Seeing God Everywhere: Essays On Nature Barry McDonald, 2010-08-01 How do people sense God's presence in created things? Seeing God Everywhere is an anthology of essays on nature and the sacred which address that question. Written by an impressive list of spiritual leaders and thinkers, these essays explore the question from many different perspectives. Reading these essays enriches our inner lives and enlivens our contemplative imaginations. Surely this is the deepest ecology possible. As a special bonus, at the end of each essay is a short poem on nature and the sacred taken from various traditions.

Seeing God Hans Boersma, 2018 Winner of the Christianity Today Book Award in Theology/Ethics 2019 To see God is our heart's desire, our final purpose in life. But what does it mean to see God? And exactly how do we see God with our physical eyes or with the mind's eye? In this informed study of the beatific vision, Hans Boersma focuses on vision as a living metaphor and shows how the vision of God is not just a future but a present reality. Seeing God is both a historical theology and a dogmatic articulation of the beatific vision of how the invisible God becomes visible to us. In examining what Christian thinkers throughout history have written about the beatific vision, Boersma explores how God trains us to see his character by transforming our eyes and minds, highlighting continuity from this world to the next. Christ-centered, sacramental, and ecumenical, Boersma's work presents life as a never-ending journey toward seeing the face of God in Christ, both here and in the world to come.

Seeing God David Nelmes, 2011-08-11 Is God a God of love or a God of fear? I believe God is a God of love, so this book was written to clearly show that God is a God of love and that He does not teach through fear or use fear in any way. The ancient angry, jealous, and fearful God depicted in many writings does not reflect his true image. God is a God of peace. God is a God of harmony. God is a God of everlasting joy.

Seeing God Through Science Barry David Schoub, 2019-08-27 It has been said that science and religion aren't friends Indeed science and scientists are preferably shunned in conservative religious circles Seeing God through Science however emphatically dispels that notion This book compellingly shows how science is in point of fact a potent support for religious faith From the powerful universal biological drives of living organisms to the unimaginable vastness of the universe science cogently frames the fundamental questions of meaning and purpose Answers to these questions however lie outside science It is solely through religious revelation that acceptable answers close the circle of enquiry into truth In addition examples from the sciences of genetics and cosmology illustrate the typical pattern of metascience i.e the process of science which advances toward a frontier only to generate further avenues of exploration but never reaches a finality of knowledge Thus metascience steers enquiry to a supernatural reality answerable only through religious revelation This book shows how modern science is now entering a new phase where what is unattainable by the science of nature constitutes a message to humankind that there exists a supernatural being who created and controls the universe Modern science is now coming to prove God Seeing God in Sufi Qur'an Commentaries Pieter

Allen Hanson, 2010-05 Jesus said Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God Matthew 5:8 The Bible progressively reveals a glorious description of God the Father beginning with Moses in the book of Genesis and ending with what John saw in the book of Revelation The author has done massive research showing that the Bible is full of descriptions of the glory of God This is a unique book one of kind about the visual glory of God It is incredible that nothing has been written about this aspect of the glory of God since one of the basic meanings of glory is visual brilliance and splendor It is true that no man has seen God because He has hidden himself for several reasons Man would die if he saw Him Man would make an idol of Him God desires that man have faith in an unseen God Many theologians maintain that God cannot be seen that He has no face or form because He is spirit invisible and omnipresent The book addresses these concepts Jesus however said that He has seen God and that angels see His face This book should be in the shelves of every seminary Bible school minister's study and in the hand of every person as a help in Bible study or in seeking to know more about God May it inspire every Christian to
