Seduction Deception Illusion Truth:

Seduction, Sophistry, and the Woman with the Rhetorical Figure Michelle Ballif, 2001 Ballif questions why the profession wants to retain these beliefs in the face of vociferous arguments from new rhetorics that the discipline no longer posits a foundational self or truth and in the face of the poststructuralist critique which has demonstrated that founding truth is always accomplished by first positing and then negating an other As an alternative to this negative and violent rhetorical process Ballif suggests a turn to sophistry as embodied in the figure of Woman one with the power to seduce us literally to lead astray from our truth and our demand for it BOOK JACKET Baudrillard's Challenge Victoria Grace, 2002-01-04

Thinking in Images Catherine Constable,2019-07-25 Thinking in Images addresses the current crisis in film theory by offering a new methodology for interrelating theory and film texts Drawing on the groundbreaking work of Michele Le Doeuff the author argues that philosophy is reliant on socio cultural images such as the figures of the veiled woman the femme fatale and the seductress The author traces the key role played by such images of woman in the theorisations of beauty art and truth offered by Nietzsche and his successors Derrida Kofman and Baudrillard Importantly the recognition that images are crucial to theorising means that film images have the capacity to challenge and change previous theoretical models This is demonstrated by a case study of three films from the Dietrich Sternberg cycle The Scarlet Empress The Devil is a Woman and Shanghai Express The detailed readings focus on the ways in which Dietrich s glamorous characters challenge the theorisation of woman as a beautiful object thus offering new ways of conceptualising woman s role as the icon of beauty art and truth

Orden Jiménez,Robert Loudon,2017-01-06 This collection highlights the importance of Kant s shorter writings which span the entire intellectual career of this seminal thinker It contrasts with other philosophical studies of Kant s work which typically focus on a specific period of his career and on either his theoretical philosophy or his practical philosophy These shorter works offer a framework for understanding several central questions of critical philosophy in the context of Kant s complete corpus of writings As such this volume provides a ground breaking approach to contemporary Kant studies by offering a new interpretive perspective to enable Kant scholars to advance their research projects At the same time it allows a general overview of Kant s work for a broader non scholarly audience interested in his critical philosophy and its context

Seductive Resistance: The Poetry of Théophile Gautier Constance Gosselin Schick,2023-10-16 Gautier s poetry merits an attentive reading which respects his own essential criterion of poeticity namely textuality This is a poetry which puts on display its literariness that is its existence as cultural artifact In so doing however it also puts on display the absence of and its resistance to whatever personal or real signified it would evoke or name Its beauty and self indulgent pleasure reveal their hollowness and inadequacy Its chiseled polished surface renders its borders or limits and its play unsatisfyingly and teasingly perceptible Its very superficiality allows invites and seduces the reader to go entre les lignes and perceive the mystery not of what has been symbolically buried unburied concealed revealed but of the truly absent the ab mes superficiels Chapter 1 focusing on texts from the Poésies of 1830 studies the intextual repetition of Gautier s poetry the citations imitations and transpositions which make evident the poetry s displacement of the significant and the personal into aesthetic simulacra Chapter 2 deals with the poems of Gautier s second collection Albertus and analyzes the use of allegory and of humor as further markers of textual substitution The inherent lifelessness and illusoriness of the textual artifact is revealed in the poems of La Comédie de la Mort the collection examined in chapter 3 Chapter 4 analyzes the so called descriptive referential poetry of España and finds that the monde extérieur of Gautier s poetry functions to express an absence of self and is itself always shown to be other than the Other The diminution of the poetic effected in Emaux et Camées is the subject of chapter 5 and chapter 6 deals with the contextuality the fetishism and the eroticism revealed in a miscellany of poems in particular the libertine poems which do not figure in Gautier s five major collections By short circuiting significations and transforming them into seductive appearances Gautier reveals himself to be the acknowledged maître of both Baudelaire and Mallarmé
