See And Do Childrens Vincent Van Gogh:

Vincent Van Gogh Ceciel de Bie, Martijn Leenen, 2001 Beautifully designed and illustrated with drawings photographs and reproductions of works of art the See and Do books offer children an ideal and engaging way to explore the lives of these great artists and the works that made them famous A biographical sketch of Van Gogh with fascinating anecdotes and descriptions of how life was lived in his time brings this painter to life while glimpses into his studio combined with simple and clear explanations of how his paintings were created offer young readers a thorough understanding of the working life of this artists Moreover the See and Do books directly engage children in the act of learning by asking questions about the paintings content and style and suggesting activities that will help them truly understand how a painter makes a painting For ages nine to twelve Van Gogh and the Post-Impressionists for Kids Carol Sabbeth, 2011 A collection of artwork for children by Vincent van Gogh and other French artists Children's Culture and the Avant-Garde Marilynn Strasser Olson, 2013-03-05 This volume explores the mutual influences between children s literature and the avant garde Olson places particular focus on fin de si cle Paris where the Avant garde was not unified in thought and there was room for modernism to overlap with children s literature and culture in the Golden Age The ideas explored by artists such as Florence Upton Henri Rousseau Sir William Nicholson Paula Modersohn Becker and Marc Chagall had been disseminated widely in cultural productions for children their work in turn influenced children s culture These artists turned to children s culture as a new way of seeing allied to a contemporary interest in international artistic styles Children s culture also has strong ties to decadence and to the grotesque the latter of which became a distinctively Modernist vision This book visits the qualities of the era that were defined as uniquely childlike the relation of childhood to high and low art and the relation of children s literature to fin de si cle artistic trends Topics of interest include the use of non European figures the Golliwogg approaches to religion and pedagogy to oppression and motherhood to Nature in a post Darwinian world and to vision in art and life Olson s unique focus covers new ground by concentrating not simply on children s literature but on how childhood experiences and culture figure in art Early Childhood Themes Using Art Masterpieces Sandra Fisher, 2001-10

Supporting Children with EAL in the Early Years Judith Harries, 2020-12-16 This book aims to equip early years practitioners with the resources and skills required to create a stimulating learning environment and to fully include EAL children into their settings It provides practical ways to show children and their families that their language and culture are valued and respected so that they can feel secure and accepted There are 49 activities included that focus on different areas of the Expressive Arts and Design goal and help practitioners to develop children s language and communication skills as they play The Letters of Vincent Van Gogh to His Brother, 1872-1886 Vincent van Gogh, 1927 Bloomsbury

Children's Emotions in Europe, 1500 - 1900 Jeroen J. H. Dekker, 2024-04-04 This book gives you the historical sensation of coming face to face with the bodily expression and regulation of children's emotions over time The study does this by encouraging you to look through the eyes of well-known artists like Albrecht Dürer Domenico Ghirlandaio Jan Steen Antony van Dyck Rembrandt and Titian in early modern Europe and Jean Baptiste Siméon Chardin Thomas Lawrence Jean Honor Fragonard Philipp Otto Runge Willem Bartel van der Kooij Paul Gauguin Auguste Renoir and Jozef Israëls in the late 18th and 19th centuries These sources are supplemented by works from less famous artists as well as popular emblem books child advice manuals observations from the emerging child sciences and personal documents Jeroen Dekker observes children's emotions mainly in the child's world and in the domestic emotional space and connects them with history's ongoing underlying discourse on education and the emotions This discourse was developed by theologians philosophers and moralists like Augustine Aquinas Erasmus Descartes Jacob Cats John Locke and Jean Jacques Rousseau by Romantic educationalists like Friedrich Fröbel and Ellen Key and by scientists like Charles Darwin and William James who emphasized the biological instead of the moral fundament of children's emotions The story of children's emotions is told in the context of cultural movements like the Renaissance Humanism the Reformation the Enlightenment Romanticism and the starting Age of Child Science Children's

Emotions in Europe 1500 1900 crucially highlights the continuous co existence of regulation oriented and child oriented educational views on children s emotions

Representations of Art and Art Museums in Children's Picture Books

Perry Nodelman, 2024-10-17 What happens when the assumptions and practices of museum curators and art educators intersect with the assumptions and practices of publishing for children This study explores how over three hundred children s picture books most of them published in the last three decades in English introduce children to art and art museums It considers how the books emerge from and relate to a range of theories and assumptions about childhood and childhood development children s literature and culture illustration visual art museology and art education As well as examining how these theories and assumptions influence what picture books teach young readers about visiting museums and about how to look at and think about art it examines which artists and artworks appear most often in picture books and offers a survey of different kinds of art related picture books ones that claim to be purely informational ones that make looking at art a game or a puzzle ones in which children visit art museums and many more Since the books all include reproductions of or allusions to museum artworks the study also considers the problems illustrators face in depicting museum artworks in illustrations in a different style
