and humanities and social sciences Yoga and the Luminous Christopher Key Chapple, 2008-10-30 Winner of the 2008 Rajinder and Jyoti Gandhi Book Award for Excellence in Dharma Studies presented by Taksha Institute In Yoga and the Luminous a book that emerges from more than thirty years of practice study and reflection Christopher Key Chapple addresses the need for an accessible explanation of Yoga's difficult philosophy and its applications in daily life Yoga practice takes an individual on an inward journey and through Yoga one enters a rarefied state of consciousness a transparency and luminosity described by its great philosopher Patanjali as being like a clear jewel Exploring Yoga through the prism of practice Chapple begins with a historical overview of the many Yogic traditions in Indian religions He continues with Yoga practice and the philosophy of Sankhya and then in step by step fashion he brings the reader to an understanding of the ethics of Yoga the role of movement and breath and the processes of concentration and meditation Finally building on the root metaphor of luminosity and light Chapple explains the applications of Yoga in daily life Yoga and the Luminous also includes a word by word translation of Patanjali's Yoga Sutra the foundational text of Yoga philosophy and a system of ethical practice and bodily purification The translation is accompanied by an analysis that traces key ideas through the text such as the reversal of mental and sensory outflows and the theme of spiritual discernment Chapple also gives special attention to the feminine in the description of Yoga practices Historical Dictionary of World War II Anne Sharp Wells, 2023-12-15 World War II was the largest and most costly conflict in history the first true global war Fought on land on sea and in the air it involved numerous countries and killed maimed or displaced millions of people both civilian and military around the world In spite of the alliances that bound many of the same participants the war was essentially two separate but simultaneous conflicts one involved Japan as the major antagonist and took place mostly in Asia and the Pacific and the other initiated by Germany and Italy was contested mainly in Europe North Africa the Mediterranean and the Atlantic This book focuses on the lesser known war the war with Japan It begins with Japan's seizure of Manchuria from China in 1931 and covers Japan's ambitious attacks on Pearl Harbor and other territories ten years later the use of atomic bombs on Japan's cities and the end of the Allied occupation of Japan in 1952 Although Japan renounced war in its 1947 constitution conflict continued across Asia as former colonies fought for independence and civil war engulfed other areas Historical Dictionary of World War II The War Against Japan Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on the military diplomatic political social economic and scientific aspects of the war in addition to the lives of the people who participated in and directed the war This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the war against Japan during World War II School Leadership and Educational Change in Singapore Benjamin Wong, Salleh Hairon, Pak Tee Ng, 2019-03-29 This book provides readers with insights into how Singapore school leaders are actively engaged in the transformation of the Singapore education system It brings to attention crucial elucidations of the increasing demand and complexity placed on school leaders through the use of case studies Each chapter in the book focuses on a particular issue which has become important or has gained renewed importance in the Singapore education system The chapters first provide a background to the theme under examination and a theoretical basis for discussion They then narrate the case that shows how school leaders interpret and implement policy initiatives in their respective schools or lead change in that area The case studies span over a wide range of domains such as instructional leadership assessment leadership stakeholder engagement professional learning communities and school branding The data collected from these case studies came primarily from interviews of educators in their respective school contexts in addition to other sources of data such as artifacts Each case study highlights descriptions interpretations and perspectives across school contexts which is consistent with the proposition that school leadership is very much shaped by context At the end of each chapter there are guiding questions to help readers critically analyse and reflect on the main learning points of the case

Modern Chinese Religion II: 1850 - 2015 (2 vols.) ,2015-10-20 The last of four two volume sets on the key periods of paradigm shift in Chinese religious and cultural history this book examines the transformation of values in China since 1850 in the secular realms of economics science medicine aesthetics media and gender and in each of the major religions Confucianism Buddhism Daoism Christianity as well as in Marxist discourse The nation and science are the values invoked most frequently with the market and democracy a distant second As in previous periods of fundamental change in Chinese history rationalization and secularization have played central roles but interiorization nearly disappears as a driving force Also in continuity with the past the state insists on an exclusive right to define and adjudicate orthodoxy Contributors include Daniel H Bays S bastien Billioud Adam Yuet Chau Na Chen Philip Clart Walter B Davis Arif Dirlik Thomas David DuBois Lizhu Fan David Faure Melissa Wei Tsing Inouye Ji Zhe Xiaofei Kang Eric I Karchmer Andr Lalibert Angela Ki Che Leung Xun Liu Richard Madsen David Ownby Ellen Oxfeld Volker Scheid Grace Yen Shen Michael Szonyi Wang Chien ch uan Xue Yu
