Seeking Common Ground:

Seeking Common Ground Andrew Fiala, Peter Admirand, 2021-08-26 Seeking Common Ground is a dialogue between an atheist philosopher and a Catholic theologian. It is about religion and nonreligion as well as about dialogue itself. The book provides a framework for dialogue grounded in seven key values: Harmony, Courage, Humility, Curiosity, Honesty, Compassion, and Honor. Unlike typical debates about religion and atheism, Fiala and Admirand show that atheists and theists can work together on projects of mutual understanding. They explore the terrain of religion and nonreligion, discussing a range of sources, topics, issues, and concerns, including adventures in interfaith dialogue, challenging ethical issues, problems interpreting biblical texts, the growth of secularism, and the importance of ritual and community. The authors show that it is possible to disagree about religion while also seeking common ground. The book includes a foreword by Rabbi Jack Moline, president of the U.S. Interfaith Alliance.

Seeking Common Ground Donna Gabaccia, 1992-10-30 This book is the first interdisciplinary reader focusing on immigrant women in the United States. Part I includes three chapters by a historian, a sociologist, and an anthropologist summarizing the way research on immigrant women has developed in the three disciplines. Parts II and III focusing on Immigrant Women of the Past and Immigrant Women Since 1920 provide empirical and interpretive essays on immigrant women from Europe, Latin America, and Asia. The chapters explore such themes as women in the migration process, the role of gender in the creation of American ethnic identities, and the comparability of today's immigrant women with those of the past. Seeking Common Ground is the first interdisciplinary reader focusing on immigrant women in the United States. By providing a basis for comparison between both different ethnic groups and different disciplinary approaches, the volume aims to encourage interdisciplinary communication and research. After the editor's introduction, the volume begins with three chapters: Part I by a historian, a sociologist, and an anthropologist summarizing the way research on immigrant women has developed in the three disciplines; Parts II and III focusing on Immigrant Women of the Past and Immigrant Women Since 1920, providing empirical and interpretive essays on immigrant women from Europe, Latin America, and Asia. The chapters explore such themes as women in the migration process, the role of gender in the creation of American ethnic identities, and the comparability of today's immigrant women with those of the past. The work will be of interest to individuals from all disciplines who are concerned with women's studies in general and immigrant women in particular.

National Image Xiangfei Meng, 2020-03-12 This book introduces researchers, students, and the general public to an intriguing phenomenon at the intersection of diverse fields: national branding. In particular, it uses representative cases, particularly to show how China responded to major challenges not only in the distant past but also especially in our hectic age of national image construction. By pursuing an interdisciplinary socio-historical approach, the book sheds new light on the role of cultural symbols in national image building. As such, readers will learn how China has exploited its black and white tradition, calligraphy, and painting in the construction of a national image.

Advanced Interviewing Techniques Jack Schafer,Joe Navarro,2022-12-29 Law enforcement officers face difficult challenges in light of the new social environment in which they must work With additional public scrutiny on police tactics and interviewing methods new techniques must be developed to address the changing political and social landscape Interviewing and interrogating methods must change in concert with the increased focus on community policing and the public demand to take a softer approach to interviewing and interrogation The new edition of this book presents positive interviewing techniques to conduct less intrusive non threatening interviews and interrogations without forfeiting investigative integrity Positive interviewing techniques focus on rapport building which serves as the keystone for successful interviews and interrogations. Suspects and witnesses who like the people who are interviewing them are more likely to confess or provide information of value. Positive interviewing relies on psychological principles instead of threats and coercion to obtain needed information. The psychological principles presented in this book derive from proven psychological research and have been proven effective in the field. As with the previous book editions, this edition was written with working professionals in mind and contains advanced interviewing techniques. Some basic topics emphasized in other interviewing books will not be addressed. This book was designed as a quick reference guide rather than a comprehensive manual. The enhanced outline format of the text and the extended Table of Contents provide for easy reference reading and comprehension. The marketplace is replete with interviewing books and manuals; however, quickly locating information buried in thick manuscripts is costly and time consuming. The style of this book is consistent with the manner in which law enforcement officers like to receive information quickly, authoritatively, and to the point.
