Tagore, 2022-11-13 In Sadhana: The Realisation of Life Rabindranath Tagore masterfully explores the intricate relationship between self-realization and the broader universe through a blend of poetic prose and philosophical musings. Written during a period of significant cultural and spiritual awakening in India, the text is imbued with Tagore's characteristic lyrical style, presenting a harmonious fusion of Eastern wisdom and Western thought. He delves into the essence of spirituality, emphasizing the importance of inner awakening and the quest for a deeper understanding of existence, making it not merely a self-help guide but a guiding light for the spiritual seeker. Rabindranath Tagore, the first non-European Nobel laureate in Literature, was profoundly influenced by his upbringing in a family steeped in scholarly traditions and creativity. His experiences with various philosophical teachings, along with the socio-political climate of early 20th-century India, instilled in him a strong desire to bridge the gap between the material and spiritual realms. This pursuit culminated in Sadhana, where he articulates his quest for finding meaning in human life through a union with the cosmos. I recommend Sadhana for readers seeking a profound exploration of spirituality and a reflection on life's purpose. Tagore's graceful prose invites introspection and challenges individuals to embark on their own journeys of self-discovery, making it an essential read for anyone eager to understand their place in the universe. Sādhana; the Realisation of Life Rabindranath Tagore, 1915 Sadhana

Rabindranath Tagore, 2008-08 All the great utterances of man have to be judged not by the letter but by the spirit, the spirit which unfolds itself with the growth of life in history. We get to know the real meaning of Christianity by observing its living aspect at the present moment, however different that may be even in important respects from the Christianity of earlier periods. For western scholars the great religious scriptures of India seem to possess merely a retrospective and arch-logical interest; but to us they are of living importance and we cannot help thinking that they lose their significance when exhibited in labelled cases, mummied specimens of human thought and aspiration preserved for all time in the wrappings of erudition. The meaning of the living words that come out of the experiences of great hearts can never be exhausted by any one system of logical interpretation. They have to be endlessly explained by the commentaries of individual lives, and they gain an added mystery in each new revelation Sadhana Rabindranath Tagore, 2015-07-13 Excerpt from Sadhana The Realisation of Life Perhaps it is well for me to explain that the subject matter of the papers published in this book has not been philosophically treated nor has it been approached from the scholar's point of View The writer has been brought up in a family where texts of the Upanishads are used in daily worship and he has had before him the example of his father who lived his long life in the closest communion with God while not neglecting his duties to the world or allowing his keen interest in all human affairs to suffer any abatement So in these papers it may be hoped western readers will have an opportunity of coming into touch with the ancient spirit of India as revealed in our sacred texts and manifested in the life of today About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
