The Arts of Disruption Nicolette Zeeman, 2020-07-22 The monograph series Oxford Studies in Medieval Literature and Culture showcases the plurilingual and multicultural quality of medieval literature and actively seeks to promote research that not only focuses on the array of subjects medievalists now pursue in literature theology and philosophy in social political jurisprudential and intellectual history the history of art and the history of science but also that combines these subjects productively It offers innovative studies on topics that may include but are not limited to manuscript and book history languages and literatures of the global Middle Ages race and the post colonial the digital humanities media and performance music medicine the history of affect and the emotions the literature and practices of devotion the theory and history of gender and sexuality ecocriticism and the environment theories of aesthetics medievalism The Arts of Disruption Allegory and Piers Plowman offers a series of new readings of the allegorical poem Piers Plowman but it is also a book about allegory It argues not just that there are distinctively disruptive arts that occur in allegory but that allegory because it is interested in the difficulty of making meaning is itself a disruptive art The book approaches this topic via the study of five medieval allegorical narrative structures that exploit diegetic conflict and disruption Although very different they all bring together contrasting descriptions of spiritual process in order to develop new understanding and excite moral or devotional change These five structures are the paradiastolic hypocritical figure such as vices masked by being made to look like adjacent virtues personification debate violent language and gestures of apophasis narratives of bodily decline and grail romance Each appears in a range of texts which the book explores along with other connected materials in medieval rhetoric logic grammar spiritual thought ethics medicine and romance iconography These allegorical narrative structures appear radically transformed in Piers Plowman where the poem makes further meaning out of the friction between them Much of the allegorical work of the poem occurs at the points of their intersection and within the conceptual gaps that open up between them Ranging across a wide variety of medieval allegorical texts the book shows from many perspectives allegory's juxtaposition of the heterogeneous and its questioning of supposed continuities The Sale Catalogues of British Government Publications, 1836-1921 Great Britain. Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 1977 Fear and Clothing Jane Custance Baker, 2023-01-26 Through analyzing dress in detective fiction Fear and Clothing reveals a cultural history of identity affected by the social upheaval caused by war In depth analysis of interwar publications by a comprehensive range of writers reveals readers anxieties and fears about class gender and race and how these changed over the period Although read and written by both men and women detective fiction was deemed at the time to be a masculine and high status entertainment However the literature demonstrates an admiration and acceptance of the woman's identity performed during the Great War and continuing throughout the interwar period as girl pal and female gentleman In chapters that explore age character class masculinity performative womanhood and race Jane Custance Baker exposes how dress was a status marker to both male and female readers made anxious by social change brought about by war Dress in detective fiction reveals a set of signs to be read digested and possibly employed to model the individual reader's personal dress choices Fear and Clothing sheds new light on dress of the period the social and cultural environment as depicted in the popular fiction genre in the early 20th century and is of interest to researchers and scholars within dress history literary and historical studies as well as anyone who enjoys the history of detective fiction 2100 Business Books, and Guide to Business Literature Newark Public Library. web since $alc/atc = lc/qc = tc/qc = lc/tc$ we have $lc/20tc$ using the same reasoning $alf/atf = lf/qf = tf/qf = lf/tf$ and since this ratio equals 5 we have $lf = 5tf$ we can solve this algebraically since $l = lc = lf = 600$ and $t = tc = tf = 60$ the solution is $lc = 400$ $tc = 20$ $lf = 200$ and $tf = 40$
