the intrusion of theological understandings has become harder to resist it offers a narrative of belief following the direction of an exemplary portent the finger Through the exploration of broad trends in culture and modern history this study informed by interactionist thought examines both the place of sociology in Christian theology and the failure of theology to connect to its surrounding culture asking how the two disciplines might meld profitably together As such it will appeal to social theorists and theologians as well as sociologists with interests in religion culture and secularisation fundamentalism Religion is permeating western culture in many different forms from contemporary continental philosophy the arts and the media to the rhetoric of international politicians This collection of essays brings together a unique collection of voices from theology aesthetics social and political science philosophy and cultural theory in an exploration of four major aspects of this new visibility of religion the revision of the secularisation thesis the relationship between religion and violence the new re enchantment of reality and the return of metaphysics The exploration is conducted through essays by and interviews with figures at the forefront of reflecting upon this major cultural shift and its implications It is distinctively multidisciplinary examining the phenomenon of the rise of religion in Western Europe from a number of interrelated perspectives
