Identity in a Hyperconnected Society José Manuel

Muñoz-Rodríguez, 2022-01-01 This book is about the formation of identity primarily in adolescents and the danger inherent in creating that identity in the context of a hyperconnected world. It provides scientific and regulatory pedagogical knowledge associated with these risks in creating identity primarily among young people arising from increasing and increasingly important screen connection times. It proposes solutions to the educational challenges of constructing identity in a hyperconnected society. The book focuses especially on the process of identity formation in this instance where both adolescents and the adults who teach them have forgotten the vital need to incorporate educational theories and principles. novel experimental and basic knowledge any discussion of adolescent identity work.
