Transdex Index ,1993 An index to translations issued by the United States Joint Publications Research Service JPRS

The Oxford Handbook of Africa and Economics Célestin Monga,Justin Yifu Lin,2015-07-02 A popular myth about the travails of Africa holds that the continent's long history of poor economic performance reflects the inability of its leaders and policymakers to fulfill the long list of preconditions to be met before sustained growth can be achieved These conditions are said to vary from the necessary quantity and quality of physical and human capital to the appropriate institutions and business environments While intellectually charming and often elegantly formulated that conventional wisdom is actually contradicted by historical evidence and common sense It also suggests a form of intellectual mimicry that posits a unique path to prosperity for all countries regardless of their level of development and economic structure In fact the argument underlining that reasoning is tautological and the policy prescriptions derived from it are fatally teleological low income countries are by definition those where such ingredients are missing None of today's high income countries started its growth process with the required and complete list of growth ingredients Unless one truly believes that the continent of Africa and most developing countries are ruled predominantly if not exclusively by plutocrats with a high propensity for sadomasochism the conventional view must be re examined debated and questioned This volume the second of the Oxford Handbook of Africa and Economics reassesses the economic policies and practices observed across the continent since independence It offers a collection of analyses by some of the leading economists and development thinkers of our time and reflects a wide range of perspectives and viewpoints Africa's emergence as a potential economic powerhouse in the years and decades ahead amply justifies the scope and ambition of the book Food Security in Africa United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Africa and Global Health,2007 West Africa ,1987 The Nile River System, Africa Bakenaz A. Hayward,Mr.George Iden,Mr.Tonny Lybek,Mr.Hassanali Mehran, Mr. Stephen Swaray, Mr. Piero Ugolini, Jean-Pierre Briffaut, 1998-10-01 This study takes stock of progress made so far in the financial sectors of sub-Saharan African countries. OECD, 1999-05-04 Aid activities in Africa provides detailed information on individual commitments, i.e. intended disbursements of Official Development Assistance (ODA) to African countries for the years 1997 and 1998. This yearly publication records the The Law of Energy for Sustainable Development IUCN Academy of Environmental Law.

Colloquium, 2005 The research focus for the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law in 2003 was a timely and challenging one entitled The Law of Energy for Sustainable Development. As contemporary world politics demonstrates, energy resources and generation are crucial issues facing the international community. As research on energy law at the international, regional and national level is in its infancy, the insights provided by the contributors to this 2005 volume are a significant addition to the field. Indexing Structural Distortion: Sectoral Productivity, Structural Change and Growth Sakai Ando, Koffie Ben

Nassar, 2017-09-20 This paper proposes a new index of sectoral labor distortion using employment and value-added shares. We show that this index is highly correlated with growth both cross-sectionally and over time. We also use it to compare the degree of distortion among countries and identify sectors where the potential payoffs in terms of growth from reforms could be large. The regression analysis in the paper shows that education and various structural reforms have potential to improve the efficiency of sectoral labor allocation. The Palgrave Handbook on China-Europe-Africa Relations Yichao Li, Francisco

José B. S. Leandro, Jorge Tavares da Silva, Carlos Rodrigues, 2024 Zusammenfassung This handbook comprehensively covers topics in international relations with a specific focus on China-Europe-Africa relations. This triangular relationship brings substantial contribution for the formation of an emergent new international order. With China being the second largest economy and a growing power in military technology, trade and cultural relations, the book provides decisive research on the key aspects that ground the country's external relations with Europe and Africa. The first three parts of the book cover issues related to strategy, economy and security with specific case studies. In addition, the fourth part not only focuses on China-Europe-Africa but also extends to chapters on multilateralism and relations with other countries, regions and economic communities. In doing so, the book also addresses topics on the Ukraine war, Covid-19, the Belt and Road Initiative, the Global Gateway and the balance of major powers. Yichao Li received her Ph.D. from the Institute for Research on Portuguese Speaking Countries, City University of Macau, China, and a Post-Doc diploma from ISCTE-IUL, Portugal. Currently, she is Assistant Research Fellow at Institute of African Studies, Zhejiang Normal University, China. Francisco José Leandro received his Ph.D. in political science and international relations from the Catholic University of Portugal in 2010. He is currently Associate Professor with Habilitation and Deputy Director of Institute of Global and Public Affairs, University of Macau, China.

and researcher at OBSERVARE UAL and at CEI ISCTE IUL Portugal Jorge Tavares da Silva is an Assistant Professor at the University of Beira Interior Portugal and Associate Researcher at the Public Policy Research Unit on Governance Competitiveness and Public Policy He is a founding member of China Observatory European Association for Chinese Studies Association of Chinese Political Studies and Portuguese Political Science Association Carlos Rodrigues is an Associate Professor at the Department of Social Political and Territorial Sciences of the University of Aveiro Portugal He holds the position of head of department coordinator of the Center for Asian Studies and the Master in Chinese Studies Carlos is also an Associate Researcher at the Public Policy Research Unit on Governance Competitiveness and Public Policy
