Seeking Shelter On The Pacific Rim Financial Globalization Social Change And The Housing Market:

Seeking Shelter on the Pacific Rim Gary Dymski, Dorene Isenberg, 2002 This work analyzes the changes that financial globalization is bringing about in the housing and home finance markets of the USA Japan and South Korea with special attention to the gender inequality

Seeking Shelter on the Pacific Rim Gary Dymski, Dorene Isenberg, 2018-10-24 This innovative book analyzes the changes that financial globalization is bringing about in the housing and home finance markets of the United States Japan and South Korea with special attention to the circumstances of women in obtaining housing credit and personal security The book's focus on changes in the residential and housing finance markets serves as a window for an integrated examination of how the liberalization of national financial markets has affected the relationship among all players in each of the three economies government markets and individual citizens Through this examination Housing Finance Futures develops a new critical response to economic globalization based on a groundbreaking concept the social efficiency of policy and market shifts

Housing and Social Transition in Japan Yosuke Hirayama, Richard Ronald, 2006-11-24 A comprehensive challenging and theoretically developed account of the dynamic role of the housing system during a period of unprecedented social and economic change in Japan

Financing Urban Shelter, 2005

Financing Urban Shelter Un-Habitat, 2013-06-17 Achieving the goals set by world leaders in the United Nations Millennium Declaration will be difficult without a significant improvement in the lives of slum dwellers and the lives of slum dwellers cannot be improved without the sound and sustainable economic development that is conducive to the establishment of a strong shelter sector As Financing Urban Shelter Global Report on Human Settlements 2005 emphasizes one of the key challenges in meeting the Millennium Declaration Goal on slums is mobilization of the financial resources necessary for both slum upgrading and slum prevention by supplying new housing affordable to lower income groups on a large scale It is my hope that by highlighting the impacts of current shelter financing systems on low income households and by identifying the types of financing mechanisms that appear to have worked for them this report will contribute to the efforts of the wide range of actors involved in improving the lives of slum dwellers including governments at the central and local levels as well as non governmental and international organizations From the Foreword by KOFI ANNAN Secretary General United Nations Financing Urban Shelter presents the first global assessment of housing finance systems placing shelter and urban development challenges within the overall context of macroeconomic policies The report describes and analyses housing finance conditions and trends in all regions of the world including formal housing finance mechanisms microfinance and community funding highlighting their relevance to the upgrading of slums Recent shelter finance policy development is discussed at the international and national levels and the directions that could be taken to strengthen shelter finance systems are examined The Global Report on Human Settlements is the most authoritative and up to date assessment of conditions and trends in the world's cities It is an essential tool and reference for researchers academics public authorities and civil society organizations around the world

The preceding issues of the Global Report on Human Settlements have addressed such topics as An Urbanizing World Cities in a Globalizing World and The Challenge of Slums Published with UN HABITAT

The Role of Government in the Housing Market, 2008

The Financialization of Housing Manuel B. Aalbers, 2016-05-05 Due to the financialization of housing in today s market housing risks are increasingly becoming financial risks Financialization refers to the increasing dominance of financial actors markets practices measurements and narratives It also refers to the resulting structural transformation of economies firms states and households This book asserts the centrality of housing to the contemporary capitalist political economy and places housing at the centre of the financialization debate A global wall of money is looking for High Quality Collateral HQC investments and housing is one of the few asset classes considered HQC This explains why housing is increasingly becoming financialized but it does not explain its timing politics and geography Presenting a diverse range of case studies from the US the UK the Netherlands Germany Italy and Spain the chapters in this book include coverage of the role of the state as the driver of financialization processes and the part played by local and national histories and institutions This cutting edge volume will pave the way for future research in the area Where housing used to be something local or national the two way coupling of housing to finance has been one crucial element in the recent crisis It is time to reconsider the financialization of both homeownership and social housing This book will be of interest to those who study international economics economic geography and financialization

New Economics as Mainstream Economics Malcolm Sawyer, 2011-05-27 This volume deals with both a new theoretical framework and the capability of new economics to tackle a number of economic problems It offers detailed analysis and informed comment on the type of new economics emerging in the aftermath of the financial crisis and the great recession

Globalizing Taipei Reginald Kwok, 2006-05-11 Taipei s quest to become a global city is the key to its urban development Globalizing Taipei looks at this Asian Dragon a major city in the South China Growth Triangle and a centre for transnational production revealing how the development of this capital has received firm state support but is conditioned by international and domestic politics The book is divided into four parts economic and spatial restructuring state and society realignment social differentiation and cultural reorientation Each analyzes the interaction of international state and local politics in the shaping of the city s urban environment since World War II All contributors to this edited volume are Taiwan scholars presenting critical insiders views Based on each author s specialization and research focus each chapter provides an in depth consideration of one of Taipei s developmental issues generated by globalization Collectively they provide broad insightful and coherent coverage of this crucial time in Taipei s global transmutation Financialization and the World Economy Gerald A. Epstein,2005-01-01 The final section offers ideas for policy responses including capital controls and securities transaction taxes BOOK JACKET The Making of Urban Japan André Sorensen,2005-08-19 During the twentieth century Japan was transformed from a poor primarily rural country into one of the world s largest industrial powers and most highly urbanised countries Interestingly while Japanese governments and planners borrowed carefully from the planning ideas and methods of many other countries Japanese urban planning urban governance and cities developed very differently from those of other developed countries Japan s distinctive patterns of urbanisation are partly a product of the highly developed urban system urban traditions and material culture of the pre modern period which remained influential until well after the Pacific War A second key influence has been the dominance of central government in urban affairs and its consistent prioritisation of economic growth over the public welfare or urban quality of life Andr Sorensen examines Japan s urban trajectory from the mid nineteenth century to the present paying particular attention to the weak development of Japanese civil society local governments and land development and planning regulations Housing and the New Welfare State Richard Groves,2016-04-29 The changing nature and significance of housing provision within welfare states is considered in this timely book With housing playing an increasingly important role in welfare provision the new welfare state emerging in different parts of the world is being developed in the context of individual asset accumulation and the private ownership of housing Housing and the New Welfare State shows that housing is becoming critical to asset based welfare not only in Western Europe but also in the six East Asian housing systems that are a major focus of the book Chapters by leading East Asian scholars provide analysis of housing policies in Singapore Hong Kong Korea Japan China and Taiwan Also examined are the four worlds of welfare and housing the causes and consequences of the shift from tenants to home owners in the old welfare states of Britain and other parts of Western Europe and the growth of the property owning welfare state as a theme running through contemporary policy in both East Asia and Europe International Perspectives on Suburbanization N. Phelps,F. Wu,2011-09-13 New urban developments such as office blocks warehouses and retail complexes are increasingly common in outer city regions across the world This book examines the processes of post suburbanization in international perspective exploring how developments across the world might be considered post suburban Capitalism, Macroeconomics and Reality James Crotty,2017-04-28 The essays comprising this collection analyze the deep flaws in the methodological foundation of mainstream economic theory and explain how these flaws make mainstream economics more ideology than sound social science James Crotty develops alternative theories built on realistic assumptions that can explain most of the disastrous economic and financial developments of the past four decades His work contributes to the collective creation of a solid theoretical foundation on which to build an understanding of the laws of motion of capitalism in the post WWII era The Handbook of the Political Economy of Financial Crises Martin H.

Wolfson, Gerald A. Epstein, 2013-02-21 The Great Financial Crisis that began in 2007 2008 reminds us with devastating force that financial instability and crises are endemic to capitalist economies This Handbook describes the theoretical institutional and historical factors that can help us understand the forces that create financial crises Living Cities in Japan André Sorensen, Carolin Funck, 2007-08-07 Over the last fifteen years local citizens movements have spread rapidly throughout Japan This volume examines the growth and nature of civil society participation in local urban and environmental governance
