduced to isolated case studies and seen as the prelude to the presumed universal and modern international order Countering this one dimensional and Eurocentric narrative this multi authored volume reconceptualizes peace treaties as a range of successful and failed agreements settlements truces leagues and other forms of conflict resolution thus recovering their multilayered history throughout the medieval and early modern period Rather than a series of great treaties peacemaking is reframed as a flexible phenomenon a political grammar whose complexity is reflected in its variety of forms and sources Drawing on both diplomatic history and international relations studies this volume traces the central role that peacemaking has played in the political history of the Western World Cosmos and Materiality in Early Modern Prague Suzanna Ivanič, 2021 In the seventeenth century Prague was the setting for a complex and shifting spiritual world By studying the city's material culture this book presents a bold alternative understanding of early modern religion in central Europe Illustrated Religious Texts in the North of Europe, 1500-1800 Prof Dr Els Stronks, Dr Adam Morton, Asst Prof Feike Dietz, Professor Marc Van Vaecck, Ms Lien Roggen, 2014-07-28 Illustrated Religious Texts in the North of Europe 1500 1800 provides a new perspective on the role of visual imagery in the Reformation period by focusing on international forms of collaboration and makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates concerning the history of the book by focusing on the ideological as well as practical side of international contacts A Companion to Multiconfessionalism in the Early Modern World Thomas Max Safley, 2011-06-09 This volume brings together recent scholarship on early modern multiconfessionalism that challenges accepted notions of reformation confessionalization and state building and suggests a new vision of religions state and society in early modern Europe Reformation and Early Modern Europe David M. Whitford, 2007-11-01 Continuing the tradition of historiographic studies this volume provides an update on research in Reformation and early modern Europe Written by expert scholars in the field these eighteen essays explore the fundamental points of Reformation and early modern history in religious studies European regional studies and social and cultural studies Authors review the present state of research in the field new trends key issues scholars are working with and fundamental works in their subject area including the wide range of electronic resources now available to
