Toward an Aesthetics of Blindness David Feeney, 2007 Blindness has always fascinated those who can see Although modern imaginative portrayals of the sightless experience are increasingly positive the affirmative elements of these renderings are inevitably tempered and problematized by the visual predilections of the artists undertaking them This book explores a variety of the discontinuities between depictions of the sightless experience of beauty by sighted artists and the lived aesthetic experiences of blind people It does so by pressing a radical interdisciplinary reinterpretation of celebrated dramatic portrayals of blindness into service as a tool with which to probe the boundaries of the capacities of the sighted imagination while exploring the sensory detriment of our visually fixated notions of beauty Works by J M Synge W B Yeats and Brian Friel are explored as a means of crafting a workable and innovative medium of theoretical and experiential exchange between the disciplines of literature aesthetics and disability studies In addition to appraising previously unexamined aspects of the work of three of Ireland's most celebrated modern dramatists this book considers the consequences for blind people of the exclusionary and prohibitive elements of traditional aesthetic theory and art education The insights yielded will be of value to those with an interest in modern literature differential aesthetics visual culture perception and the experience of blindness

The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design Graeme Brooker, Lois Weinthal, 2013-10-24 The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design offers a compelling collection of original essays that seek to examine the shifting role of interior architecture and interior design and their importance and meaning within the contemporary world Interior architecture and interior design are disciplines that span a complexity of ideas ranging from human behaviour and anthropology to history and the technology of the future Approaches to designing the interior are in a constant state of flux reflecting and adapting to the changing systems of history culture and politics It is this process that allows interior design to be used as evidence for identifying patterns of consumption gender identity and social issues The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design provides a pioneering overview of the ideas and arrangements within the two disciplines that make them such important platforms from which to study the way humans interact with the space around them Covering a wide range of thought and research the book enables the reader to investigate fully the changing face of interior architecture and interior design while offering questions about their future trajectory The Holocaust and Australian Journalism Fay Anderson,2024-03-18 This book explores the Australian press reporting of the persecution and genocide of European Jews and the extent to which the news of the Holocaust was known and believed revealed and hidden and acknowledged and minimised Spanning the coverage of Hitler s political ascent in the 1920s through to the Nazis extermination campaign it culminates in the accounts of the trials of Nazi war criminals and the post war transnational migration to Australia of Holocaust survivors to a country far from universally welcoming in its reception of them The book also tells the story of the journalists who reported on these tragic events and the editors who published them along with the political social and cultural context in which they worked in an environment influenced by exclusionary ideas about race and nationality that did not necessarily inspire sympathy for Jews and their trauma This book sheds light on the ethics of reporting human suffering violence and genocide and centrally on the role of the press in shaping Australia s collective memory of the Holocaust It encourages readers to think critically about media power public apathy advocacy and the importance of truth Disturbing evidence of increasing antisemitism in Australia as elsewhere along with continuing Holocaust denial provide an additional urgency to this study Imagining London John Clement Ball,2004-01-01 Imagining London examines representations of the English metropolis in Canadian West Indian South Asian and second generation black British novels written in the last half of the twentieth century Curiosity Barbara M. Benedict,2001 Finely illustrated and the first of its kind Curiosity is a broad study of modern inquiry that explores the way forbidden topics like the occult sexuality gender and the origin of power became topics of public investigation BOOK JACKET The Art of the Sacred Graham Howes,2006-11-24 The field of art and religion is fast becoming one of the most dynamic areas of religious studies Uniquely The Art of the Sacred explores the relationship between religion and the visual arts and vice versa within Christianity and other major religious traditions It identifies and describes the main historical theological sociological and aesthetic dimensions of religious art with particular attention to popular as well as high culture and within societies of the developing world It also attempts to locate and predict the forms and functions of such art in a changing contemporary context of obligation modernity secularism and fundamentalism The author concentrates on four chief dimensions where religious art and religious belief converge the iconographic the didactic the institutional and the aesthetic This clear well organised and imaginative treatment of the subject should prove especially attractive to students of religion and visual culture as well as to artists and art historians An Introduction to Visual Culture Nicholas Mirzoeff,2023-07-19 In the fully rewritten third edition of this classic text Nicholas Mirzoeff introduces visual culture as visual activism or activating the visible In this view visual culture is a practice a way of doing making and seeing The 12 new chapters begin with five foundational concepts including Indigenous ways of seeing visual activism in the wake of slavery and unfixing the gaze The second section outlines three currently successful tactics of visual activism removal of statues and monuments restitution of cultural property and practices of repair and reparations The final section addresses catastrophe and trauma from Palestine s Nakba to the climate disaster and the intersections of plague and war Each section also includes new in depth case studies called Visualizations ranging from oil painting to Kongo power figures and the mediated practice of taking a knee Engaging with questions of racializing colonialism and undoing gender throughout this edition maps the activist turn in the field since 2014 and sets directions for its future expansion This is a key text in visual culture studies and an essential resource for research and teaching in the field
