Seeing First Facts:

Phenomenal Consciousness Dimitris Platchias, 2014-12-05 How can the fine grained phenomenology of conscious experience arise from neural processes in the brain How does a set of action potentials nerve impulses become like the feeling of pain in one's experience Contemporary neuroscience is teaching us that our mental states correlate with neural processes in the brain However although we know that experience arises from a physical basis we don't have a good explanation of why and how it so arises The problem of how physical processes give rise to experience is called the hard problem of consciousness and it is the contemporary manifestation of the mind body problem This book explains the key concepts that surround the issue as well as the nature of the hard problem and the several approaches to it It gives a comprehensive treatment of the phenomenon incorporating its main metaphysical and epistemic aspects as well as recent empirical findings such as the phenomenon of blindsight change blindness visual form agnosia and optic ataxia mirror recognition in other primates split brain cases and synaesthesia

The ^AConscious Mind David J. Chalmers, 1996-05-09 Writing in an accessible yet thought provoking style David Chalmers takes us on a far reaching tour through the philosophical ramifications of consciousness Throughout the book Chalmers provides fascinating thought experiments that trenchantly illustrate his ideas as well as thoughtful discussions of how his theories might be practically applied to subjects as diverse as artificial intelligence intelligence and the interpretation of quantum mechanics      Morality and Metaphysics Charles Larmore, 2021-06-17 In this book Charles Larmore develops an account of morality freedom and reason that rejects the naturalistic metaphysics shaping much of modern thought Reason Larmore argues is responsiveness to reasons and reasons themselves are essentially normative in character consisting in the way that physical and psychological facts facts about the world of nature count in favor of possibilities of thought and action that we can take up Moral judgments are true or false in virtue of the moral reasons there are We need therefore a more comprehensive metaphysics that recognizes a normative dimension to reality as well Though taking its point of departure in the analysis of moral judgment this book branches widely into related topics such as freedom and the causal order of the world textual interpretation the nature of the self self knowledge and the concept of duties to ourselves      NEP Political Theory B.A. 1st Sem (MJC-1) Dr. J. this Michigan farmer's son defined the intellectual and spiritual foundations of what would become the environmental movement. For nearly a half century Bailey dominated matters agricultural, environmental and scientific in the United States. He worked both to improve the lives of rural folk and to preserve the land from which they earned their livelihood. Along the way he popularized nature study in U.S. classrooms, lobbied successfully for women's rights on and off the farm and bulwarked Teddy Roosevelt's pioneering conservationism. Here for the first time is an anthology of Bailey's most important writings suitable for the general and scholarly reader alike. Carefully selected and annotated by Zachary Michael Jack, this book offers a comprehensive introduction to Bailey's celebrated and revolutionary thinking on the urgent environmental, agrarian, educational and ecospiritual dilemmas of his day and our own. Culled from ten of Bailey's most influential works, these lyrical selections highlight Bailey's contributions to the nature study and the Country Life movements. Published on the one hundredth anniversary of Bailey's groundbreaking report on behalf of the Country Life Commission, Liberty Hyde Bailey: Essential Agrarian and Environmental Writings will inspire a new generation of nature writers, environmentalists and those who share with Bailey a profound understanding of the elegance and power of the natural world and humanity's place within it.

Quality Control in Fact-Finding Morten Bergsmo, 2013-11-16. This book discusses how fact-finding mechanisms for alleged violations of international human rights, humanitarian and criminal law can be improved. There has been a significant increase in the use of international, internationalised and domestic fact-finding mechanisms since 1992, including by the United Nations human rights system, international commissions of inquiry, truth and reconciliation commissions and NGOs. They are analysed and assessed in detail by 19 authors under the common theme Quality Control in Fact-Finding. The authors include Richard J. Goldstone, Martin Scheinin, LIU Daqun, Charles Garraway, David Re Simon, De Smet FAN, Yuwen Isabelle, Lass e WU Xiaodan, Dan Saxon, Chris Mahony, Dov Jacobs, Catherine Harwood, Lyal S. Sunga, Wolfgang Kaleck, Carolijn Terwindt, Ilia Utmelidze and Marina Aksenova. Serge Brammertz has written the Preface and LING Yan a Foreword. The book emphasises quality awareness and improvement in non-criminal justice fact-work. This quality control approach recognises inter alia the importance of leadership in fact-finding mechanisms, the responsibility of individual fact-finders to continuously professionalise and the need for fact-finders to be mandate-centred. It is an approach that invites the consideration of how the quality of every functional aspect of fact-finding can be improved, including work processes to identify, locate, obtain, verify, analyse, corroborate, summarise, synthesise, structure, organise, present and disseminate facts. The book also considers regulatory approaches to enhance quality and professionalisation.

The Externalist Challenge Richard Schantz, 2011-08-18. The debate between internalism and externalism has become a focal point of attention both in epistemology and in the philosophy of mind and language. Externalism challenges basic traditional internalist conceptions of the nature of knowledge, justification, thought and language. What is at stake is the very form that theories in epistemology and the philosophy of mind ought to take. This volume is a collection of original contributions of leading international authors reflecting on the present state of the art concerning the exciting controversies between internalism and externalism      Fake, Fact, and Fantasy Maire Messenger Davies, 2013-11-05 Based on a study examining the meaning of the term media literacy in children this volume concentrates on audiovisual narratives of television and film and their effects It closely examines children's concepts of real and unreal and how they learn to make distinctions between the two It also explores the idea that children are protected from the harmful effects of violence on television by the knowledge that what they see is not real This volume is unique in its use of children's own words to explore their awareness of the submerged conventions of television genres of their functions and effects of their relationship to the real world and of how this awareness varies with age and other factors Based on detailed questionnaire data and conversations with 6 to 11 year old children carried out with the support of a fellowship at the Annenberg School for Communication University of Pennsylvania the book eloquently demonstrates how children use their knowledge of real life of literature and of art in intelligently evaluating the relationship between television's formats and the real world in which they live      A law dictionary and glossary Alexander M. Burrill, 2022-07-29 Reprint of the original first published in 1871      Judicial and Statutory Definitions of Words and Phrases, 1928      Civil Litigation in Nigeria Abdullahi, Ibrahim, 2018-05-22 This book highlights in a most condensed form judicial pronouncements by the superior courts of records as they relate to practice and procedures in civil litigation in Nigeria Judicial pronouncements on civil aspects of the law in Nigeria are on the increase rendering brief writing more challenging if not herculean in the absence of a resource guide for the citation of authorities and knowing which changes have taken place in the law For lawyers not to be taken by surprise in courts when issues relating to practice and procedures are raised without notice makes the need to have a resource book that should serve as a quick guide the more compelling This book is thus intended to be a reference guide      Resurrection: Faith or Fact? Carl Stecher, Craig L. Blomberg, 2019-04-09 Is there enough evidence to believe Jesus rose from the dead or must such a judgment be based only on faith Can the resurrection story be considered a fact of history or should it be viewed as an ahistorical account Two renowned professors atheist Carl Stecher and Christian Craig Blomberg engage in a groundbreaking new debate on these very questions Other experts on the resurrection atheist Richard Carrier and Christian Peter S Williams comment on the outcome Presenting new approaches to these centuries old questions and taking into account the latest scholarly research Resurrection Faith or Fact is a must have not only for all those following the resurrection question but also for those skeptics and Christians alike who are interested in determining for themselves the truth behind this foundational doctrine of the Christian faith      The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1861      The Law Journal Reports Henry D. Barton, 1879      A Law Dictionary.
