Hollywood's War with Poland, 1939-1945 M.B.B. Biskupski, 2010-01-08 This passionate carefully researched richly detailed well written study reveals the political motives behind WWII Hollywood's portrayal of Poles Choice During World War II Hollywood studios supported the war effort by making patriotic movies designed to raise the nation's morale Often the characterizations were as black and white as the movies themselves Americans and their allies were heroes while everyone else was a villain The peoples of Norway France Czechoslovakia and England were all good because they had been invaded or victimized by Nazi Germany Yet Poland the first country to be invaded by the Third Reich was repeatedly represented in a negative light In this prize winning study Polish historian M B B Biskupski explores why Biskupski presents a close critical study of prewar and wartime films such as To Be or Not to Be In Our Time and None Shall Escape Through memoirs letters diaries and memoranda written by screenwriters directors studio heads and actors Biskupski examines how the political climate and especially pro Soviet sentiment influenced Hollywood films of the time Winner of the Oscar Halecki Prize A Choice Outstanding Academic Title

Kinds of American Film Comedy Wes D. Gehring,2024-01-30 This groundbreaking film study begins with a survey of American print humorists from eras leading up to and overlapping the advent of film including some who worked both on the page and on the screen like Robert Benchley Will Rogers Groucho Marx and W C Fields Six comic film genres are identified as outgrowths of a national tradition of Cracker Barrel philosophers personality comedy parody screwball comedy romantic comedy and dark comedy Whether it is Mark Twain or a parody film involving Steve Martin comedy is most often about blowing raspberries at the world and a reminder you are not alone

Movie Comedians of the 1950s Wes D. Gehring,2016-11-03 The 1950s were a transitional period for film comedians The artistic suppression of the McCarthy era and the advent of television often resulted in a dumbing down of motion pictures Cartoonist turned director Frank Tashlin contributed a funny but cartoonish effect through his work with comedians like Jerry Lewis and Bob Hope A new vanguard of comedians appeared without stock comic garb or make up fresh faces not easily pigeonholed as merely comedians such as Tony Randall

Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis Some traditional comedians like Charlie Chaplin Red Skelton and Danny Kaye continued their shtick though with some evident tweaking This book provides insight into a misunderstood decade of film history with an examination of the personality comedians The talents of Dean Martin and Bob Hope are reappraised and the dumb blonde stereotype as applied to Judy Holliday and Marilyn Monroe is deconstructed Will Cuppy, American Satirist Wes D. Gehring, 2013-10-11 Back in the golden age of humor books late 1920s early 1950s when wits of the pantheon like Robert Benchley James Thurber and S J Perelman were producing their signature works there was another singular satirist who more than held his own with such fast company Will Cuppy 1884 1949 This factual funnyman s metier is dark comedy that flirts with nihilism His agenda is baldly stated in such classic Cuppy book titles as How to Be a Hermit 1929 How to Tell Your Friends from the Apes 1931 and The Decline and Fall of Practically Everybody 1950 This biography doubles as a critical study of a satirist whose shish kebabbing of humanity was often done through the veiled anthropomorphic use of animals For a biographer Will Cuppy represents a treasure trove of possibilities He was a great humorist and most of his best work is still in print but until now he has never been the subject of a book length study His mesmerizingly complex and eccentric private life almost trumps the comic accomplishments of his public persona Dialectics without Synthesis Naoki Yamamoto, 2020-08-25 Dialectics without Synthesis explores Japan s active but previously unrecognized participation in the global circulation of film theory during the first half of the twentieth century Examining a variety of Japanese theorists working in the fields of film literature avant garde art Marxism and philosophy Naoki Yamamoto offers a new approach to cinematic realism as culturally conditioned articulations of the shifting relationship of film to the experience of modernity In this study long held oppositions between realism and modernism universalism and particularism and most notably the West and the non West are challenged through a radical reconfiguration of the geopolitics of knowledge production and consumption Eye of the Century Francesco Casetti, 2008-05-14 Is it true that film in the twentieth century experimented with vision more than any other art form And what visions did it privilege In this brilliant book acclaimed film scholar Francesco Casetti situates the cinematic experience within discourses of twentieth century modernity He suggests that film defined a unique gaze not only because it recorded many of the century s most important events but also because it determined the manner in which they were received Casetti begins by examining film s nature as a medium in an age obsessed with immediacy nearness and accessibility He considers the myths and rituals cinema constructed on the screen and in the theater and how they provided new images and behaviors that responded to emerging concerns ideas and social orders Film also succeeded in negotiating the different needs of modernity comparing and uniting conflicting stimuli providing answers in a world torn apart by conflict and satisfying a desire for everydayness as well as lightness in people s lives The ability to communicate the power to inform and the capacity to negotiate these are the three factors that defined film s function and outlook and made the medium a relevant and vital art form of its time So what kind of gaze did film create

Film cultivated a personal gaze intimately tied to the emergence of point of view but also able to restore the immediacy of the real a complex gaze in which reality and imagination were combined a piercing gaze achieved by machine and yet deeply anthropomorphic an excited gaze rich in perceptive stimuli but also attentive to the spectator's orientation and an immersive gaze which gave the impression of being inside the seen world while also maintaining a sense of distance Each of these gazes combined two different qualities and balanced them The result was an ever inventive synthesis that strived to bring about true compromises without ever sacrificing the complexity of contradiction As Casetti demonstrates film proposed a vision that in making opposites permeable modeled itself on an oxymoronic principle In this sense film is the key to reading and understanding the modern experience

Music, Sound and Filmmakers James Eugene Wierzbicki, 2012 Music Sound and Filmmakers Sonic Style in Cinema is a collection of essays that examine the work of filmmakers whose concern is not just for the eye but also for the ear The bulk of the text focuses on the work of directors Wes Anderson Ingmar Bergman the Coen brothers Peter Greenaway Krzysztof Kiełowski Stanley Kubrick David Lynch Quentin Tarantino Andrei Tarkovsky and Gus Van Sant Significantly the anthology includes a discussion of films administratively controlled by such famously sound conscious producers as David O Selznick and Val Lewton Written by the leading film music scholars from Europe North America and Australia Music Sound and Filmmakers Sonic Style in Cinema will complement other volumes in Film Music coursework or stand on its own among a body of research
