

Genesis

The Beginning

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. 2 Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

3 And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. 4 God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness. 5 God called the light "day," and the darkness he called "night." And there was evening, and there was morning—the first day. 6 And God said, "Let there be an expanse between the waters to separate water from water." 7 So God made the expanse and separated the waters that were under the expanse from the waters that were above the expanse. 8 God called the expanse "sky." And he said, "Let the waters under the sky be full of living creatures, and let birds be filled with life." 9 And God created the great whales and every living creature that moves in the water, and every winged bird according to its kind. 10 And God blessed them and said, "Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the water in the seas, and let birds be fruitful and increase in number; be fruitful and increase in number on the earth."

11 And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds." 12 And God created the great land animals according to their kinds, and every wild animal according to its kind. 13 And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds." 14 And God created the wild animals according to their kinds, and every domestic animal according to its kind, and every wild animal according to its kind. 15 And God blessed them and said, "Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth, and let them be fruitful and increase in number on the earth."
