Macionis, Nijole V. Benokraitis, Peter Urmetzer, Bruce Ravelli, 2009-03-18 Seeing Ourselves is the only reader that systematically weaves together three types of articles classic contemporary and cross cultural Classic articles will provide you with sociological statements of recognized importance and lasting significance Contemporary articles focus on current sociological issues controversies and applications They will show you the real world of sociologists at work and demonstrate the importance of on going research Cross cultural articles cast sociological insights about the world s striking cultural diversity Together these articles offer the most comprehensive coverage of any sociology reader      Social Psychology Kopano Ratele, Norman Duncan, 2003 Using current socio political thought and research this book examines topics such as violence social and political transition race and racism and sexualities Theoretical and empirical research are related to topical problems highlighting the complex relations of individuals to their societies and to one another The histories and complexities of problems and their interconnectedness are examined and possible solutions are suggested Special attention is paid to class sexuality gender and race making psychology in general and social psychology in particular relevant and exciting      The Gendered Transaction of Whiteness Tenisha L. Tevis, Naomi W. Nishi, Mara Lee Grayson, 2023-12-29 This book considers the causes and effects of an education field that remains white and gendered and critically examines how the race gendered power afforded to white women in educational spaces is transacted through instructional practices and interpersonal interactions White women occupy a complex position in society within systems of white supremacy and patriarchy participating as both oppressors and oppressed Emphasizing the consequences of whiteness for educational professionals and students of all racial identities the chapters in this book offer strategies for identifying and moving beyond the gendered transaction of whiteness including what white women can do instead and how all educators can work toward transformative antiracist education      Education and the Family Timothy J. Madigan, Sampson Lee Blair, 2025-05-21 Chapters cover topics such as family economic and cultural resources and school performance and attainment of students family multilingualism and academic success family stressors and education valuation of higher education versus employment and family contestations of public schooling and its policies and curriculum among others      Friendship and Fellowship in the Local Church Dr. L. Vega-Sanabria, 2023-05-22 After a teaching career of more than thirty years having taught across all grade levels and a broad range of subject areas

Friendship and Fellowship in the Local Church a 21st Century Perspective is a product of an encompassing ministry experience in the local church for both Spanish speaking and English speaking congregations as a teacher deacon and pianist a research based study with a pragmatic and practical view on the needs of one of the most unrecognized and misunderstood populations those of the inmate believers The Gospel message is clear and the members of the body of Christ have a responsibility to encourage one another and build each other up 1 Thessalonians 5 11 NIV The message of our Lord Jesus Christ is as real today as it was centuries ago I tell you open your eyes and look at the fields They are ripe for harvest John 4 35 NIV Believer inmates are members of the body of Christ their conversions are real their transformations are evident and their faith is strong Yet they too need the support of other members of the body of Christ for the Holy Spirit works through each member as he or she is gifted in order to address and attend to the unique needs of the incarcerated believer inmates Hear their silent cries as they are revealed in the Friendship and Fellowship in the Local Church a 21st Century Perspective The Gospel of John states the reason Jesus visited Samaria Now he had to go through Samaria John 4 4 NIV And in NKJV it states He needed to go through Samaria For Jesus it was a need Jesus knew the importance of reaching out to those who were marginalized who were ostracized and who were highly criticized and judged They had been abandoned but Jesus had other plans Later he met the Samaritan woman and through her her village and her town received the Good News about the Messiah Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman s testimony John 4 39 NIV His own disciples were blind to this need they were subject to the day s misconceptions and misinterpretations and biases Later Jesus pronounces one of the most significant statements of the Gospel message I tell you open your eyes and look at the fields They are ripe for harvest John 4 35 NIV Friendship and Fellowship in the Local Church a 21st Century Perspective is a call to reach a group of people that have been abandoned and rejected to address their needs spiritual social emotional and psychological It is like Jesus said A field ripe for the harvest It is an eye opener a pioneer research study addressing the needs of one of the most deserted and neglected populations considering it covers a topic difficult to discuss and is of much controversy Paul said Remember my chains Colossians 4 18 NIV When Jesus was accused of associating with those that were outcasts his reply was For I have not come to call the righteous but sinners Matthew 9 13 NIV

Sociology After Bosnia and Kosovo Keith Doubt, 2000 This book provides a sociological account of the events in Bosnia in the 1990s including ethnic cleansing mass rape and the role of political journalists Drawing upon a diverse group of social theorists including Merton Weber and Baudrillard Sociology After Bosnia constructs a social understanding of the experiences of people in Bosnia and the response of Western leaders to these experiences Beyond looking at the social causes of these events Doubt sheds light on why Bosnia and Kosovo have largely been ignored by sociologists He shows why the personal and social tragedies of people in Bosnia and Kosovo and the world s tolerance of these tragedies challenge contemporary sociological knowledge Doubt argues that sociologists must be willing not only to recognize this challenge but also to respond to it in order to construct meaningfully adequate accounts of war and genocide in a postmodern era Doing so he contends may yield an important and needed reconsideration of the existing body of sociological knowledge and a revision of how this knowledge is applied

The Model Black Barbara Banda, 2022-06-27 This book is for anyone who wants to understand what being more inclusive at work means especially as it relates to black leaders It is intended for those people who are saying I don't know where to start I don't know what to do and I don't know what to say when understanding and talking about race at work Based on candid interviews with 30 successful black leaders it peels away the multifaceted layers of black British leaders in organisations to offer a new way of thinking about the black British experience This book provides the insights and ideas required to have positive conversations about race at work and to create work environments where black leaders can thrive In identifying the attributes and behaviours that successful black leaders have in common this book offers new ways of thinking about black people at work that help to further inclusion It shines a light on the daily reality of being a black leader in the workplace providing an alternative entry point for conversations around inclusion and explores what individuals and organisations can do to increase inclusion in the workplace Through first hand stories this book explores the challenges compromises struggles and successes that black people encounter and the range of strategies they employ to achieve success as they navigate the white workplace It is essential reading for business leaders in the private public and third sector human resources professionals students anyone teaching or mentoring black students or leaders and everyone interested in understanding race and furthering inclusion in the workplace

General Education Essentials Paul Hanstedt, 2012-04-25 General Education Essentials Full time and part time faculty in any discipline and at any size campus with any type of mission can pick up this volume and learn something that will help her or him improve teaching and learning From the Foreword by Terrel L Rhodes vice president for Curriculum Quality and Assessment Association of American Colleges and Universities Every year hundreds of small colleges state schools and large research oriented universities across the United States and increasingly Europe and Asia revisit their core and general education curricula often moving toward more integrative models And every year faculty members who are highly skilled in narrowly defined fields ask two simple questions Why and How is this going to affect me General Education Essentials seeks to answer these and other questions by providing a much needed overview of and a rationale for the recent shift in general education curricular design a sense of how this shift can affect a faculty member's teaching and an understanding of how all of this might impact course and student assessment Filled with examples from a variety of disciplines that will spark insights General Education Essentials explores the techniques that can be used to ensure that students are gaining the skills they need to be perceptive scholars and productive citizens This is THE ONE BOOK for academics to get up to speed about reforming general education Jerry Gaff senior scholar Association of American Colleges and Universities

Maid in the USA Mary Romero, 2016-05-13 This is a classic work in the fields of Women's Studies and Sociology On its 10th Anniversary it is still a vital and moving study of the lives of immigrant domestic workers and is constantly cited in the research Romero's new introduction will offer a fresh look at the material including more recent events proving that the issues discussed in the book are still very relevant to today's world

Muslim Diaspora in the West Haideh Moghissi, Halleh Ghorashi, 2016-04-29 In view of the growing influence of religion in public life on the national and international scenes Muslim Diaspora in the West constitutes a timely contribution to scholarly debates and a response to concerns raised in the West about Islam and Muslims within diaspora It begins with the premise that diasporic communities of Islamic cultures while originating in countries dominated by Islamic laws and religious practices far from being uniform are in fact shaped in their existence and experiences by a complex web of class ethnic gender religious and regional factors as well as the cultural and social influences of their adopted homes Within this context this volume brings together work from experts within Europe and North America to explore the processes that shape the experiences and challenges faced by migrants and refugees who originate in countries of Islamic cultures Presenting the latest research from a variety of locations on both sides of The Atlantic Muslim Diaspora in the West addresses the realities of diasporic life for self identified Muslims addressing questions of integration rights and equality before the law and challenging stereotypical views of Muslims As such it will appeal to scholars with interests in race and ethnicity cultural media and gender studies and migration
